FORT WILLIAM,

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT,

THE 5TH OF OCTOBER, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council has much satisfaction in republishing for general information, a Notification issued by Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary in China, announcing the conclusion at Nanking, on the 29th of August last, of a Treaty of Peace, which was signed by the Chinese High Commissioners, with the assent of the Emperor to its provisions received in an Imperial Edict on the 27th Idem.

A Royal Salute is directed to be fired from the Ramparts of Fort William in honor of this event.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

G. A. BUSHBY,

Offg. Secy. to Govt. of India.

CIRCULAR

To Her Britannic Majesty's Subjects in China.

Her Britannic Majesty's Plenipotentiary in China has extreme gratification in announcing to Her Majesty's Subjects in China, that he has this day concluded and signed, with the Chinese High Commissioners, deputed to negociate with him, a treaty, of which the following are the most important Provisions.

1. Lasting Peace and Friendship between the two Empires.

2. China to pay Twenty-one Millions of Dollars in the course of the present and three succeeding years.

3. The Ports of Canton, Amoy, Foo-choo-foo, Ningpo, and Shanghai, to be thrown open to British Merchants, Consular officers to be appointed to reside at them and regular and just Tariffs, of import and export (as well as inland Transit) duties to be established and published.

4. The Island of Hong to be ceded in perpetuity to Her Britannic Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

5. All Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, (whether Natives of Europe or of India) who may be in confinement in any part of the Chinese Empire to be unconditionally released.

6. An act of full and entire Amnesty to be published by the Emperor under His Imperial Sign Manual and Seal to all Chinese Subjects, on account of their having held service or intercourse with, or resided under the British Government or its officers.

7. Correspondence to be conducted on terms of perfect equality amongst the officers of both Governments.

8. On the Emperor's assent being received to the Treaty, and the payment of the first Six Millions, Her B. M.'s Forces to retire from Nanking and the Grand Canal, and the Military Posts at Chinhai to be also withdrawn, but the Islands of Chusan and Koolangsoo are to be held until the Money Payments and the arrangements for opening the Ports be completed.

In promulgating this highly satisfactory intelligence Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary purposely refrains from any detailed expression of his own sentiments as to the surpassing skill, energy, devotion, and valour, that distinguished the various grades, from the highest to the lowest of all arms of Her Majesty's combined Forces, during the contest that has led to these momentous results.

The claims which have been thus established will be doubtless acknowledged by the Highest Authorities. In the meantime, H. M.'s Plenipotentiary congratulates Her Majesty's Subjects in China on this occasion of a Peace, which he trusts and believes will in due time be equally beneficial to the Subjects and interests of both England and China.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India has directed the publication of a Despatch this day received from Vice Admiral Sir William Parker, K. C. B., Naval Commander in Chief on the Coast of China, enclosing copies of His Excellency's Reports to the Admiralty of the successful operations of the Combined Forces in China in the capture of Woosung, Paonshan and Shanghae.

(Copies.)

From His Excellency Vice Admiral Sir WM. PARKER, K. C. B.,
Naval Commander in Chief, China,

To the Right Honorable Lord ELLENBOROUGH,
Governor General of India.

Dated Cornwallis, at Woosung, 26th June, 1842.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to enclose for your Lordship's information copies of my Despatches to the Secretary of the Admiralty, reporting the capture of Woosung, Paonshan and Shanghae, on the 16th and 19th instant, with a total of not less than 400 Guns and a large quantity of Arms and Military Stores, with comparatively small loss; and I beg to offer my congratulations to your Lordship on these events.

Sir Hy. Pottinger returned to the Expedition on the 20th instant, and nearly the whole of the expected reinforcements of Troops and Ships of War have arrived in this quarter with ample supplies of Provisions and Stores.

As I believe His Excellency Sir Hugh Gough sends your Lordship the copies of our late correspondence with "Elepao," I do not trouble you with another set, and have only to add that no time will be lost in advancing the Expedition up the Yang-tse-Keang in prosecution of further operations.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. PARKER, Vice Admiral.

Dated Cornwallis, at Woosung, 26th June, 1842.

No. 128.

From His Excellency Vice Admiral Sir W. PARKER, K. C. B.,
Naval Commander in Chief, China,

To the SECRETARY OF THE ADMIRALTY, &c. &c. &c.

Dated Cornwallis, Woosung Harbour, 17th June, 1842.

SIR,

I did myself the honor of apprising the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty on the 26th ultimo, from Chapoo that His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir Hugh Gough and myself had it in contemplation to make our next descent at Woosung, situated at the entrance of a large River of that name branching from the Yang-tse-Keang; and I have now the gratification of reporting to their Lordships that after a severe cannonading yesterday from Her Majesty's Squadron and the Steam Vessels of the Indian Navy under my command, and a spirited resistance on the part of the Chinese, the whole of their numerous and heavy Batteries, defended by several thousand men, were carried with little comparative loss by the Seamen and Marines; and a practicable place for disembarking the Troops having been thus secured, the combined Forces under Sir Hugh Gough took possession of Paoushan, a City of the third class, at the Northern extremity of the Sea line of batteries, without further resistance.

In detailing these operations I beg to inform their Lordships, that as soon as the Guns, Arms, and Military Stores of every description taken at Chapoo were effectually destroyed, not a moment was lost in re-embarking the Troops.

The fleet sailed from thence on the 28th of May, and on the following day reached the Rugged Islands, lying 14 leagues distant to the Eastward, where Commanders Kellett and Collinson had recently discovered a safe and extensive sound, conveniently situated as an anchorage for the Expedition, pending the further examination of those Officers assisted by Lieutenant Maitland, of the "Algerine," to ascertain a safe channel for the large Ships into the Yang-tse-Keang; but it was not until the 4th instant, that they were able to rejoin us with a satisfactory report of their investigation.

The fleet proceeded to the Northward on the following day; but from the strength of the tides, calms, fogs and the necessity of anchoring during the nights, we did not arrive at the appointed rendezvous off the Amherst Rocks before the 8th, when the "Modeste," with the "Nemesis" and "Phlegethon," Steam Vessels, were immediately detached off Woosung to intercept any communication with that place; and six of the small vessels were at the same time placed as beacons at the edge of the shoals on the North side of the channel, leading into the Yang-tse-Keang; this highly important duty was executed most skilfully by Commanders Kellett and Collinson as no land marks are visible on the low banks of the River by which the dangers can be defined; and the "Ariadne," Iron Steam Vessel, very narrowly escaped foundering by striking on the point of a rock, before unknown, near the position taken up by the "Algerine." This rock is awash at low water, and had not more than 4 or 5 feet on it at the time the bottom of the Steam Vessel was completely perforated, and the compartment which contains the Engine instantaneously filled with water, but by prompt assistance from the Squadron, and a sail being got under her bottom, the leak was sufficiently absorbed to enable her, with the assistance of the Sesostris, to reach Chusan, where I trust her damages will be made good in a few weeks.

The weather continued too thick for the Ships again to break ground before the 13th, when I am happy to say the "Cornwallis," conducted by Commander Kellet, and accompanied by the Squadron stated in the margin, and twelve Transports succeeded in reaching the anchorage off Woosung under sail without a single accident, though running for a distance of 30 miles in water which only exceeded by 3 feet the draft of this Ship.

Blonde—Columbine—Jupiter Troop Ship—Phlegethon, Tenasserim, Medusa Steam Vessels.

I found that Commander Watson, with Mr. Forster, Master of the "Modeste," had been indefatigable since their arrival in making observations and sounding the narrow channel by which alone the "Woosung" River can be approached. The banks at the entrance were lined with strong batteries; the Western side preventing for 3 miles an uninterrupted fortified embankment mounting 134 guns, between the City of "Poushau" and the Village of "Woosung." This Village is bounded by a Creek on the opposite bank of which a semi-circular battery mounting ten 24-pounders was erected to flank the entrance of the river. A strong Fort, mounting 21 guns, at the Eastern entrance of the Woosung, completed the sea defence, making a total of 175 guns, which were all placed in judicious positions.

The distance between the last mentioned Fort on the East side and the main battery on the West line is scarcely a mile, and the Channel which runs between them on the West side in a curved direction, is not more than 320 yards wide.

A close reconnoissance was made by Sir Hugh Gough and myself in the "Medusa" Steam Vessel, on the 14th, but we were unable to discover any spot where the Troops could be landed, except under the guns of the Ships; and I could not entertain a doubt of soon effecting this object, if they could be placed in good positions for cannonading the works.

Although the weather was unfavorable, every difficulty was overcome by the zeal and perseverance of Commanders Kellett and Collinson, assisted by the Masters of H. M.'s Ships named in the margin, who during the night sounded and buoyed the Channel with admirable accuracy. The "Medusa" was then advanced as near as the batteries as we could venture to anchor her, supported by Guard Boats to prevent the Chinese removing the Buoys, and by the vigilance of Lieutenant Hewett none of them were disturbed.

Cornwallis—Mr. Jonas Coaker.
Blonde—H. A. Thomas.
Modeste—John T. Forster.
Columbine—Richd. G. Wills.

The "Sesostris" returned from Chusan on the 15th, and the wind being adverse for the Ships taking up their positions under sail, I determined on placing them against the batteries by the aid of the Steam Vessels; and the following morning, being from the state of the weather and tide favorable for our purpose, they were lashed alongside of Her M.'s Ships at dawn of day, and at 6 o'clock the whole proceeded to the attack in the following order:

Blonde, towed by	Tenasserim.
Cornwallis,	Sesostris.
Modeste,	Nemesis.
Columbine,	Phlegethon.
Clio,	Pluto.

Algerine to get in as far as possible under sail; the Medusa being reserved to meet any unexpected contingency.

The "Blonde" and "Cornwallis" were directed to anchor against the heaviest batteries at the entrance on the Western side; and when placed the Sloops were to proceed higher up under the cover of their fire, to attack those adjoining the Village of "Woosung," and the flanking battery immediately opposite to it; which it was evident could be passed and enfiladed if the depth of water marked on the Charts in our possession proved correct.

The "Blonde" was kept ahead of the "Cornwallis" to be ready to support the Sloops should they require it; the narrowness of the Channel in which we were to anchor making it doubtful in that event whether there would be space for her to pass this Ship.

Captain Bourchier led in with his accustomed gallantry and ability closely followed by the "Cornwallis" bearing my flag under a heavy fire from the batteries on both sides which we were obliged to approach under Commanders Kellett and Collinson, handsomely volunteered their assistance as Pilots, and about half past 6 o'clock the two Ships were anchored by the stern in excellent positions, within five hundred yards of the batteries, the Sloops passing on successively to their stations.

The "Algerine" was obliged to bring up astern of the "Cornwallis," and the "Sesostris" after casting off from this Ship, in proceeding to take a station to enfilade the Fort on the eastern side, unfortunately took the ground, but in a position which enabled Commander Ormsby to render very essential service of which he ably availed himself.

Before the "Tenasserim" could take up her assigned station, the "North Star" was observed outside endeavouring to enter the Channel, the former Vessel was therefore despatched to tow her into position; and under the guidance of Commander Kellett, she was placed in a good berth ahead of the "Blonde" in time to participate in our operations. The "Tenasserim" then attempted to close the eastern battery with which the "Sesostris" and some of the larboard guns of the "Cornwallis" were engaged, but in doing so she likewise took the ground, although in a situation to render very effective service.

It is but justice to say that the Chinese evinced much firmness in their guns and kept up a smart fire for a considerable time although it gradually slackened after the Ships opened on them.

The Gun practice of the Squadron equalled my most sanguine expectations and by eight o'clock our opponents were all driven from their batteries, those opposite to the Ships being reduced to a ruinous state. Large bodies of Troops however were still observed from our mast-heads collected in different directions to oppose our landing; but they were at length dispersed by shells which were thrown with excellent precision by the Gunnery Officers of the "Cornwallis" and "Blonde," with the addition of some Rockets from the former Ship.

During these proceedings at the entrance of the River, the "Modeste," "Columbine" and "Clio" led on with great spirit by Commander Watson and skilfully conducted by the Steam Vessels respectively attached to them, gallantly and completely achieved the service assigned them, the "Modeste" pushed at once into the Creek at the Village of "Woosung," while the "Columbine" and "Clio" approached the opposite flank of the semi-circular battery which was immediately abandoned; and the Guns adjoining the Village being soon silenced, the three Commanders landed at the head of their men about eight o'clock and took possession of it, but not without some resistance from the Chinese Troops in that quarter. On perceiving this movement, the main body of the Seamen and Marines which were already in the boats, immediately disembarked opposite the "Cornwallis" and "Blonde" under Captain Bourchier, supported by Captains Peter Richards and Sir J. Everard Home, and forming a junction with Commander Watson's party, the whole line of the Western batteries were completely in our hands.

The Chinese in the eastern battery, which also suffered considerably, retired shortly afterwards, when Commander Ormsby promptly landed with a party of men from the "Sesostris" and "Tenasserim" and destroyed the Guns and Works.

The smaller Steam Vessels equally contributed to the success which attended Commander Watson's division, and when the "Nemesis" and "Phlegethon" were disengaged from the "Modeste" and "Columbine," Lieutenants Hall and McCleverty proceeded with their usual activity in chase of 13 War Junks which had fired on them in their advance; these were totally destroyed, each mounting about 3 Guns besides small arms, but the Crews after sustaining much loss made their escape. Three small Junks, newly constructed with paddle wheels to work by hand, were also taken. In performing this service, the "Nemesis" took the ground and remained some hours on shore, but got off without injury; and I must not omit to notice the exertions of the "Medusa" and "Pluto" with similar approbation.

No time was lost in despatching the available Steam Vessels for the Troops, and before one o'clock I had the satisfaction of seeing the whole of the Land Forces disembarked without accident under their gallant General, opposite to the "Cornwallis;" and in the afternoon the Combined Forces entered "Pouchong" without resistance.

I now gladly acquit myself of a very gratifying part of my duty in bearing testimony to the gallantry and satisfactory conduct of the Captains, Commanders, Officers, and men of all ranks in the Royal and Indian Navy, and Royal Marines under my Command. It would be almost invidious to particularize where all have displayed the same emulative spirit of enterprise and zeal; the whole being entitled to my unqualified commendation; but from the special position of my Flag Captain, I may be allowed without prejudice to these sentiments to express my acknowledgments for the valuable assistance which I at all times derive from the unwearied exertions and good judgment of Capt. P. Richards, and I may add that my Secretary Mr. B. Chimoo, and Flag Lieut. Chas. E. Tennant having invariably attended me on every occasion of service with most praiseworthy zeal.

I transmit herewith for his Lordship's information lists of the killed and wounded, the damages sustained in the respective Ships, the names of the Officers who were attached to the landing parties on the 16th, and an account of the Guns which have been taken.

It is impossible to state accurately either the force or the loss of the Chinese, as they
No. 1. are quick in removing those who have suffered, but from the number of bodies
" 2. found in different directions, I cannot estimate their killed at less than one hundred, and
" 3. a proportionate number of wounded, and from various accounts they must have had
" 4. from five to ten thousand men for the defence of "Woosung" and "Poushan."

Many additional Guns have fallen to our hands at and to the northward of the City; a considerable number of those taken are of Copper, which we are now embarking in the Ships of War and Transports, and as soon as the destruction of the Chinese Military Stores is completed, the General and myself propose to advance on the City of Shanghae.

No. 130.

From His Excellency Vice Admiral Sir W. PARKER, K. C. B.,
Naval Commander in Chief,

To the SECRETARY OF THE ADMIRALTY, &c. &c. &c.

Dated Cornwallis, Woosung Harbour, 24th June, 1842.

SIR,

In anticipation of our advance on "Shanghae," communicated in my Letter No. 128 of the 17th instant, I beg to acquaint you for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the "Phlegethon" and "Medusa" were despatched up the River on that day with Commander Kellet to ascertain if any obstruction might be expected either from the Chinese Forces or want of water for the Steam Vessels in their passage with the Troops; but they returned in a few hours, having been stopped by two strong batteries on each side of the River, about six miles above Woosung, that on the left bank mounting 46 and on the opposite 14 guns; the latter opened a distant but ineffectual fire on the Steam Vessels.

The Modeste, Columbine and Clio, towed by the Nemesis, Phlegethon and Pluto, were therefore immediately sent in advance with directions to Commander Watson, to take up a position as near as possible to these batteries, without drawing their fire until the Expeditionary forces joined; but to destroy the Guns and Stores in them, if the panic caused by the attack of the 16th should induce the Chinese to quit them without much resistance: and I now transmit a copy of Commander Watson's report of his having taken possession of both these works without opposition.

The Expeditionary forces were joined on the 16th by the Dido, with 8 Transports, containing the 2d Madras Native Infantry, and other reinforcements from India; and the destruction of the Guns and Military Stores at "Pouchan" and "Woosung" being completed, the Troops were emkarked on the morning of the 19th, in the Tenasserim, Nemesis, Phlegethon and Pluto, which respectively took the North Star, Modeste, Columbin and Clio in tow, and proceeded up the River; the Marines of the Squadron being put on board the "Medusa," in which the General and his Staff did me the honor to accompany me, together with Captains Bourchier, Richards and Kappel, and a few boats from their respective Ships to assist in landing the Troops—a force of about five hundred men, including some Horse Artillery, were also despatched by the General by land towards Shanghae, which is about 12 miles above Woosung.

With the exception of one or two narrow Channels we found no difficulty in navigating this splendid river, and by half past one o'clock had approached within sight of the City when the "North Star," which was leading, observed a range of batteries at the north end of it which soon afterwards opened a distant fire without doing any mischief, the Squadron was then directed by signal to cast off the Steamers and engage, when the Ships promptly shot into close positions, and on the discharge of two well directed broadsides from the North Star and Modeste (by which four guns were dismounted) and a few guns from the Steam Vessels, the Chinese fled with precipitation, and Captain Bourchier immediately landed with the Seamen and Marines and took possession of the Batteries on which 49 Guns (17 of brass) were mounted, and a considerable quantity of Arms of different descriptions; the whole of which, with the exception of the brass guns, were destroyed.

The troops disembarked in the City from the Steam Vessels nearly at the same time, when they were joined by the party that marched from Woosung, which had previously entered on the West side, but the Mandarin authorities had all fled, and the principal inhabitants were departing as fast as possible in every direction.

The Columbine and Medusa were sent to the Southward of the City to endeavour to check this depopulation, but although the River at Shanghae is not less than 650 yards wide, it was literally covered with Junks and boats of all sizes carrying off furniture and goods. The respectable inhabitants however that did remain, appeared to regard us with less apprehension than I had anywhere before seen, and they freely produced the supplies of provisions, &c. that were required. We were informed that the day before our arrival a serious affray had occurred between the inhabitants and the Mandarin Party, and several lives lost, in consequence of the heavy exactions of the latter for the avowed purpose of defending the place and their hasty abandonment of it on our approach.

A large quantity of Guns, Arms and other Ammunitions of War, as well as an abundant store of Rice were found in the Arsenal and Magazines at Shanghae; and while the Land Forces were occupied in examining and destroying them, and the Ships in getting off the brass Guns, &c. —feeling very desirable to ascertain, as far as it was practicable, the navigable course of the River, and other water communications of the interior, Capt. Bourchier and Commander Kellett proceeded on the 20th with the Phlegethon and Medusa, the Barge and some Marines of the Cornwallis and a boat of the Columbine, for 30 miles without interruption, when two batteries of 5 Guns each were observed on the left bank in the supposed vicinity of Sung-keang, they were however abandoned on the approach of the Steam Vessels, and Lieutenant Wise, with the Boats and Marines of the Cornwallis, landed and destroyed them without resistance, although a considerable body of Troops had assembled within a short distance.

Captain Bourchier's report of his progress up the River was so satisfactory that I determined to prosecute the examination still further, and accordingly proceeded on the following day with the addition of the Nemesis, and we succeeded in ascending 37 miles in a direct line and 47 including the sinuosities of the River above Shanghae where we were stopped by the shallowness of the water at the entrance of a large lagoon, but having spoken with some small Junks loaded with Coal which left Suchan-fu only on the preceding day, we satisfactorily ascertained that there is a water communication from the Woosung River with that rich and popular City; and that we had actually reached within 25 miles of it with encouraging hopes that the small Steamers may convey Troops within a short distance of it should it be desirable.

Commander Kellett's zeal on this service and on every other in which he is engaged, exceeds all praise; and I have the satisfaction of herewith transmitting for their Lordships information a Sketch which he has drawn with much ability of the Coast of the Woosung from its entrance as far as we have proceeded. It will convey to their Lordships the best idea of the locality in which we have been operating, and I trust prove a satisfactory addition to our present geographical knowledge of these parts.

The Troops were all re-embarked at Shanghae early on the morning of the 23d, when the Squadron dropped down the River, and they were in the course of the afternoon transferred to their respective Transports at the anchorage off Woosung.

The Surveying Vessels and Light Ships of the Squadron will now proceed up the Yang-tae-kiang, and their Lordships may depend that no time will be lost in proceeding with the Expeditionary Forces in prosecution of further operations.

I have, &c.,

(Sd.) W. PARKER,
Vice Admiral.

P. S. I enclose a list of Guns taken and destroyed in the batteries between Woosung and Shanghae, in the Arsenal and Batteries at Shanghae and above that City, on the banks of the River.

To Vice Admiral Sir Wm. PARKER, K. C. B., Commander-in-Chief,
&c. &c. &c.

Dated Modeste, Woosung River, 1-30 P. M., 18*th June,* 1842.

Sir,

In pursuance of your Excellency's order of yesterday's date I have placed the Ships under my Command (except the Clio who unfortunately got aground on her way up, and has not as yet been got afloat) out of gun shot of the batteries.

Finding this morning that the batteries on the Starboard and Larboard side above us had been deserted by the Enemy, I dropped the Modeste near and landed and took possession of them with the Marines and Small Arm men of the Modeste and Columbine.

On the Larboard side
8 Copper Guns.
32 Iron Ditto.
On the Starboard side
8 Copper Guns.
6 Iron Ditto.

I found the Guns named in the margin had been dismounted, Tents destroyed and Carriages most of them been taken away—above the batteries I found 8 War Junks, all of which were burnt, except a small one in which I hope this evening to have all the Copper Guns embarked.

I have also the honor to enclose to your Excellency a copy of Mr. Forster's remarks, who has been sounding about a mile above the batteries in our boats.

I have also to inform your Excellency that the Chop intrusted to me was forwarded to the City of Shanghae by a Chinaman, who undertook to deliver it there on the payment of a few Dollars.

I have, &c,

THE 30TH SEPTEMBER, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 30th of September 1842:—

ACT No. —— 1842.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice within the Town of Calcutta, in small causes not included within the jurisdiction of the Court of Requests.

I. It is hereby enacted, that from and after it shall be lawful for any one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court to hold a Court for the hearing and decision of all matters for which a Civil Action at Law will lie in the said Supreme Court except as hereinafter mentioned, according to the Law there administered, subject to such modifications as are hereinafter authorized—provided that the amount claimed by the Plaintiff do not exceed 400 Company's Rupees, and provided the suit be not founded on any demand of damages for an assault or battery, or for written or verbal defamation.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that Suits at present cognizable by the Court of Requests shall be brought before that Court as heretofore, and not before the Judge holding the Court indicated in the last Section—provided that no judgment passed by the Judge holding such Court shall be impeached for error, or be held as extra judicial on the ground that the Suit ought to have been brought in the Court of Requests.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the said Supreme Court shall make Rules for the proceedings before a Judge holding such Court as is established by this Act—which Rules shall regulate the manner of proceeding in the said Court, viz. the institution of the Suit, the entry of the Plaint, the Process, the entry of the Defence, and other subsequent allegation by either party, and the practice of the said Court, the fees to be taken, and the costs to be allowed. Provided that both Plaintiffs and Defendants be liable to be examined at the discretion of the Judge, and that no witness be deemed incompetent to give testimony upon any ground whatever. Provided further that all such Rules shall receive the confirmation of the Governor General in Council before they are put in force.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that in order to reduce the Costs of Suit and to render the same proportionate to the amount of the demand recoverable before the said Court the allegations of the parties be not entered in any written pleadings to be delivered between party and party, but be made orally before the Officiating Judge and be by him directed to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose to be termed the Book of Pleadings of the said Court, and be entered accordingly under his direction in untechnical and concise language, according to the legal effect thereof, to which Books the parties shall have at all times access without the payment of any fee or reward.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that no Costs of employing any Counsel or Attorney shall be allowed on the taxation of Costs in any Suit in the Court hereby established unless the Judge who presided at the trial shall certify that the nature of the case was such as to render the employment of Counsel or Attorney expedient for the attainment of justice.

VI. And it is hereby enacted that the said Supreme Court shall with the consent of the Governor General in Council thereto previously obtained, and with the like consent previously obtained to the salaries hereinafter mentioned, appoint such Officers as shall be necessary for transacting the business of the said Court established by this Act to be remunerated as far as the same will extend out of the fees of the said last mentioned Court; Provided that the fees hereby directed to be imposed shall be subject to the revision of the said Governor General in Council from time to time, and that the same shall be reduced from time to time if the same shall be found to exceed the amount of the reasonable expenses of the maintenance of the said Court including all such salaries as aforesaid.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that all the power and authority vested in the Supreme Court in the case of Civil Actions shall be vested in every Judge holding such Court as is established by this Act.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 30th day of November next.

FORT WILLIAM, SECRET DEPARTMENT,

THE 13TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct the re-publication of the General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, dated Simla the 30th ultimo, announcing to the Army and to the People of India, the re-capture of the Citadels of Ghuznee and Cabool by the Forces under Major General Nott and Major General Pollock, and the re-establishment of the superiority of the British Arms in Affghanistan.

In re-publishing this gratifying intelligence, the Hon'ble the President in Council cannot refrain from expressing his most cordial participation in the grateful and heartfelt acknowledgments offered by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General to Major General Pollock and Major General Nott, and to the Officers and Troops under their respective Commands, for these brilliant successes, and for the important services which, under Divine Providence, they have performed for the benefit of their country.

A Salute of 21 Guns will be fired this afternoon from the Ramparts of Fort William for the Capture of Ghuznee, and a similar Salute for the Capture of Cabool.

By order of the Hon'ble the President in Council,

G. A. BUSHBY,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

SECRET DEPARTMENT; SIMLA, 30TH SEPTEMBER, 1842.

The Governor General announces to the army and to the people of India, the occupation of Ghuznee by Major General Nott, on the 6th of September, and its entire destruction by the Candahar division of the army.

Major General Nott had the satisfaction of releasing in the neighbourhood of Ghuznee three hundred and twenty-seven Sepoys, of the 27th native infantry, from the slavery to which they had been reduced by the Afghans.

The Governor General likewise announces the complete defeat of Mahomed Akbar Khan at the head of 16,000 men at Tezeen, on the 13th of September, by Major General Pollock, and the occupation of Cabool by the troops under that General, on the 16th of September.

The British flag waves in triumph from the highest point of the Bala Hissar.

Thus have all past disasters been retrieved and avenged on every scene on which they were sustained, and repeated victories in the field and the capture of the cities and citadels of Ghuznee and Cabool have advanced the glory and established the accustomed superiority of the British arms.

The Governor General has derived much satisfaction from the report made by Major General Pollock, of the admirable conduct of the troops of His Highness the Maharajah Shere Sing acting in co-operation with the British army.

The Governor General rejoices in this new proof of the cordial good understanding which prevails between the British Government and that of Lahore.

The report of Major General Pollock leads the Governor General to expect that long before this day all the British prisoners taken by the Afghans will have been brought into the General's camp. Those who had been left near Cabool were already at liberty.

The Governor General, in the name of the Government and of all the people of India, offers to Major General Pollock and Major General Nott, and all the officers and troops under their respective commands, his grateful and heartfelt acknowledgments of the important services they have performed.

The Governor General directs that the recent successes obtained by the armies in Afghanistan be fully made known to all the troops at all the stations of the army, and that at all those stations a salute of 21 guns be fired for the capture of Ghuznee, and a similar salute for the capture of Cabool.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

Commanding field force, Afghanistan,

To T. H. MADDOCK Esq.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,
With the Governor General.
Head Quarters.

Dated Camp Ghuznee, 8th September, 1842.

Sir,—My despatch of the 31st ultimo will have informed you of my having defeated the Afghan army commanded by Shumshoodeen.

On the morning of the 5th instant, I moved on Ghuznee. I found the city full of men, and a range of mountains running North East of the Fortress covered by heavy bodies of cavalry and infantry: the gardens and ravines near the town were also occupied. The enemy had received a considerable reinforcement from Cabool, under Sultan Jan.

I directed Major Sanders, of the Bengal engineers, to reconnoitre the works, under escort of the 16th regiment native infantry and a party of irregular cavalry. This brought on some smart skirmishing, in which our Sepoys behaved to admiration. Captain White, of Her Majesty's 40th regiment, commanding the light companies of the army, was pushed forward, accompanied by Anderson's troop of horse artillery, to support the reconnoitring party, and I at once determined on carrying the enemy's mountain positions before encamping my force. The troops ascended the heights in gallant style, driving the enemy before them until every point was gained.

The village of Bullal is situated about 600 yards from the walls of Ghuznee, upon the spur of the mountain to the North East, and observing it to be a desirable spot for preparing a heavy battery to be placed 300 paces in advance, I ordered it to be occupied by two regiments of infantry and some light guns, and retired the columns into camp.

The engineer officers, sappers and miners, and infantry working parties were employed under the directions of Major Sanders, during the night of the 5th, in erecting a battery for four 18-pounders; these guns were moved from camp before day-light on the morning of the 6th, but before they had reached the position assigned them, it was ascertained that the enemy had evacuated the Fortress.

I directed the City of Ghuznee, with its Citadel and the whole of its works, to be destroyed. I forward the Engineer's report.

In these operations our loss has been much less than might have been expected from the numbers and positions of the enemy, and the fact of the troops having been necessitated to move under range of the guns of the Fortress.

I enclose a list of killed and wounded.

The exertions of Major Sanders, of the engineers, were as usual most zealous, and my thanks are due to him and the department under his charge.

I beg to notice the following officers: Brigadier Wymer: Major Hibbert, commanding Her Majesty's 40th regiment; Captain Evans, in temporary charge of the 16th regiment native infantry; Captain White, Her Majesty's 40th regiment, commanding the light companies of the force; Major Sotheby and officers of the artillery.

I have every reason to be satisfied with my Staff, Captain Polwhele, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General; Captain Waterfield, Aid-de-Camp; Captain Ripley, and Lieutenant Kay, Deputy Judge Advocate General.

I continue to receive the greatest assistance from Major Leach.

I have, &c.

(Signed) W. NOTT, Major General,
Commanding field force, Afghanistan.

P. S. I have recovered about 327 of the Sepoys of the 27th regiment Bengal native infantry, who had been sold into slavery and dispersed in villages 30 and 40 miles round Ghuznee.

(Signed) W. NOTT.

MEMORANDUM.

On the morning of the 5th September 1842, General Nott moved his camp to take up a position before Ghuznee. An advanced party was ordered to protect a reconnoissance of the works undertaken by the engineer department. On the approach of this party to the hills North of the city, it was opposed in force, but was immediately supported by the General, and thus reinforced cleared the hills of the enemy, and took possession of the village of Bullal, within 400 yards of the city.

The General immediately directed this important point with the heights near the village to be maintained, and they were occupied by two regiments of native infantry and two 9-pounder guns.

While these operations were going on, the Camp was established at Rozeh, 2½ miles from the city. The guards required for the protection and general duties of the Camp absorbed so many men that but few were available for the duties of a siege. The General therefore determined not to invest the place in form, and directed the Engineer to concentrate the resources at his disposal in one spot, where protection might be most conveniently afforded to the siege operations.

With advertence to these instructions, the Engineer proposed to establish a battery on the ridge of the hill North of the town, in advance of the village of Bullal, and distant about 350 yards from the nearest point of the walls. From this battery it was expected that the four 18-pounder guns would lay open the thin flank wall connecting the Citadel on the West with the town wall in a few hours. The defences of the Citadel could be swept from the same point by the light artillery, and the lines of loop-holed wall which would bear on the advance of the storming party were all viewed in enfilade from the site selected for the battery. The advance of the party to the assault would have been greatly facilitated by the existence of a thick dam of earth across the ditch, immediately opposite the point marked out for the breach.

It was further proposed that the principal assault should be supported by two other attacks; one an attempt to blow in the water gate (both the others having been strongly built up, and the causeways in front of them cut through) another to escalade a weak point near the Cabool gate, which would have been greatly aided by the fire of the artillery from the hill.

This project met the General's approval, and at dusk on the evening of the 5th September, a working party composed of the sappers and of 160 men from the regiments occupying the hill commenced work on the battery. By 4 A. M. on the 6th September cover for the party had been secured across the ridge of the hill, and so much progress made in the execution of the work as to lead to reasonable expectations that the four 18-pounder guns and two 24-pounder howitzers would be established in position, and ready to open their fire during the day

Early on the evening of the 5th a brisk matchlock fire was kept up from the Citadel on the hill, but this gradually slackened, and at 10 P. M. had entirely ceased. The enemy's infantry had been observed at dusk crossing the river, near the water gate, with the intention, it was supposed, of attacking the working party during the night; but towards the morning of the 6th, there were grounds for believing the Fort was evacuated. At day-light this was ascertained to be the case by Lieutenant North, of the engineers, who took possession at that hour of the water gate without opposition, leaving Ensign Newton and 20 Sepoys of the 16th native infantry in charge of the gateway, and returning to the battery for further assistance. The whole of the working party was immediately moved into the town, of which and of the Citadel of Ghuznee they were in possession before sun-rise.

TO MAJOR GENERAL W. NOTT,
Commanding field force, Ghuznee.

Dated Camp Rozeh, near Ghuznee, 9th September, 1842.

SIR,—On the occupation of the Fortress of Ghuznee by the troops under your command, I received orders from you to take measures for the destruction of the Citadel, to as great an extent as the means at command and the time afforded by a halt of two days would permit.

2. I have now the honor to report, that the engineer department attached to your force has been employed during the 7th and 8th instant, on the work of demolition, and to state the progress effected.

3. Fourteen mines have been sprung in the walls of the Citadel, all with good effect. The upper Fort has been completely destroyed; the second line of works extensively breached in two places; and the outer and lower walls have their revetments blown down and greatly injured in three places.

4. In several spots remote from the mines, the walls, though they have not fallen, are so seriously shaken by the explosions that unless immediate and energetic measures are adopted, on the departure of your force, for their repair and security, they must crumble down during the ensuing winter.

5. The gateways of the town and Citadel, and the roofs of the principal buildings have been fired and are still burning.

I have, &c.,

Dated Camp, Cabool, 16th September, 1842.

Sir,—I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that on the 14th instant, we marched from Khoord Cabool to Bootkhak. I took the precaution of sending parties to crown the heights of the Khoord Cabool pass, but we met with no opposition. On the 15th I moved on to Cabool and encamped on the race course. This morning I proceeded to the Bala Hissar, with the following troops: a troop of horse artillery under Major Delafosse; a company from each regiment of infantry under Lieutenant Colonel Taylor; the 3d dragoons under Major Lockwood; a troop of the 1st regiment light cavalry; a ressallah of the 3d irregular cavalry, with the whole of the General and Division Staff. The object was to plant the British Colours in the Bala Hissar on the spot most conspicuous from the city. The Prince Futteh Jung, who joined my Camp at Gundamuck, expressed a wish to go with the party, to which I assented. On our arrival at the spot selected, the Colours were hoisted, the Band of Her Majesty's 9th foot immediately struck up the national Anthem of "God save the Queen," and a Royal Salute was fired from the guns of the horse artillery, the whole of the troops present giving three cheers.

I have left the Colours in the Bala Hissar, to be hoisted daily as long as we remain. The infantry also remain under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, but they will be relieved on the arrival of Major General Nott, by a native regiment from his force. I expect Major General Nott will reach Cabool to-morrow or the next day. Since our arrival here we have not been able to obtain any certain information of Mahomed Akbar. It appears however that Ameen Oollah has separated from him.

Neither of them have ventured to return in the direction of Cabool. The following prisoners have come into Camp: Mrs. Trevor, with 8 Children; Captain and Mrs. Anderson, with 3 Children; Captain Troup and Dr. Campbell. Unless some very unforeseen circumstances occur, I expect to obtain possession of the remainder of the prisoners in the course of 8 or 10 days, with the exception of Captain Bygrave, who I regret to find, has been taken by Mahomed Akbar, and was with him during the action of the 13th instant.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL GEORGE POLLOCK, C. B.,

Commanding in Afghanistan,

To MAJOR GENERAL J. R. LUMLEY,

Adjutant General of the Army.

Dated Camp Bootkhak, 14th September, 1842.

SIR,—I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that I marched from Seh Baba on the 11th instant, and arrived at Tezeen the same day, where I was joined by Major General McCaskill, with the 2d division. On the 12th I halted, in consequence of the cattle of the 2d division having suffered from effects of fatigue caused by their forced march; this halt the enemy imagined to be the result of hesitation, and in the afternoon attacked the picquets on the left flank, and became so daring, that I consider it necessary to send Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, with 250 men of Her Majesty's 9th foot, to drive them back; some sharp fighting took place, and the enemy were driven up the neighbouring hills, from the crests of which they kept up a heavy fire. Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, however, with a small party crept up one end of the hill unperceived by the enemy, who were hotly engaged in their front, and lay concealed until joined by a few more of his men, when rushing up on the flank of the astounded Afghans, he inflicted a severe lesson, pouring in a destructive fire upon them as they fled down the hill. A Chieftain was found among the slain, who it is supposed was the brother of Khodabux Khan. The enemy remained inoffensive on our left flank, in consequence of this very well planned and gallant affair of Lieutenant Colonel Taylor's, and withdrew to the right where they commenced a furious attack upon a picquet consisting of 80 men of the 60th regiment of native infantry, commanded by Lieutenant Montgomery, who sustained the assault with great resolution until reinforcements reached him, when the enemy were beaten off; in this attack the picquet had 4 killed, Lieutenant Montgomery and 17 men wounded; the enemy came so close that frequent recourse was had to the bayonet. Their attempts on the piquets continued throughout the night, but were invariably unsuccessful.

The valley of Tezeen, where we were encamped, is completely encircled by lofty hills, and on the morning of the 13th it was perceived that the Afghans had occupied in great force every height not already crowned by our troops: I commenced my march towards the mouth of the Tezeen pass, where I left two guns, 2 squadrons of Her Majesty's 3d dragoons, a party of the 1st light cavalry and 3d irregular cavalry. The enemy's horse appeared in the valley, with the intention of falling upon the baggage, but it gives me very great pleasure to state, that the dragoons and native cavalry (regular and irregular) made a most brilliant charge, and with such effect that the whole body of the enemy's force was completely routed and a number of them cut up.

The pass of Tezeen affords great advantages to an enemy occupying the heights, and on the present occasion Mahomed Akbar neglected nothing to render its natural difficulties as formidable as numbers could make it. Our troops mounted the heights, and the Afghans, contrary to their general custom, advanced to meet them, and a desperate struggle ensued; indeed their defence was so obstinate that the British bayonet in many instances alone decided the contest. The light company of Her Majesty's 9th foot, led by Captain Lushington, who I regret to say was wounded in the head, ascending the hills on the left of the pass under a heavy cross fire, charged and overthrew their opponents leaving several horses and their riders, supposed to be Chiefs, dead on the hill; the slaughter was considerable and the fight continued during the greater part of the day, the enemy appearing resolved that we should not ascend the Huft Kotul: one spirit seemed to pervade all, and a determination to conquer overcame the obstinate resistance of the enemy, who were at length forced from their numerous and strong positions, and our troops mounted the Huft Kotul, giving three cheers when they reached the summit. Here Lieutenant Cunningham, with a party of sappers, pressed the enemy so hard, that they left in their precipitation a 24-pounder howitzer and limber, carrying off the draft bullocks. Having heard that another gun had been seen, and concluding that it could not have gone very far, I detached a squadron of dragoons under Captain Tritton, and two horse artillery guns under Major Delafosse in pursuit: the gun (a 12-pounder howitzer) with bullocks sufficient for the two guns were soon captured. The dragoons again got among the enemy and succeeded in cutting up many of them. Captain Broadfoot with the sappers advanced, and with the dragoons happened to fall in with another party of the enemy, of whom upwards of twenty were killed. I have ascertained, there were about 16,000 men in the field opposed to me, a considerable portion of whom was cavalry, Mahomed Akbar Khan, Mahomed Shah Khan, Ameen Oollah, and many other Chiefs with their followers were present, all of whom I have reason to believe have taken to flight. We have gained a complete victory and our enemies have suffered severely, having several hundreds killed, losing their guns and three standards, one of which was taken from the enemy's horse by the 1st light cavalry. Although many attempts were made at the baggage, none were successful, chiefly owing to the judicious and admirable arrangements of Lieutenant Colonel Richmond, commanding the rear guard, and for which he deserves the greatest credit.

The Lahore contingent, under the able direction of Captain Lawrence, has invariably given the most cheerful assistance, dragging the guns, occupying the heights, and covering the rear guard. While ascending Huft Kotul and at Tezeen their long jezails told effectively in keeping the ground.

Major Skinner, Her Majesty's 31st foot, had been detached with a strong party on the night of the 12th, for the purpose of dislodging a body of the enemy on the heights in front of camp; this duty was performed with great gallantry the next morning, and his operations contributed much to frustrate the attempts of the enemy on our right flank. As the Major's movements were for some time separate from those of the main column, I deem it expedient to annex his report.

The enemy being completely dispersed, we pursued our march and encamped at Khoord Cabool without further opposition. The troops on this, as on all former occasions where they have been engaged with the enemy, shewed the most determined valor, and I feel that I cannot too highly praise their conduct: each regiment seemed to vie with the others in their endeavours to dislodge the enemy, which they most effectually accomplished. I have received from Major General McCaskill,

K. H., who on this occasion commanded the main column, every assistance, and from Major General Sir R. Sale, G. C. B., commanding the advance guard, the most zealous co-operation. The following officers have also given me every reason to be satisfied with their exertion: Brigadier Monteath, C. B., commanding the 4th brigade; Brigadier Tulloch, commanding 2d brigade, and Brigadier White, commanding cavalry brigade; Lieutenant Colonel Bolton, commanding Her Majesty's 31st foot; Lieutenant Colonel Richmond, commanding 33d native infantry; and Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, K. H., commanding Her Majesty's 9th foot; Major Skinner, Her Majesty's 31st foot; Major Huish, commanding 26th native infantry; Major Delafosse, commanding artillery; Major Crommelin, commanding 1st light cavalry; Major Lockwood, commanding Her Majesty's 3d light dragoons; Captain Napleton, commanding 60th native infantry; Captain Seaton, commanding 35th regiment light infantry; Captain Ferris, commanding Jezailchies; Captain Wilkinson, commanding Her Majesty's 13th light infantry; Captain Broadfoot, commanding sappers; Captain Tait, commanding 3d irregular cavalry, and Captain Lawrence, commanding the Seikh contingent; Captain Abbott, Chief Engineer; Captain Abbott, commanding light field battery; Captain Alexander, commanding 3d troop 2d brigade horse artillery; Captain Backhouse, commanding mountain train, and Lieutenant Becher, commanding the sappers and miners. The services of Mr. Mackeson, commanding the bildars, have always been conspicuous. Superintending Surgeon Stiven's care in providing for the conveyance and comfort of the wounded has met with my approbation. From Major Thompson, at the head of the commissariat department, I have received every assistance; likewise from Captain Lane, Commissary of Ordnance, whose exertions have been unremitting throughout. From the following officers of my Personal and the General Staff I have on this as on every other occasion received the most effectual aid: Captain Macgregor and Lieutenant Pollock, Aids-de-Camp; Lieutenant Sir R. Shakespear, Military Secretary; Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General; Captain Codrington, Assistant QuarterMaster General; Captain Riddle, Pay Master; Captain Macadam, Deputy Judge Advocate General; Lieutenant Mayne, officiating Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General. The following officers of division and brigade Staff have also effectively performed their respective duties: Captain Havelock, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General; Brigade Majors Havelock, Smith, Wade, Lugard, and Brevet Captain Fitzgerald, artillery division Staff. I must not omit the expression of my regret for the fate of Hyder Ally, the native Commandant of the Jezailchies, a most gallant and enterprizing soldier, who was killed while attempting to seize one of the enemy's standards.

I have the honor to forward reports from Lieutenant Colonels Richmond and Taylor, and Major Skinner, with returns of killed and wounded, and of Ordnance, Ammunition and Stores captured.

I have, &c.

Copy of a letter from Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, commanding Her Majesty's 9th regiment of foot, to Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General.

Dated Camp Khoord Cabool, 13th September, 1842.

Sir,—I have to report, for the information of Major General Pollock, C. B., commanding the troops in Afghanistan, that agreeably to his orders, I proceeded at ½ past 5 o'clock yesterday evening with 250 men of Her Majesty's 9th, to the support of the guards in charge of the public cattle feeding on the left of the Camp in the Tezeen valley, which were much pressed by the enemy. On clearing the left picquet, I was joined by Major Huish with a small party of the 26th native infantry. I threw forward a strong body of skirmishers, who quickly drove back those of the enemy on the plain, pursuing them to a range of low hills, where they made a stand till dislodged by our advance: further on I found the enemy in force, from 5 to 600, had taken post along the crest and on the top of a range of steep hills running near a mile from the Northward into the Tezeen valley; those towards the North were assailed by Captain Lushington, Her Majesty's 9th foot, with the left support and skirmishers, whilst I directed the attack against their front and left flank, which being turned, I ascended the heights between two ridges which concealed my approach till close to the summit and within 20 yards of their main body consisting of over 300 men. Collecting 30 to 40 men with Lieutenants Elmherst, Lister and Vigors, I ordered bayonets to be fixed, and the enemy to be charged, which was done with such resolution and effect, that the whole mass taken by surprise was pushed headlong down the hills, nor did they rally till out of musket shot. Their loss must have been very severe, as I observed numbers lagging behind to carry off their killed and wounded. As it was getting dark, I deemed it imprudent to pursue the enemy further, ordered the halt to be sounded, and after remaining in possession of their position for half an hour, retired without molestation. It affords me great gratification to bear testimony to the spirit and gallantry displayed by officers and men on this occasion, especially Major Huish, 26th regiment native infantry, Captain Lushington, and those concerned in the charge on the enemy.

I beg to transmit a return of the killed and wounded.

Sir,—I have the honor to report for the information of the Major General commanding the army in Afghanistan, that I ascended the heights above the Tezeen valey, in front of our Camp, with the detachment in the margin, on the afternoon of the 12th instant, and occupied the ridge till day-light next morning. From a communication with Major General Sir R. Sale, G. C. B., I learnt that I was to take the high peaks to the right of my position, and having driven the enemy from them, continue to operate among the lower hills to the head of the Huft Kotul, on the right flank of the advance guard of the army. These peaks were occupied in some force by the enemy, who was however easily driven from them and cleared away to the higher hills on my right. I ascended the first peak, which although the way was steep was not very difficult, in two small columns. The 1st, the companies of Her Majesty's 9th and 26th native infantry under Captain Borton, of the 9th foot; the second under Lieutenant Sayers, of the 31st, composed of the 2 companies of Her Majesty's 31st foot and 33d native infantry, covered by the sappers and jezailchies under Lieutenant Orr. I detached Lieutenant Sinclair, of the 13th light infantry, with the company of his regiment and one of the 35th native infantry, to the higher peak on the right hand, and supported him by Lieutenant Orr and the sappers, (after I had possession of the 1st height) who ascended by a steep ridge that connected them. Lieutenant Sinclair attained the summit of the hill without loss, driving the enemy away, and held it until the main column of advance came in sight, when he led his column on my right over the hills at the base of the higher mountains. The height I gained descends to the high road by a succession of small peaks, each connected by a narrow ridge; the enemy occupied with small parties each of these peaks, and was driven in succession from them. Captain Borton, at the head of a party of the 9th foot, made a gallant charge upon a strongly posted party of the enemy, and drove them away; he showed a great deal of boldness however, and made repeated attempts to recover his ground, taking advantage of the necessarily slow advance of the supporting parties from the steep and difficult nature of the hills. After I gained all the peaks, and the enemy had fallen back, I continued parallel to the main column over the hills to some distance beyond the top of the Huft Kotul; considering the great number that at one time opposed me until the appearance of the main column drew them off, my loss was not great, while the enemy suffered considerably. I beg leave to bring to the notice of the Major General the very good conduct of the officers and men who were under my command.

Copy of a letter from Lieutenant Colonel Richmond, commanding 33d native infantry, to Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General.

Dated Camp Bootkhak, 14th September, 1842.

SIR,—Major General Pollock, C. B., commanding the troops, having entrusted me specially with the command of the rear guard of the army from Tezeen through the Huft Kotul pass, on the 13th instant, and having placed at my disposal the troops detailed in the margin, I have now the honor to report the operations of the day, for the Major General's information. Having made the necessary disposition of my force to protect the baggage in the valley of Tezeen, and to secure the gorge of the pass, the different picquets were gradually withdrawn to strengthen the latter. Soon after I observed a large body of the enemy collecting near the Fort of Tezeen, South East of my position, and directed Lieutenant Douglas, whose guns had been previously posted on a commanding point, to open on them, but the distance proving too great for shells, the fire was discontinued. The enemy I suppose, encouraged by this, formed his cavalry in the valley to the number of about 600 men, with the evident intention of moving towards my post. I instantly decided on anticipating him, and as Captain Alexander's (horse artillery) three guns were still on the ground, I availed myself of his services, by sending forward his guns within range of the enemy, supported by the front squadron of Her Majesty's 3d light dragoons under Captain Unett, one squadron of 1st light cavalry under Brevet Major Scott, and the detachment of 3d irregular cavalry under Captain Tait, with orders to charge the enemy if the ground proved favorable and an opportunity offered. This soon occurred, the guns having made good impression, and the instant I observed the cavalry advance, the other squadron of dragoons was hurried forward under Major Lockwood, as a support, thus ensuring the success achieved by the spirited and gallant charge of their comrades in front, which completely dispersed the enemy, who left about fifty men on the field, and a standard, the latter taken by the 1st light cavalry, the bearer of which was cut down by Brevet Captain Goad.

Having accomplished all I wished, the troops returned to their original position in excellent order, covered by the very effective fire of the guns directed by Captain Alexander and by a company of the 35th regiment light infantry, the latter ordered forward for the purpose.

As the enemy showed no disposition to molest us further, and the whole of the baggage having entered the pass, the horse artillery and dragoons were permitted to commence their march, but before the latter had filed off, the enemy brought two guns to bear upon our position, which obliged me to place the remainder of the cavalry under cover of the high ground in the vicinity; these guns fortunately did no harm, and were soon after either withdrawn by the enemy, or silenced by a fire of round shot from Lieutenant Douglas's 9-pounder, ably directed by that officer and by Captain Lawrence, Political Agent, commanding the Seikh contigent, who handsomely volunteered his services on the occasion.

After allowing the main column and baggage to get well forward in the pass, I directed the remainder of the cavalry to enter, and followed with the infantry, the different parties of which gradually retired on the posts I had previously occupied, the enemy's infantry closing in and opening a heavy fire, which continued till we reached the top of the pass, a distance of 3 miles; and although I was compelled to hold my ground near the top of the pass for a long time, to admit of the guns and baggage passing over, I am happy to say that the enemy, though he pressed our several posts very warmly, did not then or at any other time obtain the slightest advantage, and at length desisted from molesting us, which enabled me to re-form the troops and continue my march towards Camp, where I arrived about 8 o'clock P. M. with all the stores and baggage except a few loads of grain; also some camels and bullocks unable to proceed, which were destroyed on the road, agreeably to orders.

My best thanks are due to the officers and men engaged, both European and Native, for their cheerful endurance of fatigue under an intensely hot sun, and for their gallant bearing when in contact with the enemy; the whole seemed animated with one and the same spirit, which enabled them to overcome difficulties of no ordinary nature, highly creditable to British soldiers and especially so to the Bengal Sepoys. I feel it also just to notice the useful assistance afforded by the men of the Seikh contingent under Captain Lawrence, who took their full share of duty in the valley of Tezeen, and in defending the different posts in the pass.

Accompanying I have the honor to forward a return of the killed and wounded, which I rejoice to observe is not so heavy as might have been expected from the nature of the operations.

I have, &c.

Whereas the Registry Laws now in force in the respective Mofussils of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, provide that registered conveyances and other instruments affecting titles to land and other interests therein shall not take precedence of unregistered conveyances and instruments in cases where the party registering shall have known of the existence of such unregistered conveyances or other instruments. No. 1142.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT,

THE 15TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct, that the following Proclamation, issued by order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, dated Simla, the 1st October, 1842, be published for general information.

PROCLAMATION.

SECRET DEPARTMENT;

SIMLA, THE 1ST OCTOBER, 1842.

The Government of India directed its army to pass the Indus in order to expel from Afghanistan a Chief believed to be hostile to British interests, and to replace upon his throne a Sovereign represented to be friendly to those interests, and popular with his former subjects.

The Chief believed to be hostile became a prisoner, and the Sovereign represented to be popular was replaced upon his throne; but, after events which brought into question his fidelity to the Government by which he was restored, he lost by the hands of an assassin the throne he had only held amidst insurrections, and his death was preceded and followed by still existing anarchy.

Disasters unparalleled in their extent, unless by the errors in which they originated, and by the treachery by which they were completed, have in one short campaign been avenged upon every scene of past misfortune; and repeated victories in the field, and the capture of the cities and citadels of Ghuznee and Cabool, have again attached the opinion of invincibility to the British arms.

The British army in possession of Afghanistan will now be withdrawn to the Sutlej.

The Governor General will leave it to the Afghans themselves to create a Government amidst the anarchy which is the consequence of their crimes.

To force a Sovereign upon a reluctant people would be as inconsistent with the policy as it is with the principles of the British Government, tending to place the arms and resources of that people at the disposal of the first invader, and to impose the burthen of supporting a Sovereign without the prospect of benefit from his alliance.

The Governor General will willingly recognize any Government approved by the Afghans themselves, which shall appear desirous and capable of maintaining friendly relations with neighbouring States.

Content with the limits nature appears to have assigned to its empire, the Government of India will devote all its efforts to the establishment and maintenance of general peace, to the protection of the Sovereigns and Chiefs its allies, and to the prosperity and happiness of its own faithful subjects.

The rivers of the Punjab and the Indus, and the mountainous passes and the barbarous tribes of Afghanistan, will be placed between the British army and an enemy approaching from the West, if indeed such enemy there can be, no longer between the army and its supplies.

The enormous expenditure required for the support of a large force, in a false military position, at a distance from its own frontier and its resources, will no longer arrest every measure for the improvement of the country and of the people.

The combined army of England and of India, superior in equipment, in discipline, in valour, and in the Officers by whom it is commanded, to any force which can be opposed to it in Asia, will stand in unassailable strength upon its own soil, and for ever, under the blessing of Providence, preserve the glorious empire it has won, in security and in honor.

The Governor General cannot fear the misconstruction of his motives in thus frankly announcing to surrounding States the pacific and conservative policy of his Government.

Afghanistan and China have seen at once the forces at his disposal, and the effect with which they can be applied.

Sincerely attached to peace for the sake of the benefits it confers upon the people, the Governor General is resolved that peace shall be observed, and will put forth the whole power of the British Government to coerce the State by which it shall be infringed.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

SIMLA, 4TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Governor General earnestly desirous of evincing the gratitude of the Government of India towards the General Officers, Officers, and Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates engaged in the operations of the present Campaign in Affghanistan, is pleased, after communicating with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to declare the following Resolutions.

1. No. 261 of 1842.—The General Orders by the Governor General of the 10th January 1817, being in some respects applicable only to those descriptions of Stores which are of English manufacture; the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India, in order to obviate any doubt or misapprehension which may exist regarding the period which Buff or Brown leather Accoutrements, Saddlery and Harness, of Country manufacture, is expected to last, has been pleased to resolve, that, except under extraordinary circumstances, to be specially considered, no Buff Accoutrements of any sort will be renewed at the public expense, until they have been in use ten years; Brown leather Accoutrements, Pouches, Saddles with their appurtenances, whether for Artillery or Cavalry, until they have been in use five years; and Gun Harness until it has been in use four years—nor are the several Equipments abovementioned to be renewed at the periods specified, unless they are then declared by a Committee to be unserviceable.

Considering the liberal Allowance granted for the purpose to Officers Commanding Troops and Companies, it is expected that these Articles shall be kept in a perfectly efficient state, during the whole of the several periods assigned; and Officers Commanding Corps are reminded, that it is an essential part of their duty to see that the Orders of Government on this subject are duly regarded.

It is further intimated, that as regards Saddles and Harness, the sets, as issued from the Government Stores, are to be maintained complete in all respects, from the Contract Allowance, and that renewals on account of condemnations or loss of component parts of such sets, are not admissible.

HEAD QUARTERS

SIMLA, THE 5TH OCTOBER 1842.

Since the public Notification of the 30th ultimo, the Governor General has received the gratifying intelligence of the safety of all the European prisoners but one, in the following extract from a communication from Major General Pollock, C. B., dated the 21st ultimo:

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL FROM MAJOR GENERAL POLLOCK, C. B.

Dated Camp Cabool, 21st September 1842.

"MY LORD,

It gives me great gratification to be enabled to state, that the whole of the European prisoners are now quite free from the hands of Mahomed Akbar, except Captain Bygrave. I will make my official report on this subject whenever they reach my Camp, which will no doubt be to-morrow. I sent a lightly equipped force, under Sir R. Sale, to meet them, and the whole of the party is with him, with the following exceptions, who have already reached my Camp:

Major Pottinger, ... }
Captain Johnson, ... } Arrived this morning.

Mrs. Trevor and eight Children.

Captain and Mrs. Anderson and three Children.

Captain Troup and Dr. Campbell.

One European woman and four Privates."

SECRET DEPARTMENT, SIMLA, 7TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The following despatch received from Major General Pollock, reporting the safe arrival at Cabul of the European Prisoners, is published for general information.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

(Signed) T. H. MADDOCK,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,
with the Govr. General.

No. 242 of 1842.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL POLLOCK, C. B.,
Commanding in Affghanistan,

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Dated Camp Cabool, September 23d, 1842.

SIR,—I have the honor to forward for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, copy of my letter to the address of Major General Lumley, Adjutant General of the Army, of date the 22d instant.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) GEO. POLLOCK, Major General,

Camp Cabool, Sept. 23d, 1842.

No. 382 of 1842.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL GEO. POLLOCK, C. B.,
Commanding in Affghanistan,

To MAJOR GENERAL LUMLEY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Head Quarters, Camp Cabool, 22d September, 1842.

SIR,—I have the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that having received intimation from Bameean that the Europeans, Officers and Soldiers, prisoners there, had made arrangements by which they hoped to effect their own liberation, I at the suggestion of Mohun Lal, with the concurrence of Khan Sheereen Khan, Chief of the Kuzzilbashes, sanctioned the speedy departure of seven hundred (700) of his Horse on the 15th instant, the day of our arrival here, to meet the party. Some difficulty occurring on the score of money I advanced ten thousand (10,000) Rupees, which were delivered by Sir R. Shakespear, who accompanied the Kuzzilbashes. Being apprehensive that attempts would be made to intercept the prisoners I detached Major General Sir R. Sale with the troops named in the margin on the 19th instant to the Arghundee Pass, and the circumstance proved fortunate as a delay of twenty-four hours would have enabled Sultan Jan who was in pursuit, to overtake our people—I am happy to state that the whole who were in confinement, (as per subjoined Roll) with the exception of Captain Bygrave who is with Mahomed Akbar, arrived in my Camp yesterday evening.

FORT WILLIAM,
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,
THE 14TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 14th of October 1842 :

ACT NO. —— OF 1842.

An Act for amending the Law concerning the Registration of written conveyances and other instruments affecting titles and other interests to land.

Whereas the Registry Laws now in force in the respective Mofussils of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, provide that registered conveyances and other instruments affecting titles to land and other interests therein shall not take precedence of unregistered conveyances and instruments in cases where the party registering shall have known of the existence of such unregistered conveyances or other instruments. And whereas a complicated system of law has arisen out of the construction which is to be given to the provisions regarding the knowledge of parties, or notice had by them in such cases. And whereas much perjury has been committed in investigations touching the fact of such notice or knowledge, and much of the time of the Courts has been occupied with such investigations. And whereas in consequence of forgeries, perjuries, fraudulent concealments, and other practices, no person purchasing or advancing money on the security of land, can safely rely on the conveyances or other instruments affecting the title to such land or other interest therein affording, by means of their being registered, a security against conveyances or instruments being set up, as of previous date, by unregistered claimants ;—

It is hereby enacted, that all provisions contained in any Regulation or Regulations of the Bengal, Madras or Bombay Codes, touching such knowledge or notice as aforesaid, of previous unregistered conveyances, or instruments affecting titles to land or other interests therein shall be repealed from the first day of May next ; and every conveyance or other instrument affecting title to land, or any interest in the same authorized by those Codes respectively, to be registered, shall so far as regards any lands to which the same relate, be void as against any person claiming under any subsequent conveyance or other instrument duly registered, unless the prior conveyance or instrument shall have been duly registered before the registration of the subsequent conveyance or instrument ; any alleged notice or knowledge of such prior conveyance or instrument notwithstanding. Provided always that this Act shall not be construed to extend to any conveyance or other instrument made before the first day of May next.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 14th day of January next.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,
THE 14TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 14th of October 1842:

ACT NO. —— OF 1842.

An Act for amending the Law concerning the Registration of written conveyances and other instruments affecting titles and other interests to land.

Whereas the Registry Laws now in force in the respective Mofussils of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, provide that registered conveyances and other instruments affecting titles to land and other interests therein shall not take precedence of unregistered conveyances and instruments in cases where the party registering shall have known of the existence of such unregistered conveyances or other instruments. And whereas a complicated system of law has arisen out of the construction which is to be given to the provisions regarding the knowledge of parties, or notice had by them in such cases. And whereas much perjury has been committed in investigations touching the fact of such notice or knowledge, and much of the time of the Courts has been occupied with such investigations. And whereas in consequence of forgeries, perjuries, fraudulent concealments, and other practices, no person purchasing or advancing money on the security of land, can safely rely on the conveyances or other instruments affecting the title to such land or other interest therein affording, by means of their being registered, a security against conveyances or instruments being set up, as of previous date, by unregistered claimants;—

It is hereby enacted, that all provisions contained in any Regulation or Regulations of the Bengal, Madras or Bombay Codes, touching such knowledge or notice as aforesaid, of previous unregistered conveyances, or instruments affecting titles to land or other interests therein shall be repealed from the first day of May next; and every conveyance or other instrument affecting title to land, or any interest in the same authorized by those Codes respectively, to be registered, shall so far as regards any lands to which the same relate, be void as against any person claiming under any subsequent conveyance or other instrument duly registered, unless the prior conveyance or instrument shall have been duly registered before the registration of the subsequent conveyance or instrument; any alleged notice or knowledge of such prior conveyance or instrument notwithstanding. Provided always that this Act shall not be construed to extend to any conveyance or other instrument made before the first day of May next.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

ACT No. X. OF 1842.

An Act for enabling the Inhabitants of any place of public resort or residence under the Presidency of Fort William, not within the Town of Calcutta, to make better provision for purposes connected with public health and convenience.

I. It is hereby enacted, that if it shall appear to either of the Governments of the Presidency of Fort William, that two-thirds in number of the householders of any Town, Suburb, Settlement or place of public resort and residence within that Presidency are desirous of making better provision for the repairing, cleansing, lighting, draining or watching of any public streets, roads, drains or tanks, or any like local purpose, it shall be lawful for the Local Government to which such place as above described is subject to authorize the same in manner following.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Local Government, upon any application made to it for the purpose by or on the part of the householders aforesaid, may, at its discretion, authorize the persons whose names shall be presented or so many of them as may be thought proper being inhabitants of the place as above described to be a Committee for the purpose of effecting the local objects specified in the application.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that any such Committee may make such assessments and at such rates as may be necessary for effecting the objects aforesaid, and may make all necessary contracts and appoint such servants as may be required with reasonable salaries. Provided always that no rate exceeding the amount of five per cent. on the rent or yearly value of the premises within the place as above described, or more than one rate in any year shall be raised without the express sanction of the Local Government. Provided also that no Member of any such Committee shall be personally liable in respect of any contract entered into by such Committee on behalf of the inhabitants of any place as above described. Provided that the said Committee and every Member thereof shall be liable for the misapplication of all monies collected, and the same shall be recoverable in a Civil action as the money and at the suit of the Local Government.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Local Government shall in every case prescribe such rules for every Committee as may appear necessary for the proper security of the funds collected from the inhabitants. And shall have the power of removing any Member of every such Committee on its appearing to such Government that the security or efficiency of the trust is in danger of being impaired. And in case of no person being named by the remaining Members of the Committee to the satisfaction of the Local Government to act upon such Committee in the place of the person removed within one month, the Local Government may appoint a Member of the Committee in the place of the person removed.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that every such Committee shall on the 30th day of April, in every year, or oftener, if required by the Local Government, render to the Local Government an account of all sums received and expended in the preceding year, in such form and with such vouchers as the Local Government may from time to time require.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that upon the application of such Committee to any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, such Magistrate or Justice is required to exercise the same powers for levying the rate which may be due from any defaulter as are specified in Act II. of 1839.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that no rate shall be invalidated for defect of form, and it shall be sufficient if in any such rate as aforesaid, or any assessment for the purposes of such rate the property assessed shall be sufficiently identified, and it shall not be necessary to specify the name of the owner or occupier thereof. And all property found at any time upon the premises rated shall be liable to be seized and sold under Warrant from a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for the payment of the rate.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, that it shall be competent at all times to the Local Government to dissolve any such Committee, and to appoint any person or persons to enquire into and report upon the conduct of such Committee or of any Members thereof in the execution of their Trusts, and such person or persons so appointed shall have power to send for persons, papers and records, and to compel the attendance or delivery of the same and to examine witnesses upon oath.

The Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal directs that the following Extract (Paras. 1 and 2) from a Dispatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors in the Public Department, dated the 20th July, No. 15 of 1842, be published for the information of the Members of the Civil Service.

G. A. BUSHBY,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Extract from Letter No. 15 of 1842, from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors in the Public Department, dated the 20th July.

Letter dated 13th October, 1841.

Referring to Court's decision the question whether Civil Servants after having been permitted to be absent in Europe, on private affairs, for a year or more, before a residence of ten years in India, is entitled to the full benefit of the Furlo' Regulations after his return to India, and the completion of ten years' residence.

Para. 1. It was not our intention when we framed the Regulations under which Furloughs are granted to the Members of the Civil Service, that an Individual permitted to come to Europe, under the circumstances supposed in this question, should be deprived of the benefit of a Furlough, when one might fall to him, after having completed the prescribed term of residence.

2. We consider, however, that the privilege should be allowed in such case under limitation: and we direct that if the absence of a Civil Servant coming home on Private Affairs previously to the prescribed term of residence shall exceed one year, the excess of absence shall be deducted from the period during which the Furlough allowance when it is granted to him, would otherwise be enjoyed.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. X. OF 1842.

An Act for enabling the Inhabitants of any place of public resort or residence under the Presidency of Fort William, not within the Town of Calcutta, to make better provision for purposes connected with public health and convenience.

I. It is hereby enacted, that if it shall appear to either of the Governments of the Presidency of Fort William, that two-thirds in number of the householders of any Town, Suburb, Settlement or place of public resort and residence within that Presidency are desirous of making better provision for the repairing, cleansing, lighting, draining or watching of any public streets, roads, drains or tanks, or any like local purpose, it shall be lawful for the Local Government to which such place as above described is subject to authorize the same in manner following.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Local Government, upon any application made to it for the purpose by or on the part of the householders aforesaid, may, at its discretion, authorize the persons whose names shall be presented or so many of them as may be thought proper being inhabitants of the place as above described to be a Committee for the purpose of effecting the local objects specified in the application.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that any such Committee may make such assessments and at such rates as may be necessary for effecting the objects aforesaid, and may make all necessary contracts and appoint such servants as may be required with reasonable salaries. Provided always that no rate exceeding the amount of five per cent. on the rent or yearly value of the premises within the place as above described, or more than one rate in any year shall be raised without the express sanction of the Local Government. Provided also that no Member of any such Committee shall be personally liable in respect of any contract entered into by such Committee on behalf of the inhabitants of any place as above described. Provided that the said Committee and every Member thereof shall be liable for the misapplication of all monies collected, and the same shall be recoverable in a Civil action as the money and at the suit of the Local Government.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Local Government shall in every case prescribe such rules for every Committee as may appear necessary for the proper security of the funds collected from the inhabitants. And shall have the power of removing any Member of every such Committee on its appearing to such Government that the security or efficiency of the trust is in danger of being impaired. And in case of no person being named by the remaining Members of the Committee to the satisfaction of the Local Government to act upon such Committee in the place of the person removed within one month, the Local Government may appoint a Member of the Committee in the place of the person removed.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that every such Committee shall on the 30th day of April, in every year, or oftener, if required by the Local Government, render to the Local Government an account of all sums received and expended in the preceding year, in such form and with such vouchers as the Local Government may from time to time require.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that upon the application of such Committee to any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, such Magistrate or Justice is required to exercise the same powers for levying the rate which may be due from any defaulter as are specified in Act II. of 1839.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that no rate shall be invalidated for defect of form, and it shall be sufficient if in any such rate as aforesaid, or any assessment for the purposes of such rate the property assessed shall be sufficiently identified, and it shall not be necessary to specify the name of the owner or occupier thereof. And all property found at any time upon the premises rated shall be liable to be seized and sold under Warrant from a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for the payment of the rate.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, that it shall be competent at all times to the Local Government to dissolve any such Committee, and to appoint any person or persons to enquire into and report upon the conduct of such Committee or of any Members thereof in the execution of their Trusts, and such person or persons so appointed shall have power to send for persons, papers and records, and to compel the attendance or delivery of the same and to examine witnesses upon oath.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT, THE 26TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Honorable the President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following General Orders by the Right Honorable the Governor General, dated Simla, the 14th instant, and the Extracts of Despatches annexed thereto.

By order of the Honorable the President in Council,

G. A. BUSHBY,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

SECRET DEPARTMENT,

SIMLA, THE 14TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Governor General has sincere satisfaction in announcing the termination of the War with China by a Peace honorable to Her Majesty's Crown and durable in its Provisions, which was concluded in the British Camp under the walls of the Imperial City of Nankin on the 29th of August.

Thus within two months after the arrival of the reinforcements sent from England and from India for the prosecution of this third Campaign, the direction of a preponderating Force to the true point of attack, has compelled the Emperor of China to submit to all Her Majesty's just demands.

The Emperor could only save the internal Trade of his Empire from ruin, his ancient Capital from Capture by assault, and his Empire itself from the peril of dissolution by yielding to such conditions as it was Her Majesty's pleasure to impose in order to afford to the Subjects of Her Crown indemnity for the past and security for the future.

This event, glorious as it is to Her Majesty's Arms, will convey to Her Majesty's Heart other and yet higher satisfaction than that which is derived from the contemplation of Military success, in the cessation of hostilities which have unhappily involved the most afflicting evils to humanity.

The Governor General cannot presume to offer to the Commanders of Her Majesty's Naval and Military Forces employed on the Coast of China in the execution of Her Majesty's orders, the expression of the feelings with which their zeal, their energy, and their ability have inspired him; nor is it for him to presume to anticipate the approbation which the brave Seamen and Marines and Soldiers under their Command may receive from the high authority under which they have the honor to serve. The Governor General can only offer to the Commanders of Her Majesty's Forces his grateful acknowledgments of the regard they have ever evinced during these joint operations for the Army and Fleet of India, and his thanks for the opportunity they have on all occasions afforded to the Native Troops, of proving themselves to be worthy of fighting by the side of British Soldiers.

The short duration of the operations of the Troops on shore, has not afforded to every Corps of the Native Army of India the opportunity which all ardently desired, of distinguishing themselves before the enemy; but wherever that opportunity has been afforded, the several Corps of the Army of India have added to their acknowledged fame.

Three Companies of the Battalion of Bengal Volunteers had the good fortune to be the first engaged with the enemy before the City of Chin-Keang, and they well sustained the high reputation of the Army they represented.

The 2d and 6th Regiments and the Rifle Company of the 36th Regiment of Madras Native Infantry were engaged in the Capture by assault of that City on the 21st of July.

On that occasion, as on all others, the Madras Artillery and the Madras Sappers and Miners maintained the high character which has always been attached to their respective Corps in the Madras Army.

The Governor General is pleased to direct that, in commemoration of the distinguished services rendered by those Corps in co-operation with Her Majesty's Troops, in the Capture of the City of Chin-Keang, the 2d and 6th Regiments of Madras N. I., and the Rifle Company of the 36th Regiment M. N. I. shall hereafter bear upon their appointments a Dragon wearing an Imperial Crown; and that the same Honor shall be granted to such Troops or Companies of the Madras Artillery and of the Madras Sappers and Miners as His Excellency Lieut. General Sir Hugh Gough may designate as justly entitled to that distinction, by their service before the enemy in China in the present or in the previous Campaigns.

The Governor General is likewise pleased to direct that the 2d and 6th Regiments of Madras N. I. shall hereafter bear upon their Colours a Golden Dragon wearing an Imperial Crown.

The Governor General requests that His Excellency Lieut. General Sir Hugh Gough will have the goodness to transmit to him a nominal list of such Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the several Corps of the Army of India serving under His Excellency's Command in the present or in the previous Campaigns, as he may deem to be justly entitled by their services before the enemy to the honor of wearing a Medal commemorative of such services; and to every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Private named in such list, the Government of India will present a Silver Medal, bearing on one side the head of Her Majesty, with the superscription "Pax Asiæ Victoriâ restituta," and the figures "1842" underneath; and on the reverse a Dragon wearing an Imperial Crown.

The Governor General equally desirous of distinguishing the eminent services of the Officers and Seamen and others serving in the Steam Vessels of War belonging to the Government of India, by the marks of Honor they have so well deserved, requests that His Excellency Vice Admiral Sir W. Parker will have the goodness to transmit to him a nominal list of the several Officers and Seamen and others serving in such Steamers under his command as he may deem to be justly entitled to the honor of wearing a Medal commemorative of their services, and to all persons named in such list, the Government of India will present a Silver Medal similar to that presented to the Troops.

The Governor General directs, that the Victories obtained by the Combined Forces in China may be made known to all the Troops at all the Stations of the Army; and that at all such Stations a Salute shall be fired of 21 Guns for those Victories, and a similar Salute of 21 Guns for the Peace which has been signed by the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperor of China.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,

Secy. to the Govt. of India,

Dated Head-Quarters, Chin-keang-foo, July 25th, 1842.

My Lord,—I have great gratification in forwarding to your Lordship a duplicate original of my despatch of this day's date to My Lord Stanley. It will no doubt prove very satisfactory to your Lordship to know that this important position fell within a few hours after our landing, and that the whole of the City and Works were fully in our possession before the close of the first day.

The conduct of the Expeditionary Force under my command has been most creditable; amidst scenes of great, almost of unparalleled temptation, but few instances have occurred calling for my disapproval, and I have experienced from all a readiness to meet my wishes very cheering. The sun, during the assault, was fearfully overpowering, and I regret to say the Service has sustained a great loss in Lieut. Col. Drever, of the 6th Madras N. I., who died from its effects; and in Capt. Collinson, of the 18th Regiment, and Lieut. Gibbons, of the 49th, most intelligent and meritorious Officers, killed in action at the head of their men. Two Soldiers of the 49th and thirteen of the 98th I greatly regret to add, also died from the same cause during the assault, and several Officers and Men have severely suffered, but are doing well, as are, I am happy to say, my wounded generally.

I propose occupying two very prominent and strong positions: the one, the heights first taken and occupied by Major General Schoedde, where I shall place two Regiments with 4 Guns, which will perfectly command the City, the walls of which I have had mined in two places, and propose to make two considerable breaches, throwing down all the parapets facing these positions. The other, the commanding height close to the mouth of the Imperial Canal, where I propose to leave one European Company and one Native Corps.

I have, &c.,

Extract from a letter from His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir Hugh Gough, G. C. B.,
Commander in Chief, Madras, Commanding Expeditionary Land Force,
China,
To the Right Honorable Lord Stanley,
Principal Secretary of State Colonial Department,
Downing Street, London.

Dated Head Quarters, Chin-keang-foo, July 25th, 1842.

My Lord,—It affords me great gratification to announce to your Lordship that our progress up the Yang-sze-Keang has, under Divine Providence, been most propitious, and our first operations upon the shores of this mighty river most successful.

2. His Excellency Sir Wm. Parker, who, I will here beg leave to mention, accompanied me throughout all our operations before Chin-keang-foo, until we entered the City, and from whom I have, upon this as upon all other occasions experienced the most cordial and able support, will no doubt enter fully into detail upon all the subjects coming more particularly within the Naval department; I shall therefore very slightly touch on them.

3. We sailed from the anchorage off Woosung on the 6th, many unavoidable delays occurred in bringing a fleet of upwards of 70 sail of Men ot War and Transports up a river for the most part totally unknown, and we did not reach Suyshan, the first point, where opposition, if it can be so termed, was offered, until the 14th. A few shots were fired here from some small batteries, recently erected, at the leading Ships which landed their Marines when the enemy fled. The fleet anchored at this point, and the batteries and guns were destroyed. Unfortunately, the wind came more ahead the next morning, which together with the strength of the current, and the further difficulty presented by a sudden bend of the river, prevented the ships from proceeding on the 15th.

On the 16th, however, I accompanied Sir Wm. Parker in the Steam Frigate Vixen, and we made a very satisfactory and accurate reconnoissance of both Kinshan and Chin-keang-foo. The Steamer passed close to the shore within musket range of the Imperial Canal, which passes through the Suburbs of the City, and without meeting the slighest opposition, hundreds of the inhabitants crowding the shore to gaze on her as she passed. This, as well as all our accounts, led me to believe that little, if any, resistance would be made. Not a soldier appeared upon the City Walls, nor could I perceive any encampments in the neighbourhood. We returned to the fleet that evening.

4. On the 17th some of the fast sailing Ships of War were enabled to pass the bend, and proceeded up the river. On the 19th the Cornwallis effected the passage, and a favorable change of wind enabled the whole fleet to reach Chin-keang-foo on the 20th.

5. This City, with its walls in excellent repair, stands within little more than half a mile from the river—the northern and the eastern face upon a range of steep hills—the west and southern faces on low ground with the Imperial Canal serving in some measure as a wet ditch to these faces. To the westward, the suburb through which the Canal passes, extends to the river, and terminates under a precipitous hill, opposite to which and within 1000 yards is the Island of Kin-shan, a mere rock, rising abruptly from the water; a small seven-storied pagoda crowns the summit, and a few temples and Imperial pavilions, partly in ruins, and only occupied by Chinese priests, run round its base and up its sides, interspersed with trees. The Island is not more than a few hundred yards in circumference, and by no means calculated for a Military position, being commanded completely by the hill on the right bank of the river.

6. About a mile and half lower down the stream, there is a bluff height connected by a narrow ridge with a smaller hill, both capped with Joss-houses, and both commanding the northern angle of the City wall. Here I determined to land one Brigade. My first intention when I reconnoitred the place on the 16th, was to land the other Brigades near a range of low hills about two or three miles further eastward, so as to act against the eastern face of the City; but the fleet having come to anchor on the 20th so far up the river, I was induced to alter my plan of attack, and the more readily as I perceived from the top of the Pagoda on Kin-shan three encampments at some distance on the slope of the hills south-west of the City. It therefore appeared an object of importance to land a part of the force so as to cut off these troops, and as I ascertained that there was a good landing place below the hill nearly opposite to Kin-shan, I determined to disembark there the two remaining Brigades with the Brigade of Artillery.

The necessary arrangements were immediately made for landing at day-light on the 21st, Major General Schoedde's Brigade, (the 2d) consisting of the troops named in the margin, was ordered to land at day-light under the bluff height north of the City; and the Major General was instructed to take and occupy the two hills that command the north angle of the Wall, and threathen the north and east faces, with directions to turn this diversion into a real attack, if he found it practicable without incurring much loss.

Royal Artillery—Captain Greenwood.
55th Regiment—Major Warren.
6th Madras N. I.—Lt.-Col. Drever.
Rifles 36th M. N. I.—Capt. Simpson.
2d Madras N. I.—Lt.-Col. Luard.
Dett. Sappers—Lieut. Johnstone.

8. The 1st Brigade under Major General Lord Saltoun was directed to land at the same time below the hill opposite Kin-shan, occupy this hill with two Companies of the Troops, first landed, and form on the first open space at its base out of view of the City and encampments, so as to cover the landing of the Brigade of Guns under Lt.-Colonel Montgomerie, of the Madras Artillery, and of Major General Bartley's Brigade (the 3d). The 1st Brigade, under Lord Saltoun, I destined to attack the encampments, while with the 3d Brigade and the Brigade of Artillery, I proposed to operate against the west gate and the western face of the City, taking advantage of such ground and circumstances as might present themselves.

26th Cameronians—Lt.-Col. Pratt.
Bengal Volunteers—Lt.-Col. Lloyd.
Flank Co.'s 41st M. N. I.—Major Campbell.
98th Regiment—Lt. Col. Campbell.

18th Royal Irish—Major Cowper.
14th Madras N. I.—Major Young.
49th Regiment—Lt. Col. Stephens.

9. The Brigades of Major Generals Lord Saltoun and Schoedde commenced landing before day-light, but considerable delay took place in effecting the disembarkation from the rapidity of the current, the scattered state of the Ships, some of which were aground, and from some mistake on the part of one of the new Steamers. The guns were next landed and Major General Bartley's Brigade followed. I accompanied Major General Lord Saltoun's Brigade in landing, and from the steep hill already mentioned, had a full view of the City and encampments.

On the Wall of the former but few men appeared, but the encampments were still occupied, though not more than from 12 to 1,500 men showed themselves; I therefore directed Lord Saltoun to move forward at once with the Troops of his Brigade first landed, the 98th Regiment with some Companies of the Bengal Volunteers and the Flank Companies of the 41st M. N. I., to attack and destroy the encampments, and if possible cut off their communication with the City. I sent 3 guns under Major Anstruther with this Brigade and a detachment of Sappers, in case difficulties should present themselves. Three Companies of the Bengal Volunteers under Major Kent having landed some time afterwards, I sent Major Gough, Deputy Quarter Master General, to accompany them, with directions to fall on the enemy's right flank, perceiving a path over some undulating ground which I thought might possibly lead them between the encampment and the City. These three Companies first came in contact with the enemy, not having apparently been seen, until they came close to the position, when the Chinese very gallantly rushed on them and were not repulsed until they almost came into actual contact. Lord Saltoun executed his orders most satisfactorily, driving the enemy before him over the hills and destroying the encampments.

10. The 26th having landed, proceeded to cover the guns which Lieut. Colonel Montgomerie had placed in a strong position on a low hill to the west of and commanding the Walls, of which we could take a considerable portion in reverse; I could perceive that no strong body was in reserve at this point, although the embrasures and loop-holes were all manned evidently by Tartar troops prepared to defend their post. Here I determined to make the assault so soon as Major General Bartley's Brigade should join me, as I felt assured that my guns would soon clear the ramparts of the Tartars, and I was given to understand that the canal was fordable, a ridge of earth evidently thrown up on the original excavation giving me perfect cover to within 50 paces of the Walls.

11. As soon as the 18th and greater part of the 49th joined me, the 26th being for the time attached to this Brigade, every thing was prepared for the assault; I directed however the Deputy Quarter Master General Major Gough to ascertain the correctness of my information as to the Canal. Three Officers rushed down the bank with him and I think it but right here to mention their names. Captain Lock, R. N., who being an amateur in this Expedition, has acted most zealously as my Extra A. D. C.; Lieutenant Hodgson of the Cornwallis, and Lieutenant Heatly, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, who has ever been forward where he could be useful. These four Officers swam the Canal, thus ascertaining its impracticability and the incorrectness of my information.

12. I was now equally distant from the west and south gates, but perceiving that the suburbs would give me cover, I decided on forcing the former, we soon reached this point, and covering parties were pushed on close to the banks of the Canal. Major Malcolm, of the 3d Dragoons, who acted throughout the day as my Extra Aide-de-Camp, and Brevet Captain Balfour, Brigade Major of Artillery, were very active in discovering the approaches to the gate. Two Guns under Lieutenant Molesworth, of the Madras Artillery, were also judiciously placed so as to take the works in flank.

13. Under this cover, Captain Pears, the Commanding Engineer, with great spirit and judgment placed the powder bags, and effectually blew in the gate, giving the troops a clear entrance through a long archway, not, as it proved, into the body of the place, but into an outwork of considerable extent. In this outwork we met Captain Richards, of the Cornwallis, who had most promptly landed the Marines of that Ship, on hearing that two gun boats with Artillery in proceeding up the Canal had unexpectedly approached the Walls, and were severely pressed; finding however the attention of the enemy diverted, he escaladed this work in the re-entering angle near a sally-port. All further difficulties at this point were cleared as we found Major General Schoedde in possession of the inner gateway.

14. This Officer with his wonted decision, taking advantage of his discretionary power, converted his diversion into a real attack, escaladed the City walls at the north angle, cleared the whole line of Rampart to the westward and carried the inner gateway which was obstinately defended. I cannot too strongly express my approval of the spirited and judicious way in which Major General Schoedde fulfilled my orders, nor can I better convey to Your Lordship the operations of his Brigade than by forwarding his Report.

15. By these combined movements a body of Tartars was driven into one division of the western outwork without a possibility of retreat, and as they would not surrender, most of them were either shot or destroyed in the burning houses, several of which had been set on fire either by the Tartar Troops themselves or by our Guns. As soon as I could collect a sufficient body of the 3d Brigade, I directed Major General Bartley to proceed with it along the west face, and occupy the several gates to the south and east of the City. The Sun at this time being nearly overpowering, I was anxious to keep as many of the men as possible under cover until towards evening, when I proposed moving into the Tartar City, and occupying the principal positions; but the Troops under Major General Bartley, consisting of the 18th and part of the 49th Regiment, were soon hotly engaged with a body of from 800 to 1000 Tartars, who under cover of some enclosures, opened a destructive fire upon our men, as they were filing round the walls. The leading division of the 49th dashing down the rampart on their left, while the 18th pushed forward to turn their right, they were soon dispersed, although some of them fought with great desperation. It afforded me much satisfaction to witness the spirited manner in which Major General Bartley performed this duty, with a small force of exhausted men. The Admiral, who was moving with the Marines of the Cornwallis along the line of wall which had been cleared by the 55th, bearing the heavy firing, with his usual anxiety to afford assistance attempted to move across the City, and was strongly opposed at several points in the streets where the Tartars had collected.

16. The Sun now became so overpowering that it was impossible to move with men already fatigued by their exertions, and I regret to say that several died from the intense heat. We remained therefore in occupation of the gates until 6 o'clock, when several parties were pushed into the Tartar City and to the public Offices.

18. I propose to leave Major General Schoedde with his Brigade here. Two Regiments and a detachment of Artillery will occupy the bluff height and smaller hill, which command the north angle of the City walls, in which I have directed extensive breaches to be made, and the whole line of parapet will be demolished; another Regiment will occupy the hill above the mouth of the Canal, and opposite to the island of Kin-shan, Sir William Parker leaving a proportionate number of Ships —with the remainder of the force, we shall advance on Nankin.

19. The Mandarin, who has so frequently visited us, has again brought a joint dispatch from Key-ing, maternal uncle to the Emperor, and Elepoo, which together with his answer, will no doubt be submitted by Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary. It only now remains for me to express my warmest approval of the conduct of the Troops of all arms, as well Native as European—all were animated with one common feeling of devotion, and the anxiety of all ranks to meet my wishes has been most cheering. Major Generals Lord Saltoun and Bartley and Lieutenant Colonel Montgomerie report most favorably of the assistance they derived from the several Commanding Officers under them, and from their respective Brigade Staff.

To the Officers Commanding Brigades and Corps, as to all the General and my Personal Staff, I am much indebted, and it affords me great satisfaction to add that Lieutenant Colonel Mountain, the Deputy Adjutant General, was sufficiently recovered from the severe wounds he received at Chapoo, to take his usual prominent share in every active operation.

I regret to say that our loss has been considerable, but not more than was to be expected from the desperation with which the Tartars fought for their Homes, and from the strength of their positions. I enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, with a Sketch of the Town and operations before it.

29th July.

P. S. I am sorry to report that since the foregoing despatch was written, Lieutenant Colonel Stephens, Commanding the 49th Regiment, has died, in consequence I fear, of the great fatigue and exposure to the sun which he underwent on the 21st instant.

(Signed) H. GOUGH, Lieut. Genl.

Extracts of a Letter from His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir H. Gough, Commander in Chief, Madras, Commanding Expeditionary Land Forces, to the Right Honorable Lord Ellenborough, Governor General of India, dated Ship Marion, off Chin-keang-foo, 30th July, 1842.

The whole of the troops, with the exception of Major General Schoedde's Brigade, which I mentioned as that I proposed to leave in occupation of this place, were re-embarked by 8 o'clock yesterday morning most satisfactorily, under the superintendence of Commander Richards, of H. M. S. Cornwallis.

All the sick of the troops, except those of the Bengal Volunteers, which Lieutenant Colonel Lloyd is extremely anxious to carry on with him, I leave in the Transports here.

We only now wait a fresh breeze to carry us up to Nankin, the river has been surveyed so far, and no obstacles present themselves; and there can be no doubt of the fate of that City, except negotiations prevent our entering it. I must say I have strong hopes that the present operations will tend to this very desirable event. No doubt Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary will report to your Lordship the various communications he has had, together with his answers.

It would be therefore superfluous for me to enlarge on the subject.

Extracts from a Letter from His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir H. Gough, Commanding Expeditionary Land Force, to the Right Hon'ble Lord Stanley, Principal Secretary of State, dated British Cantonment before Nankin, August 21st, 1842.

It has pleased Almighty God to crown Her Majesty's arms with complete success, and compel the Emperor of China to recognize the claims of Great Britain, and by accredited Commissioners to enter into a treaty of Peace dictated by the long lightly-esteemed foreigner, whose power is henceforth acknowledged.

The display of our Military and Naval force in the heart of the Country—the interruption of all commercial intercourse by the Imperial Canal, the fall, within a few hours after our landing, of Chin-keang-foo, one of the strongest, and, from its position one of the most important cities in China, and the investment by a victorious force of the ancient capital of this vast empire have, under Divine Providence, been the happy means of effecting this great change in the Tartar Councils, and are, I have no doubt, destined to produce results of no less importance to the civilized world than to our own Country.

2. The movement up the Yang-tse-keang suggested by the British Government, strenuously advocated by the Governor General of India, and which was fortunately undertaken by Sir William Parker and myself previous to the receipt of the instructions, has thus led to an earlier adjustment of the differences between England and China, than could probably have been effected by any other line of operation.

3. I will not enter into much detail of our movements since my last despatch of the 25th ultimo.

On the 29th I embarked the force intended to act against Nankin, leaving Major General Schoedde with H. M. 55th and one Company of the 98th, the 2d and 6th Regiments Madras N. I., and a proportion of Artillery and Sappers to occupy Chin-keang-foo, or rather the heights commanding it and the mouth of the Imperial Canal.

4. From the prevalence of contrary winds, the fleet could not stem the current of the Yang-sze-keang, until the morning the 4th instant, when the transports with Lord Saltoun's Brigade were enabled to proceed. The Honorable Company's Steam Frigate Queen, having Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary on board, towed up the Marion, Head quarter Ship, and on the 5th we anchored off Nankin, the Cornwallis having effected the passage on the preceding day.

The whole of the Ships did not reach the anchorage off this City until the 9th instant.

5. Previous to our leaving Chin-keang-foo, anxious to avert the calamities consequent upon an assault, the Admiral and myself had forwarded by the Secretary of the Tartar General, who fell there, a summons to Neu-Keen, Vice-Roy of the two Keang Provinces, a translation of which I beg to enclose, No. 1.

Your Lordship will perceive that we only undertook to spare the City, giving it clearly to be understood that active operations against the Government could alone be suspended upon acceptance of the terms so repeatedly announced by Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary, or upon a negotiation by duly authorized persons based upon those terms. After the arrival of the Cornwallis on the 4th, the Vice-Roy sent the letters of which I enclose translations, marked 2, 3, 4, to which Sir Wm. Parker returned the answer marked 5. Considering it advisable to place the ransom on the lowest possible scale, we fixed, after consulting Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary upon 3,000,000 Dollars, and upon the 6th made the communication, of which a translation marked No. 6, is annexed. Had these low terms been accepted, the Fleet and Army would have been disposable for the immediate prosecution of active operations, the Army against Soochoo and Hongchow, while a portion of the Fleet might have proceeded to blockade the Peiho, and stop the trade in the Gulf of Pe-che-le, Yang-chow, a city upon the great canal, 10 miles north of Chin-keang-foo, had already paid half a million, and we had no doubt but that Shang-hae would come into our terms, and pay a million, having offered half that sum.

6. Finding it unlikely that we should gain our object, unless some strong demonstration were made, and having carefully reconnoitred the river line of defences in one of the small Steamers, the Admiral and I made our arrangements accordingly for such demonstration and for the assault, should neither our terms be accepted, nor a negotiation commenced, which we had some reason to expect from the announcement of the approach of Imperial Commissioners. I shall here beg leave to give some particulars of this demonstration, as I conceive that the alarm, to which it gave rise, hastened the event that we most desired.

7. It would not be easy to give your Lordship a clear description of the vast city, or rather of the vast space encompassed within its walls. I shall therefore only observe that the northern angle reaches to within about 700 paces of the river, and that the western face runs for some miles along the base of wooded heights, rising immediately behind it, and is then continued for a great distance upon low ground, having before it, a deep canal, which also extends along the southern face, serving as a wet ditch to both. There is a very large suburb on the low ground in front of the west and south faces, and at the south-east angle is the Tartar City, which is a separate fortress, divided from the Chinese town by high walls. The eastern face extends in an irregular line for many miles, running towards the south over a spur of Chungshan, a precipitous mountain overlooking the whole country, the base of which commands the rampart. In this face are 3 gates—the most northerly [the Teshing] is approachable by a paved road running between wooded hills to within 500 paces of the walls, whence it is carried along a cultivated flat—the next [the Taiping] is within a few hundred yards of the base of Chunshan, and that to the south [the Chanyang] enters the Tartar City. There is a long line of unbroken wall between the Teshing gate and the river, hardly approachable from swamps and low paddy land, and the space between the Teshing and Taiping Gates is occupied by rather an extensive lake. The neighbourhood of these last mentioned Gates was very closely and judiciously reconnoitred by Lieutenant Colonel Montgomerie and Captain Pears.

8. The reports as to the amount of Troops in the City, which is acknowledged to contain a million of inhabitants, have varied exceedingly. I am informed however, that the fugitives from Chin-keang-foo have reached this place, increasing the Tartar garrison to about 6000, including the adults of that nation resident in the City, who are all trained to arms, and perhaps the most formidable opponents, as they fight for their families and their homes. The Chinese regulars amount I have reason to believe to about 9,000, beside the Militia. From the great extent of the walls, said to be twenty miles in circumference, although generally too high to escalade, and from the Canals, Suburbs, Swamps and Lake, in most places difficult to approach, it was evident that I could take the City, whenever I pleased, by threatening it at such distant points, as to prevent the concentration of a large opposing force, the very difficulties of approach affording the means of detaching small parties with impunity to create diversions, but I was well aware that the stand would be made in the Tartar City. My force consisted of 4,500 effective fighting men—most of the Europeans had been with me since the commencement of operations in China, and would, I was well assured, at once place their colours unaided on the walls, whenever I gave the order, while all the new Corps eagerly looked for a second opportunity of emulating their brother Soldiers. But it was a great object to avoid a repetition of the horrors of Chapo and Chinkeangfoo, and Sir Wm. Parker and myself were therefore anxious to try the effect of a demonstration.

9. Had active measures been called for, the north angle was the only point against which the Ships could act, and I determined to approach or threaten the east face in its whole extent and the south-east angle. The Cornwallis, Blonde, and heavy Steamers were accordingly placed in position, the first within 1000 paces of the Ifung gate with her broad side bearing upon a sort of demi-bastion, which it was proposed to breach—the Blonde so as to take the defences of that gate and bastion in flank, and the Steamer so as to destroy the parapet of the wall on either side the point to be breached—I instructed Major General Bartley to enter the City at this point with his Brigade, consisting of H. M. 18th and 98th, and the 14th Madras N. I., amounting to 1,800 men, supported by 300 Royal Marines.

10. On the 11th and following days, the remainder of the force consisting of Lord Saltoun's Brigade, the flank Companies of the Corps at Chinkeangfoo and the Rifle Company 36th M. N. I., together with one Troop of Horse and three Companies of Foot Artillery with the whole of the light Field Train and Sappers were landed at a Village about five miles down a Creek, from whence a good paved road leads to the Taiping and Teshing gates. I established the force in and about a large Village equi-distant from these two gates, and decided upon my line of proceeding, in case we should be driven to active operations—this was to threaten the two flank gates, making the real attack to the right of the Taiping Gate, covered by the concentrated fire of the guns from the commanding slope of the Chingshean Hills. This point forced, the Tartar City would virtually be taken, as my guns, introduced by the Taiping gate, could immediately be placed upon an eminence, perfectly commanding the inner wall and town at a distance of a few hundred yards, whilst the bulk of my force, by a rapid advance on the Drum Tower in the centre of the Chinese City, might cut off the Troops defending the north and east faces from the Tartar garrison.

11. I have been thus circumstantial, my Lord, in regard to my dispositions, in order to show what I could readily have done, ably supported as I am, had not my country's interest, and I trust my country's honor, been equally maintained by a mere demonstration. On the 17th I received the accompanying letter for the suspension of hostilities from Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary, who will, no doubt, fully report upon the various circumstances and communications that preceded the final happy result. I understand that full powers were sent to the Commissioners upon the Emperor's hearing of the fall of Chinkeangfoo, and from their anxiety to pay the first instalment, there can be little apprehension of the Emperor's refusing to ratify a peace, which is called for by the general voice of the country. In the mean time, until the whole of the first instalment shall be paid, nothing shall be relaxed in our state of preparation and precaution.

12. To His Excellency Sir Henry Pottinger, I am much indebted for his friendly readiness to aid me with every information in his power, and for his uniform forbearance from all interference in the slightest degree with Military operations and movements. But it is not for me to enlarge upon the able public services of this high functionary.

To Sir Wm. Parker, I must be permitted to say, that I cannot too strongly express my sense of obligation. We have worked together for the common cause, and I have ever found him, and the powerful arm over which he presides, desirous to meet my wishes, and prompt and cordial in every conjoint undertaking.

13. It is now my pleasing duty to bring to your Lordship's notice those gallant Officers and Troops, who throughout the active operations in China, in a warfare new to the British Arms, exposed in various instances to temptations of no ordinary kind, assailed by sickness which in some cases left but few effective men in strong Corps, and often subjected to great fatigue under a burning sun, have never in any instance met a check,—not because their foes were few in number, devoid of courage or slow to hazard life in personal contact, but because their own science, discipline, and devotion made them irresistible.

From the Officers commanding Brigades and Corps, as from the General and my Personal Staff, I have uniformly received the most ready and energetic assistance, and I shall beg hereafter to submit their names with those of the several Officers whom I have, on different occasions, felt myself called upon to mention. It will be a subject of no ordinary gratification to me in after life, if I am permitted to feel that I have been the happy means of bringing to the notice of my Sovereign, conduct so much redounding to the maintenance of the high character of Her Majesty's Arms.

P. S.—29th August. I have the satisfaction to add that I have this day witnessed the signature of the Treaty by Sir Henry Pottinger on the part of Her Majesty, and by the Commissioners Keying, Eleepoo and Newkein on that of the Emperor, and that the ratification of peace is no longer doubtful, the Emperor's assent to the terms having been previously received, as will be seen by the accompanying copy of a letter from H. M.'s Plenipotentiary to the address of Sir Wm. Parker and myself with its enclosure.

Under these circumstances, the Admiral has determined to send off a Steamer direct to Bombay, and I take the opportunity to forward this despatch by my Aid-de-Camp, Captain Whittingham, who has been with me during the late operations and is well acquainted with my views in regard to China, and whom I beg leave to bring to your Lordship's notice.

British Cantonment before Nankin, dated August 29th, 1842.

My Lord,—It affords me the most sincere gratification to announce to your Lordship that the preliminaries of a Treaty of Peace between Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and the Emperor of China, have this day been signed on the part of Her Majesty by His Excellency Sir Henry Pottinger, British Plenipotentiary, and on that of the Emperor, by the Commissioners Keying, of the Imperial Kindred, and Elepoo, of the Imperial Household.

This happy result has, under Divine Providence, been effected by the irresistible power of Her Majesty's arms by land and sea, and I trust its durability will, in no small degree, be ensured, not alone by the manifestation, which has been made of that power, but by the high respect entertained by a conquered foe for our forbearance, our justice, and our humanity.

I beg to enclose to your Lordship the copy of a despatch I have this day forwarded to Lord Stanley by my A. D. C., Captain Whittingham, who is well calculated to give His Lordship every information.

I feel most thankful that I am enabled at so early a period to communicate an event mainly resulting from the prosecution of our operations on this vital point, so happily advocated by your Lordship.

My Lord,—I have the honor to enclose a copy of Sir Henry Pottinger's Circular, setting forth the most important provisions of the Treaty. It only remains for me to add that I am prepared to withdraw from Nankin, Chinkeang-foo and Chinhae, upon the ratification of the Treaty by the Emperor of China and payment of the first instalment of the 21 millions, and that I have made such arrangements as will, providing sufficiently for the security of Chusan, Kulangsu and Hongkong, leave the greater part of the Troops disposable for service in India.

CIRCULAR

To Her Britannic Majesty's Subjects in China.

Her Britannic Majesty's Plenipotententiary, &c. in China has extreme gratification in announcing to Her Majesty's subjects in China, that he has this day concluded and signed, with the Chinese High Commissioners deputed to negociate with him, a Treaty of which the following are the most important provisions:

1. Lasting Peace and Friendship between the two Empires.

2. China to pay Twenty-one Millions of Dollars in the course of the present and the three succeeding years.

3. The ports of Canton, Amoy, Foochoofoo, Ningpo and Shanghae to be thrown open to British Merchants. Consular Officers to be appointed to reside at them, and regular and just Tariffs of Import and Export (as well as inland Transit) Duties to be established and published.

4. The Island of Hongkong to be ceded in perpetuity to Her Britannic Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

5. All subjects of Her Britannic Majesty (whether Natives of Europe or India) who may be in confinement in any part of the Chinese Empire, to be unconditionally released.

6. An act of full and entire amnesty to be published by the Emperor, under his Imperial sign manual and seal to all Chinese subjects on account of their having held service or intercourse with or resided under the British Government or its officers.

7. Correspondence to be conducted on terms of perfect equality amongst the officers of both Governments.

8. On the Emperor's assent being received to this Treaty, and the payment of the first Spanish Dollars 6,000,000, Her Britannic Majesty's Forces to retire from Nanking and the Grand Canal, and the Military Post at Chinhae to be also withdrawn, but the Islands of Chusan and Koolungsu are to be held until the money payments and the arrangements for opening the Ports be completed.

In promulgating this highly satisfactory intelligence, Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary, &c. purposely refrains from any detailed expression of his own sentiments as to the surpassing skill, energy, devotion and valor, which have distinguished the various grades, from the highest to the lowest, of all arms of Her Majesty's combined Forces during the contest that has led to these momentous results. The claims which have been thus established, will be doubtless acknowledged by the highest authorities. In the mean time, Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary congratulates Her Majesty's subjects in China on the occasion of a Peace which he trusts and believes will, in due time, be equally beneficial to the subjects and interests of both England and China.

Dated Cornwallis, off Chin-keang-foo, 30th July, 1842.

My Lord,—I have the honor to enclose, for your Lordship's information, a copy of my despatch to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, reporting the progress of the Expedition up the Yang-tse-Keang, and the capture of the City of Chin-Keang, on the 21st instant, by the combined forces, on which event allow me to offer my congratulations to your Lordship.

The troops, with the exception of Major General Schoedde's brigade, were all safely embarked yesterday, and the fleet will advance on Nanking whenever the breeze is sufficiently strong to run over the river stream, and from the examinations already made by the surveying Officers, we have reason to hope, that the ships may approach within a short distance of the suburbs of the city.

Dated Cornwallis, off the City of Chin-Keang-foo, at the entrance of the south grand canal in the Yang-tse-Keang, 26th July, 1842.

Sir,—It is with great satisfaction, that I announce to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the safe arrival of the China expeditionary force off the island of Kinshan, at the entrance of the grand canal in the Yang-tse-Keang, and that the city of Chin-Keang-foo was taken possession of by Her Majesty's combined forces, on the 21st instant, after vigorous assaults on three points, and a determined resistance by the Tartar troops, who lined the walls for its defence on every part, comprising a circumference of 4 miles and a quarter.

The squadron and transports, amounting altogether to 73 sail, left Woosing on the 6th instant, ascending this noble river in five divisions, preceded by the surveying vessels, small steamers, sloops, and my flag ship.

The intricate parts of the channel, delineated in Captain Bethune's chart, having been previously buoyed by the surveying Officers, the fleet succeeded in reaching the extent of that Officer's valuable researches within two days and a half, and every subsequent difficulty has been most commendably overcome by the unremitting exertions of Commanders Kellett and Collinson, assisted by other surveying Officers, and the Masters of the squadron, supported by the sloops which were sent in advance.

It was not to be expected, that a distance of 170 miles, in a river of which the dangers in the greater portion were altogether unknown, and with rapid tides, would be navigated without some mishaps, and I believe that every ship in the squadron, as well as many of the transports, have been on shore, but the bottom was every where of soft mud, and fortunately no damage resulted. We were favored with fine breezes, and met with comparatively few impediments from shoals, and none (that deserve the term) from any of the Chinese works of defence in our progress to this anchorage.

At Fushan and Keang-yin, on the right bank, two batteries of 12 and 7 guns each were erected; but the guns were removed on our approach.

At Sheshan however, about five leagues below the intersection of the grand canal, and where the river narrows considerably for some distance, the surveying vessels were fired at from three batteries mounting 20 guns, which were also discharged ineffectually at the advanced squadron as they arrived off the spot three days afterwards; but they were abandoned on a few guns being opened on them by the "Modeste," and the whole, together with the barracks and magazines, were completely destroyed by a party of seamen and marines, which were landed for that purpose from the "Cornwallis" and advanced squadron under Commander Charles Richards, of this ship.

The fleet was detained some days at Sheshan by scant winds, and at this point we lost the advantage of any run of flood tide, the stream constantly setting down at a rate varying from 2½ to 3½ miles an hour, with a rise and fall of water averaging two feet.

On the 15th Commander Kellett, in prosecuting his examination of the river with the "Phlegethon" and "Medusa," was opposed at the entrance of the narrow channel between the island of Teeaonshan and a commanding promontory on its south side, by a battery of 12 guns, which were soon silenced by the steam vessels, with much credit to Lieutenants McCloverty and Hewitt; and the same afternoon Sir Hugh Gough and myself proceeded with the "Vixen" and "Medusa," to reconnoitre the approaches to Chin-Keang, when we not only found the battery and adjoining village deserted, but passed on without the slightest opposition close to the suburbs of the city and above the island of Kinshan, carrying the whole way an ample depth of water.

On the 17th Captain Bourchier was despatched with the "Blonde," "Modeste," "Queen" and "Nemesis," followed by the "Dido," "Calliope," "Childers," "Plover" and "Starling," to blockade the entrances of the grand canal, and with the aid of the steamers, he gained admirable positions for this object above Kinshan, by which it is estimated that the traffic of not less than 700 junks has been intercepted. A party was also landed from the "Blonde," and destroyed the guns which had fired at the "Phlegethon" and "Medusa."

On the 19th the "Cornwallis" towed by the "Vixen," succeeded in reaching our present anchorage, when the island of Kinshan was immediately taken possession of by a small party of marines, but it is entirely covered with buildings of a religious character, and altogether too insignificant for military occupation. The wind in the course of the day veered to a more favorable point, and I had the satisfaction of being joined the same evening, and on the 20th, by the remainder of the fleet. The "Jupiter" and several of the transports however got aground a few miles below us which obliged me to detach the large steamers to their assistance.

The grand canal on the south side of the river, runs through the suburbs of Chin-Keang, and no time was lost in making the preparatory arrangements for taking possession of that city. It was ascertained that a body of about fifteen hundred Chinese troops were posted in an intrenched camp about a mile and a half to the southward of the town and on the hills beyond. The General therefore made his arrangements for landing the first and third brigades of the army to the westward of the city, opposite the island of Kinshan, and the second brigade at a commanding position to the eastward, within 700 yards of the north east angle of the walls, and so little was resistance expected, against such a combination of force, that it was not deemed necessary to add the seamen and marines from the squadron.

The disembarkation which commenced on the 21st, at break of day, was judiciously conducted by Commander Richards, of the "Cornwallis," covered by the "Auckland," the small steam vessels, and armed boats, without opposition.

The first brigade under Major General Lord Saltoun, as soon as it was formed, moved forward to attack the intrenched camp, which was gallantly carried about 9 o'clock, after a short resistance, the Chinese precipitately retiring over the hills.

Major General Schoedde, with the second brigade, about the same time ascended the height assigned him on the river side; and after discharging some rockets into the city, and supported by a well directed fire of shot and shells from the "Auckland" steam vessel, he gallantly pushed forward under a smart fire of cannon, ginjalls and musketry from the walls, and entered that point of the city by escalade about 10 o'clock.

Captain Grey, of the "Endymion," accompanied this brigade; Captain Bourchier and other Naval Officers attached themselves to the forces which attacked on the land side; and I had the pleasure of accompanying my gallant friend Sir Hugh Gough during a great part of the operations of the day.

The city gates were all strongly barricaded, and as it was Sir Hugh Gough's intention to escalade the walls in the direction of the south gate, some guns were advanced on a height to dislodge the troops, with which it was now observed the ramparts were lined, but the canal was found to run close under its walls, which rendered an assault at this point impracticable. It was therefore determined to blow open the west gate with powder bags, and enter the city by the bridge at that point as soon as the third brigade under Major General Bartley (which was the last landed) could assemble.

During these proceedings, the boats of the "Blonde," in an anxious desire to land the artillery guns as near as possible to the west gate, unfortutately advanced by the canal under the city walls, which were much obscured by buildings, before they were aware of the force to which they became exposed, and thus fell under a very severe fire, by which 16 men out of 24, which formed the crews of the "Blonde's" barge and flat boat, and 2 Officers and 8 men of the Madras artillery were wounded; and it was only by great presence of mind, that Lieutenant Crouch, of that ship, after receiving three wounds, succeeded in getting the men from those boats landed in the suburbs on the opposite side, and removed the other boats from a position in which it was impossible to use their guns.

Not a moment was lost in communicating this casualty to the flag ship, when Captain Richards, with excellent judgment and promptitude, immediately landed with 200 marines at the entrance of the canal, where he was joined by a detachment of 300 of the 6th Madras native infantry, under Captain Maclean, of that corps, and pushed through the suburbs to the city walls, while the whole of the boats of the "Cornwallis," with their guns under the command of Lieutenant Stoddart, advanced by the canal on his right flank. This little flotilla having joined the boats of the "Blonde," took up an excellent position, and opened their fire with good effect, in checking that of the Chinese at the west gate.

Captain Richards had determined, if possible, to scale the walls, in the hope of forming a junction with General Schoedde's brigade in the city; and having fortunately discovered a heap of rubbish from which his ladders could reach the parapet, (about 30 feet high) he was in the act of rearing them, when Commander Watson and Mr. Foster Master, with a boat's crew and a small escort of marines, joined him from the "Modeste," which was stationed some miles higher up the river.

Lieutenant Baker, of the Madras artillery, Commander Watson, Captain Richards, and a Private marine of the "Modeste" were the first who ascended. The two former were wounded, and the latter killed by the fire from the west gate; in this intrepid achievement, the remainder of the gallant band, including part of the 6th Madras native infantry, happily followed without further loss, thus effecting an important lodgment in the outworks of the city, between the outer and inner west gates, when they shortly afterwards communicated with the advance of Major General Schoedde's brigade.

About noon the arrangements for facing the west outer gate being completed, it was most effectually blown in, when the third brigade under Major General Bartley, accompanied by the Commander in Chief of the forces, gallantly rushed in, sweeping all before them. The buildings above the gate in which the Tartar troops had been posted, were at the same time completely enveloped in flames. The Tartars however within the city were still unsubdued, and having collected in a large body, the 18th and 49th regiments, in advancing by the ramparts about half an hour after the explosion of the gate, were suddenly fired upon, and unfortunately sustained a severe loss of Officers and men, although their opponents suffered in a tenfold degree.

The seamen and marines under Captain Richards were at this time halted for temporary rest, on another part of the ramparts, but immediately advanced in the direction of the firing, and in passing along a narrow street in the Tartar city, received a volley from a considerable body of those troops, who had posted themselves at a gateway, were they seemed inclined to make a determined stand; but on the advance of our men, and discharge of a few rockets, they retired, leaving several men dead, and many others, who had the temerity to fire from the houses as our men passed along the streets, shared the same fate. In this movement, I regret to say, that Lieutenant FitzJames, one seaman, and one marine of the "Cornwallis," were severely wounded.

The operations of this day were executed under a burning sun, with the Thermometer above 90°, and the loss of life in consequence has been serious; in addition to those killed and wounded in action, I have to lament the loss of Brevet Major Uniacke, an old and distinguished officer of the Royal marines, and one Private of the "Plover," who died from the effects of the sun, and I fear the army did not lose less than 16 from the same cause.

The movements were so entirely military, that I can but express my admiration of the energy and ability with which they were conducted by my gallant colleague the General; and it is with renewed pleasure, that I again report the zeal and gallantry evinced by every Officer and man of the Royal and Indian navy and Royal marines under my command, which has been equally manifested in bringing the fleet up this river, as in the subsequent operations on shore in which they have been engaged.

I enclose a list of the ships present in the Yang-tse-Keang, of the killed and wounded, and also of the names of the Officers of the squadron, who were from circumstances most conspicuously engaged on the 21st.

It is unnecessary to speak further on the share which Captain Richards and his companions had in the assault on the outworks of the city, they will no doubt be properly appreciated by their Lordships; Lieutenant Tennant, my flag Lieutenant, took a prominent part in the attack of the Tartar troops in the city.

Lieutenant FitzJames, (severely wounded) and a highly deserving Officer, has already distinguished himself on different occasions.

Lieutenant Stoddard showed excellent judgment and good conduct in command of the flotilla of armed boats.

Lieutenant Crouch, of the "Blonde," I have already noticed; and the steadiness of Messrs. Jenkins and Lyon, Midshipmen of that ship, who were in the advanced boats, is spoken of as highly creditable to them.

Captains Loch and Napier, R. N., who accompanied the expedition as volunteers, also participated in the active operations of the day.

The loss of the land forces I fear is not less than 19 killed, and 107 wounded in action, 3 missing, and the 16 who died from the effects of the sun; that of the Chinese must be immense, as independently of those who fell in action, incredible numbers of Tartars (in some cases including whole families) have unhappily died by their own hands; their force within the city is supposed to have amounted to three or four thousand.

Twenty guns were mounted on the walls, which with numerous ginjalls, matchlocks, and other arms, and a considerable quantity of powder, have all been destroyed. About 50,000 Dollars worth of sycee silver was also found in the Treasury, which has been embarked.

The troops intended for the operations higher up the river will be re-embarked as soon as possible; and as the report of the navigation upwards is favorable, I trust the expeditionary forces will soon renew operations at Nanking, if not arrested by overtures for peace from the Chinese Government, which may be consistent with the terms intimated by Her Majesty's Government.

Camp Urgundee, 16th September, 1842.

Sir,—I have the honor to acquaint you, that Shumshoodeen, Sultan Jan and other Affghan Chiefs, having assembled about 12,000 men, occupied a succession of strong mountains intercepting my march upon Benee Badam and Mydan on the 14th and 15th instant. Our troops dislodged them in gallant style, and their conduct afforded me the greatest satisfaction.

The artillery distinguished themselves, and I beg to mention the names of Captain Leslie, Bombay Horse artillery; Captains Blood, Bombay foot artillery, and Anderson and Turner, of the Bengal horse artillery; and the 38th and 43d Bengal native infantry. I beg to bring under the favorable notice of Government, Captain White, of Her Majesty's 40th regiment, in command of the light companies of Her Majesty's 40th and 41st regiments, and of the 2d, 16th, 38th, 42d and 43d Bengal native regiments, for the able manner in which he carried my orders into effect, and for the gallantry displayed by him and the companies under his command, in ascending the mountains and driving the enemy from their positions; I had every reason to be pleased with the conduct of all the troops, European and Native. I forward a list of killed and wounded.

I am, &c.

Head Quarters, dated Camp Cabool, 1st October, 1842.

Sir,—I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from Major General McCaskill, K. H., commanding the force which I detached under his command, for the purpose of dispersing the enemy collected in the vicinity of Charekar, as stated in my letter, No. 394, of the 28th instant.

The success of the Major General's operations against Istalif is most gratifying, that place being considered by the Affghans as totally inaccessible to our troops.

I have, &c.

From Major General McCaskill, K. H.,
Commanding detachment in Kohistan,

To Captain Ponsonby,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Dated Camp Istalif, 30th September, 1842.

Sir,—I have the satisfaction to acquaint you, for the information of Major General Pollock, C. B., that the troops under my command yesterday made themselves masters of the strong and populous town of Istalif, totally defeating the numerous levies collected for its defence, under the infamous Ameenoollah Khan Loguree, Khaojie Ameer Kotwal, Hazin Khan (an assassin of Sir Alexander Burnes) Hazir Alee Khan, Khuleefa Ibrahim, and many other Chiefs of Cabool and the Kohistan.

Artillery.
Captain Backhouse's mountain train.
Captain Blood's battery of 9-pounders (Bombay.)
Two 18-pounders.

Cavalry.
Head quarters and 2 squadrons Her Majesty's 3d light dragoons.
1st squadron 1st light cavalry.
Captain Christie's (late S. S. 2d regt.) corps of cavalry.

Infantry.
Brigadier Tulloch's brigade, with the addition of Captain Broadfoot's sappers and miners, and the exception of the 60th native infantry.
Brigadier Stacy's Brigade.

The Major General is aware that the force detailed in the margin was placed at my disposal for operations in these valleys on the 25th; the two brigades formed a junction near Khowja Rawash on the 26th, moved to encampment near Zimuree on the 27th, and pitched their tents within four miles of this place on the 28th. The same evening I reconnoitred the enemy's position; it is impossible to conceive ground naturally stronger. The Town of Istalif, consisting of masses of houses and forts, is built on the slope of a mountain, in the rear of which are yet loftier eminences shutting in a defile which leads to Toorkistan, and in no way can this place of abode of 15,000 people be approached but by surmounting ranges of hills separated by deep ravines, or traversing by narrow roads its gardens, vineyards, and orchards, fenced in with strong enclosure walls; the whole of them, with the mountain side and tops of the houses, were occupied by Jezailchies, and the strongest proof is afforded that the enemy after this disposition considered the place unassailable by their having retained within the town the wives and children not only of the inhabitants, but of thousands of refugees from Cabool.

The observations which I was enabled to make under a sharp jezail fire, and the report of Major Pottinger, induced me to determine to assault the next morning the right of the enemy's extensive position, as it was there that I could hope to bring the artillery most effectively into battery; arrangements were made with this view. The troops were formed into two columns of attack and reserve; Brigadier Tulloch's brigade and the mountain train composed the right; Brigadier Stacy's and Captain Blood's battery and the 18-pounders the left; these were supported by the third column under Major Simmonds, Her Majesty's 41st, consisting of a wing of his regiment and the cavalry under Major Lockwood; Captain Christie's corps protected the baggage.

The troops moved soon after daylight, and traversing the plain in perfect order, passed nearly from the left to the right of the enemy's position. Our light troops and guns repressed the occasional attacks of their Jezailchies from the gardens, who were numerous and most audacious; but when the column arrived in front of the village Ismillah, I resolved to make a combined attack on this point; Brigadier Tulloch's brigade assailed its left, and Brigadier Stacy, making a longer detour, attacked the right.

I cannot express in adequate terms my admiration of the style in which the former column covered by skirmishers rushed upon the gardens filled with bold and skilful marksmen. Her Majesty's 9th foot, the 26th native infantry, and Captain Broadfoot's sappers, vied with each other in steady courage, and their rapid and unhesitating advance soon left the enemy no resource but flight; very shortly after this assault, the three light companies of Her Majesty's 41st, the 42d and 43d native infantry, covering their own column, got into action, and on their side stormed the village and vineyard with distinguished gallantry; the combination was steadily persevered in, and though I had few opportunities of using the artillery with effect, I had soon the gratification of seeing the enclosures, forts, heights, suburbs and town successively won by the two columns. The enemy were driven from them, and pursued with a rapidity which left no time to rally, and a singular spectacle was then presented in the escape up the mountain side of the women and children from the place, to which no interception was offered; but as detached parties of the beaten Affghans still occupied some very lofty heights, the mountain train ascended them by a dizzy pathway, and dispersed the fugitives by its effective fire. Our reserve was now established on the lower heights, and the whole of the place, filled with property of every description much of it plundered from our army in 1841, was in the hands of our force; two guns, brass field pieces, were also taken, and one of them was seized with such promptitude that its captor, Lieutenant Elmherst, Her Majesty's 9th foot, turned its fire upon the fugitives with some effect. I directed the town to be set on fire in several places, after taking out various supplies which might be useful to our troops, and the work of demolition is still proceeding under the direction of Major Sanders, of the engineers. Our loss has been trifling, for the advance of our Officers and men was too rapid and decisive to allow of the sharp fire of the enemy telling much upon them, and deceived by the direction of the reconnoisance of the 28th, the Affghans had expected the attack on their left, and posted their guns and the elite of their force in that quarter. I have now the pleasing task of expressing the amount of my obligations for their exertions in the field to Brigadiers Tulloch and Stacy, commanding brigades and columns; to Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, K. H., Her Majesty's 9th foot; Major Huish, 26th native infantry; and Captain Broadfoot, of the sappers, commanding corps on the right, which bore the brunt of the action; to Major Simmonds, Her Majesty's 41st foot, commanding the reserve; to Captain Backhouse, commanding mountain train, and Captain Blood, commanding the Battery of 9-pounders; the last was ably aided by Lieutenant Terry. I have received valuable assistance throughout our operations from Major Pottinger, C. B., and Major Sanders, engineers, and yesterday from Captain Mackenzie and Lieutenant Airy, Her Majesty's 3d buffs, and Lieutenant Webb, 30th regiment Madras native infantry, temporarily attached to me, and since we marched from Cabool, as on former occasions, from my own staff, departmental and personal, viz. Captain Havelock, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General; Lieutenant Mayne, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; Lieutenant Pollock, artillery, Aide-de-Camp to the Major General, who volunteered his services with me; and to Lieutenant Bethune, Her Majesty's 9th foot, my own Aide-de-Camp. Regarding the last mentioned officer, I take the opportunity of rectifying an oversight on my part; I ought specially to have reported to Major General Pollock, Lieutenant Bethune's valuable services in the recent affair at the Huft Kotul, in which I was entrusted with the command of the main column. Brigadier Tulloch reports in very strong terms on the good conduct on the present occasion of Captain Smith, Her Majesty's 9th foot, his Brigade Major. I enclose a return of the killed and wounded, and of the two guns captured.

I have, &c.,

THE 26TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct that the following Extract (paras. 1 to 5) from a Dispatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, in the Public Department, dated the 31st August, No. 17 of 1842, be published for general information.

G. A. BUSHBY,
Secy. to Govt. of India.

Extract from Letter No. 17 of 1842, from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, in the Public Department, dated the 31st August, 1842.

Para. 1. The alterations in the "Law relating to India," during the last Session of Parliament, being in many instances very important, we shall transmit by an early opportunity the same number of copies of a new and revised Edition, as we forwarded of the first Edition in 1840. The number of these alterations precludes particular notice of all, but we shall advert to a few of the most prominent.

2. The Table of Duties on Goods imported, attached to the 5th and 6th Victoria, Cap. 47, deserves especial attention. It is with feelings of high satisfaction, that we observe that numerous and considerable reductions have been made in the amount of Duty levied on the productions of India. The extent and value of these reductions can only be appreciated by a careful comparison of the present with the former Tariff. Into such a comparison we cannot at present enter, but in directing attention to the subject it may be observed that the Duty on Coffee is reduced one-third, that on Cotton Goods one-half, that on Silk Goods three-fourths—while on other articles the reduction is in a greater proportion. We hope for the best effects to the industry and prosperity of India from these changes, and sincerely rejoice in the evidence, which they afford of the just and liberal feelings entertained by the British Legislature towards that country.

3. Another change very necessary to be noticed is the application to India in common with all British Possessions abroad of an Act 5th and 6th William 4th, Cap. 56, intituled an Act to regulate the admeasurement of the tonnage and burthen of the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom. This is effected by an Act passed during the last Sessions of Parliament, the 5th and 6th Victoria, Cap. 47, Sec. 39, and as some of our Officers may be required to perform important duties in regard to the Registry of Ships, it will be incumbent on them to become acquainted with the alterations in the Law.

4. By an Act passed during the last Sessions, the Bishops of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay are for the first time admitted to the privilege of Furlo' Allowance during a limited absence in Europe, after stated periods of residence. The allowance is not to exceed the highest amount of Retiring Pension, the extent of the period for which it may be drawn, eighteen months. The Bishop of Calcutta is admissible to the privilege after a residence of ten years, the Bishops of Madras and Bombay after a residence of fifteen years.

5. A change calculated to have very beneficial consequences in regulating and reducing the expenses of appeals, has been effected by order of the Queen in Council; and is noticed with reference to Sec. 15 of the 3d and 4th William 4th, Cap. 41, the Act under which the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council is constituted.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT,

2D NOVEMBER, 1842.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA, DATED 20TH OCTOBER, 1842.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

SECRET DEPARTMENT, SIMLA, THE 20TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Governor General has much satisfaction in announcing the successful termination of the arduous and difficult operation confided to Major General England, of withdrawing, through the Kojuck and Bolan passes into the valley of the Indus, a portion of the force lately stationed at Candahar, and all the scattered garrisons of the intermediate places between the Eastern face of the Kojuck mountains and the plains of Cutchee.

This operation, less brilliant in its circumstances than that entrusted to Major General Pollock and Major General Nott, was yet one which demanded the greatest prudence in the making of every previous arrangement for securing the safe descent of the several columns, and which called into exercise many of the higher qualities which must contribute to form the character of an accomplished General.

The Governor General could not but regard with some anxiety the progress of this movement requiring so much of delicate management in its execution; and it is a subject of extreme satisfaction to him, that the same complete success should have attended this, which has, during the present campaign, attended every other part of the combined operations of the armies beyond the Indus.

The Governor General requests that Major General Sir Charles Napier will express to Major General England, and to all the Officers and troops which were under his command, the entire satisfaction with which their whole conduct has been viewed on this occasion.

The Governor General also requests that Major General Sir Charles Napier will communicate to Major Outram, and the other Political Officers, his thanks for the zeal and ability they have manifested in the collection of the means of carriage and supply, and in their various transactions with the native chiefs and tribes, tending to facilitate and secure the descent of the several columns of the army.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

(Signed) T. H. MADDOCK,

Secretary to the Govt of India,

(Copies.)

From Major General Sir C. Napier, K. C. B.,

Commanding the forces in Scinde and Beloochistan,

To T. H. Maddock, Esq.

Secretary to the Government of India,

Dated Sukkur, 12th October, 1842.

Sir,—I lose no time in forwarding the enclosed despatch from Major General England, which has this moment reached me. I hope I may be allowed to offer my congratulations to the Governor General on the successful termination of so arduous and difficult an operation.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) C. NAPIER, Major General.

No. 439.

From Major General R. England,

Commanding Scinde field force,

To T. H. Maddock, Esq.

Secretary to the Government of India,

With the Governor General.

Dated camp near Dadur, 10th October, 1842.

Sir,—I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council, that the troops destined to descend to the Indus by the Bolan pass, finally evacuated Quetta on the 1st instant, and have accomplished their march through that defile without much difficulty.

2. In order to facilitate the movement of this large body, which, with the acquisition of the garrison of Quetta, consisted of more than seven battalions, with details of cavalry, eighteen pieces of artillery, and an increased retinue of invalids, and of stores, I divided it into three columns of route, retaining the last in as light a form of equipment as possible, in the hope and supposition that, if the tribes through whose country we should pass were inclined to attack us, they would prefer to make their chief efforts on the last departing division: and I, therefore, sent the greater portion of the sick and public stores with the leading divisions accordingly.

3. It has proved that this conjecture was right, because the two preceding divisions have been wholly unmolested in their progress through the pass, whereas on the morning of the 3d, I found the Kakurs posted in some numbers on the steep ground which commands the upper extremity of the narrow zig-zag near Sir-i-bolan.

4. These insurgents, however, had only time to deliver a few rounds on the column, when their attention was fully engaged by the flanking parties which covered our left, and which I now reinforced by a strong detachment of the 6th regiment Bombay native infantry, and by nearly the whole of the 5th regiment of irregular infantry, under Major Woodhouse and Captain Macdonell, respectively.

5. I had every reason to be satisfied with the handsome manner in which our troops ascended these stupendous heights, and cleared them of the enemy; and Major Woodhouse speaks very highly of the conduct of a party of Brahoe horse which accompanied him in this affair.

6. On this occasion also Major Outram gave me his able assistance, as well as in flanking the lower extremity of the Bolan pass near Kundye, where I had good reason to expect again to meet some hostile tribes; but the total disappointment of the Kakurs on the 3d, and the effectual flanking arrangements made on all occasions by our troops, seem to have prevented any renewal of interruption.

7. I beg leave to enclose a list of the casualties which have occurred during their passage of the Bolan defile.

8. As I now consider the chief difficulties of this march to have terminated, I trust I may be permitted to bring to the notice of His Lordship the Governor General, the general good conduct of the troops I have had the honor to command during these prolonged and laborious operations; and I venture to submit the names of Major Waddington, Commanding Engineer; Major Wyllie, Major of Brigade; Major Boyd, acting Assistant Quarter Master General; Captain Davidson, Deputy Commissary General; and Surgeon Wight, in chief medical charge; and to claim His Lordship's favorable estimate of the exertions of these Officers in their several departments and capacities; and it is with the utmost satisfaction I am enabled to assure His Lordship that, owing to the discipline which has been exacted, these British columns, in emerging from the Bolan pass, will leave amongst the peaceable inhabitants of the countries they have quitted, a well-merited character for forbearance and humanity; whilst in the deliberate and systematic order of their march, during which every enemy has been beaten off, and no stores lost or captured, the power of our arms has been alike equally and imperiously made manifest.

9. The garrison of Sebee will be withdrawn to-morrow, and that of Dadur on the 12th or 13th, when I propose to resume my progress to the Indus.

I have, &c.

FORT WILLIAM, LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 28TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 28th of October 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XIII OF 1842.

An Act to enable the holders of Revenue which has been alienated to them by the State, to collect that Revenue within the Presidency of Bombay.

I. Whereas it is expedient to authorise the grant by the Governor in Council of Bombay, at his discretion, of Commissions to certain Jageerdars, and others, by virtue of which such persons shall possess increased powers for collecting the Revenue due to them ;—

It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay, to grant to any Jageerdar, Surinjamdar, Inamdar, or other person holding Lands or Villages the Revenue of which has been alienated to him by the State, a Commission conferring upon him authority for the collection of such Revenue by the powers hereinafter mentioned, or such of them as shall be specified in the Commission in addition to the powers now exercisable by law.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that such Commission, which shall be drawn out according to the form of the annexed Schedule A, shall be granted or withheld, and, when granted, shall be liable to be withdrawn at the pleasure of Government, and that it may, if the Governor in Council of Bombay see fit, be issued to one or more Agents of such holder of alienated Revenue as well as to the holder in person.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to demand security for the payment of the Revenue, in respect of the Lands or Villages specified in the Commission, and if the same be not furnished, to take such precaution as the Collector is authorised to take under Section XI. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to send Mohussuls on Defaulters under the Provisions of Clauses 2, 3, and 5, Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, provided that one foot Mohussul only be employed in each case, and that the Mohussullee shall cease on the enforcement of any other remedy for the collection of the Revenue, except the taking of such security as aforesaid.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of any such Commission shall be authorised to attach the property of persons making default in the payment of such Revenue as aforesaid, making an immediate report to the Collector or his Assistant of his having done so, and should the demand on account of which the attachment may be made appear to the Collector or his Assistant to be just, he shall give orders for the sale of such property, and the sale shall be conducted agreeably to the Provisions of Clause VII. Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, except in cases in which the holder of the Commission by whom the attachment has been made shall be a Jageerdar, Surinjamdar or Inamdar, vested by Regulation XIII. of 1830, with Civil jurisdiction and with power to execute his own decrees or his Agents, when the sale shall be conducted by him, and not by the Collector and his subordinate Revenue Officers.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that all compulsory process under this Act shall cease on the alleged defaulter furnishing security to the holder of the Commission or to the Collector or Assistant Collector of the District, to institute a suit within 15 days in a competent Court for the purpose of trying the demand and to pay the amount which may be decreed against him with costs and interest in such Court, provided that such suits in which any one of the privileged classes established by Regulation XXIX. of 1827, Sections III. and IV. and by Regulation VII. of 1830, Bombay Code, may be the defendant, shall be tried before the Collector and his Assistants, any thing in Regulations I and XVI. of 1831, notwithstanding. And any holder of any such Commission as aforesaid by himself or his Agents proceeding with any compulsory process under this Act after the furnishing of such security as aforesaid, or after the due tender thereof shall forfeit three times the amount of the Revenue sought to be recovered by such compulsory process.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Revenue or rent payable to a Jageerdar or other holder of Government alienated lands or villages shall have been fixed by a Government Officer before the grant of the Land in free tenure, or if the rent or Revenue tendered by any Ryot or other person be at the usual rate payable according to the custom of the Village and Pergunna as declared by the Koolkurnee and other Local Officers of Revenue, the enforcement of a demand by any holder of a Commission under this Act of an excess of rent or Revenue beyond the amount due as above provided shall be deemed to be extortion, and the person against whom such demand shall have been enforced shall obtain upon any judgment being passed after regular or summary trial three times the amount of any such excessive demand as damages for the same. Provided, however, that nothing herein prescribed or contained shall prevent a holder of alienated Lands or Villages from instituting a suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing his claim to re-assess the Lands or re-settle the Revenue of any Ryot or other who may be paying less than the full Juma to which he is justly liable, and upon such holder obtaining a decree adjudging to him such power the demand made by him under such decree, shall, if conformable thereto be deemed a legal demand for arrears, and shall be leviable by the same process as is above provided for other arrears due.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the power conferred by such Commission shall extend to the enforcement of the payment of the Revenue of the current season and of the season next immediately preceding, and not to that of former years.

SCHEDULE A.

Form of Commission to be issued to a holder of alienated Revenue or his Agent for enabling him to recover such Revenue.

SEAL

The Governor in Council of Bombay by virtue of the powers vested in him by Act No. XIII. of 1842, is pleased to confer on you ——— (Jageerdar, &c., or Agent &c., as the case may be) power to realize all Revenue demands due to you (or to your principal) from the Villages and Lands specified in this Commission in the manner prescribed in (or in Sections —— of) this Act.

The Villages and Lands over which the power thus conferred upon you extends are as follows:

(Here enter the description,)

The within delegated power is vested in you during the pleasure and subject to the re-call of the said Governor in Council.

FORT WILLIAM,

SECRET DEPARTMENT, 9TH NOVEMBER, 1842.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

SECRET DEPARTMENT; SIMLA, THE 24TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Governor General has the highest gratification in communicating to the Army, that Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to permit Her Majesty's 13th Regiment of Light Infantry to receive and wear the medal which he has ordered to be presented to every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer and Private, European and Native, who belonged to the garrison of Jellalabad on the 7th April 1842.

Thus the European General in Her Majesty's Army, and the Native Sepoy in the Army of the East India Company, and all the intermediate ranks of both Armies and of both nations, will bear the same decoration commemorative of their common service in the field of danger and of glory.

The Governor General feels assured that he may, in the name of the whole Army, as well as in that of the Government of India, lay at Her Majesty's feet his most humble acknowledgments of this boon, proceeding no less from Her Majesty's enlightened wisdom, than from Her Majesty's gracious favor—a boon of all others the most grateful to men who justly feel that the first of all professions is that of a soldier, and that the first of all rewards is military honor.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secretary to the Govt. of India,
with the Governor General.

WAR-OFFICE, AUGUST 26TH.

In consideration of the distinguished gallantry displayed by the 13th Light Infantry, during the campaigns in the Burmese empire and in Affghanistan, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to approve of that Regiment assuming the title of the 13th, or Prince Albert's Regiment of Light Infantry, and of its facings being changed from yellow to blue.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to authorize the 13th Regiment of Light Infantry being permitted to bear on its colours and appointments, a mural crown, superscribed Jellalabad, as a memorial of the fortitude, perseverance, and enterprise evinced by that Regiment, and the several corps, which served during the blockade of Jellalabad.

Her Majesty has been likewise pleased to permit the 13th Regiment to receive and wear a silver medal, which has been directed by the Governor General of India to be distributed to every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Private, European and Native, who belonged to the garrison of Jellalabad, on the 7th April 1842, such medal to bear on one side a mural crown, superscribed "Jellalabad," and on the other side, "7th April, 1842."

No. 85,650.

From Sir H. HARDINGE,
Secretary at War,

To the Lord FITZGERALD and VESCI,
Board of Control.

Dated War Office, 26th August, 1842.

MY LORD,—Knowing your Lordship's solicitude for the welfare of the orphan children of the late Colonel Dennie, of the 13th Foot, who, after a long and distinguished service of forty-two years, lost his life, while gallantly leading his Regiment to the assault of the Affghan Camp before Jellalabad, I have the satisfaction to acquaint you, that the Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her Majesty's pleasure, that a royal bounty allowance of eighty pounds a year, be granted to each of Colonel Dennie's four daughters.

This allowance has been granted on special grounds, and will be continued to them without restriction as to age, or marriage, on the ordinary condition on which these grants of the royal bounty are usually made.

I have the honor to be,
My Lord,
Your Lordship's most obedient servant,
(Signed) H. HARDINGE.

NOTIFICATION.

SECRET DEPARTMENT; SIMLA, THE 25TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The advance of the British armies to Ghuznee and Cabool having led to the restoration to freedom of the British prisoners in the hands of the Affghans, Dost Mahomed Khan, his wives and family, and the wife and family of Mahomed Akbar Khan and many Affghan chiefs, remain in the absolute power of the British Government, without having any means of procuring their liberation.

To this condition of disgrace and danger has Mahomed Akbar Khan reduced his father, and his wife, and his family, and the chiefs, his countrymen, by making war upon women, and preferring the continuance of their captivity and suffering, for objects connected only with his own safety, to the general exchange of prisoners, which was offered by the British Government, and the consequent restoration to liberty of those, whose honor and whose happiness should have been most dear to him.

But the British Government is desirous of terminating, at the earlist period, all the evils which have arisen out of the Affghan war; and the Governor General, enabled by the recovery of the British prisoners who were in the hands of the enemy, to follow the course most in accordance with clemency and humanity, declares that, when the British army, returning from Affghanistan, shall have passed the Indus, all the Affghans, now in the power of the British Government, shall be permitted to return to their country.

The Affghan chiefs who are thus released, will, before they pass the Sutlej, present themselves at the durbar of the Governor General in his camp at Ferozepore.

The wives of Dost Mahomed Khan and Mahomed Akbar Khan, and all the ladies of the family and household, will be conducted with all respect to the frontiers of Affghanistan.

I have the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, my arrival at Khoord Cabool, in progress to Hindostan. I left Cabool yesterday morning with the 1st and 2d divisions, and the troops under Major General Nott, as per margin, for Boodkakh, having detached Major General Sir R. Sale, with the 1st and 2d brigades the mountain train, 1st light cavalry, 3d irregular cavalry and Christie's horse, over the Gospund durrah pass, for the purpose of turning that of the Khoord Cabool; in consequence of which movement we marched through the principal defile without a shot being fired. Previous to my departure from Cabool, I destroyed with gunpowder the grand bazar of that City, called the Chahar Chuttah, built in the reign of Arungzebe by the celebrated Ali Murdan Khan, and which may be considered to have been the most frequented part of Cabool, and known as the grand emporium of this part of central Asia. The remains of the late Envoy and Minister had been exposed to public insult in this bazar, and my motive in effecting its destruction, has been to impress upon the Affghans that their atrocious conduct towards a British functionary has not been suffered to pass with impunity.

Extract from a letter to the Governor General from Major General Pollock, dated Jugdulluk, 16th October, 1842.

" It is very gratifying to be able to state that we have met with no opposition since we left Cabool, except what must always be expected where the whole population is armed, and we have consequently had small parties of thieves occasionally firing on the rear guards. During each night that we have encamped, not a shot has been fired, and on the line of march not a man is to be seen on the hills."

FORT WILLIAM,
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,
The 28th October, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 28th of October 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. XIII of 1842.

An Act to enable the holders of Revenue which has been alienated to them by the State, to collect that Revenue within the Presidency of Bombay.

I. Whereas it is expedient to authorise the grant by the Governor in Council of Bombay, at his discretion, of Commissions to certain Jageerdars, and others, by virtue of which such persons shall possess increased powers for collecting the Revenue due to them ;—

It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay, to grant to any Jageerdar, Surinjamdar, Inamdar, or other person holding Lands or Villages the Revenue of which has been alienated to him by the State, a Commission conferring upon him authority for the collection of such Revenue by the powers hereinafter mentioned, or such of them as shall be specified in the Commission in addition to the powers now exercisable by law.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that such Commission, which shall be drawn out according to the form of the annexed Schedule A, shall be granted or withheld, and, when granted, shall be liable to be withdrawn at the pleasure of Government, and that it may, if the Governor in Council of Bombay see fit, be issued to one or more Agents of such holder of alienated Revenue as well as to the holder in person.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to demand security for the payment of the Revenue, in respect of the Lands or Villages specified in the Commission, and if the same be not furnished, to take such precaution as the Collector is authorised to take under Section XI. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to send Mohussuls on Defaulters under the Provisions of Clauses 2, 3, and 5, Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, provided that one foot Mohussul only be employed in each case, and that the Mohussullee shall cease on the enforcement of any other remedy for the collection of the Revenue, except the taking of such security as aforesaid.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of any such Commission shall be authorised to attach the property of persons making default in the payment of such Revenue as aforesaid, making an immediate report to the Collector or his Assistant of his having done so, and should the demand on account of which the attachment may be made appear to the Collector or his Assistant to be just, he shall give orders for the sale of such property, and the sale shall be conducted agreeably to the Provisions of Clause VII. Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, except in cases in which the holder of the Commission by whom the attachment has been made shall be a Jageerdar, Surinjamdar or Inamdar, vested by Regulation XIII. of 1830, with Civil jurisdiction and with power to execute his own decrees or his Agents, when the sale shall be conducted by him, and not by the Collector and his subordinate Revenue Officers.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that all compulsory process under this Act shall cease on the alleged defaulter furnishing security to the holder of the Commission or to the Collector or Assistant Collector of the District, to institute a suit within 15 days in a competent Court for the purpose of trying the demand and to pay the amount which may be decreed against him with costs and interest in such Court, provided that such suits in which any one of the privileged classes established by Regulation XXIX. of 1827, Sections III. and IV. and by Regulation VII. of 1830, Bombay Code, may be the defendant, shall be tried before the Collector and his Assistants, any thing in Regulations I and XVI. of 1831, notwithstanding. And any holder of any such Commission as aforesaid by himself or his Agents proceeding with any compulsory process under this Act after the furnishing of such security as aforesaid, or after the due tender thereof shall forfeit three times the amount of the Revenue sought to be recovered by such compulsory process.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Revenue or rent payable to a Jageerdar or other holder of Government alienated lands or villages shall have been fixed by a Government Officer before the grant of the Land in free tenure, or if the rent or Revenue tendered by any Ryot or other person be at the usual rate payable according to the custom of the Village and Pergunna as declared by the Koolkurnee and other Local Officers of Revenue, the enforcement of a demand by any holder of a Commission under this Act of an excess of rent or Revenue beyond the amount due as above provided shall be deemed to be extortion, and the person against whom such demand shall have been enforced shall obtain upon any judgment being passed after regular or summary trial three times the amount of any such excessive demand as damages for the same. Provided, however, that nothing herein prescribed or contained shall prevent a holder of alienated Lands or Villages from instituting a suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing his claim to re-assess the Lands or re-settle the Revenue of any Ryot or other who may be paying less than the full Juma to which he is justly liable, and upon such holder obtaining a decree adjudging to him such power the demand made by him under such decree, shall, if conformable thereto be deemed a legal demand for arrears, and shall be leviable by the same process as is above provided for other arrears due.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the power conferred by such Commission shall extend to the enforcement of the payment of the Revenue of the current season and of the season next immediately preceding, and not to that of former years.

Schedule A.

Form of Commission to be issued to a holder of alienated Revenue or his Agent for enabling him to recover such Revenue.

SEAL

The Governor in Council of Bombay by virtue of the powers vested in him by Act No. XIII. of 1842, is pleased to confer on you ——— (Jageerdar, &c., or Agent &c., as the case may be) power to realize all Revenue demands due to you (or to your principal) from the Villages and Lands specified in this Commission in the manner prescribed in (or in Sections —— of) this Act.

The Villages and Lands over which the power thus conferred upon you extends are as follows :

(Here enter the description,)

The within delegated power is vested in you during the pleasure and subject to the re-call of the said Governor in Council.

THE 28TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 28th of October, 1842.

ACT NO. —— OF 1842.

For amending the Custom Laws of the Madras Presidency by reduction of the general duty on Exports and Imports to 5 per cent.

I. Whereas it has been deemed expedient pending the revision and final Settlement of the Customs duties of the Presidency of Fort St. George to reduce the rates of duty levied on Imports to and Exports from that Presidency which except on the trade with the United Kingdom have in respect to some descriptions of Goods been fixed at the high rate of 8 per cent, and to fix the general duty of Imports and Exports at 5 per cent, with certain specified exceptions,—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,
The 28th October, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 28th of October 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. XIII of 1842.

An Act to enable the holders of Revenue which has been alienated to them by the State, to collect that Revenue within the Presidency of Bombay.

I. Whereas it is expedient to authorise the grant by the Governor in Council of Bombay, at his discretion, of Commissions to certain Jageerdars, and others, by virtue of which such persons shall possess increased powers for collecting the Revenue due to them ;—

It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council of Bombay, to grant to any Jageerdar, Surinjamdar, Inamdar, or other person holding Lands or Villages the Revenue of which has been alienated to him by the State, a Commission conferring upon him authority for the collection of such Revenue by the powers hereinafter mentioned, or such of them as shall be specified in the Commission in addition to the powers now exercisable by law.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that such Commission, which shall be drawn out according to the form of the annexed Schedule A, shall be granted or withheld, and, when granted, shall be liable to be withdrawn at the pleasure of Government, and that it may, if the Governor in Council of Bombay see fit, be issued to one or more Agents of such holder of alienated Revenue as well as to the holder in person.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to demand security for the payment of the Revenue, in respect of the Lands or Villages specified in the Commission, and if the same be not furnished, to take such precaution as the Collector is authorised to take under Section XI. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of such Commission shall have authority to send Mohussuls on Defaulters under the Provisions of Clauses 2, 3, and 5, Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, provided that one foot Mohussul only be employed in each case, and that the Mohussullee shall cease on the enforcement of any other remedy for the collection of the Revenue, except the taking of such security as aforesaid.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the holder of any such Commission shall be authorised to attach the property of persons making default in the payment of such Revenue as aforesaid, making an immediate report to the Collector or his Assistant of his having done so, and should the demand on account of which the attachment may be made appear to the Collector or his Assistant to be just, he shall give orders for the sale of such property, and the sale shall be conducted agreeably to the Provisions of Clause VII. Section XII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, Bombay Code, except in cases in which the holder of the Commission by whom the attachment has been made shall be a Jageerdar, Surinjamdar or Inamdar, vested by Regulation XIII. of 1830, with Civil jurisdiction and with power to execute his own decrees or his Agents, when the sale shall be conducted by him, and not by the Collector and his subordinate Revenue Officers.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that all compulsory process under this Act shall cease on the alleged defaulter furnishing security to the holder of the Commission or to the Collector or Assistant Collector of the District, to institute a suit within 15 days in a competent Court for the purpose of trying the demand and to pay the amount which may be decreed against him with costs and interest in such Court, provided that such suits in which any one of the privileged classes established by Regulation XXIX. of 1827, Sections III. and IV. and by Regulation VII. of 1830, Bombay Code, may be the defendant, shall be tried before the Collector and his Assistants, any thing in Regulations I and XVI. of 1831, notwithstanding. And any holder of any such Commission as aforesaid by himself or his Agents proceeding with any compulsory process under this Act after the furnishing of such security as aforesaid, or after the due tender thereof shall forfeit three times the amount of the Revenue sought to be recovered by such compulsory process.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Revenue or rent payable to a Jageerdar or other holder of Government alienated lands or villages shall have been fixed by a Government Officer before the grant of the Land in free tenure, or if the rent or Revenue tendered by any Ryot or other person be at the usual rate payable according to the custom of the Village and Pergunna as declared by the Koolkurnee and other Local Officers of Revenue, the enforcement of a demand by any holder of a Commission under this Act of an excess of rent or Revenue beyond the amount due as above provided shall be deemed to be extortion, and the person against whom such demand shall have been enforced shall obtain upon any judgment being passed after regular or summary trial three times the amount of any such excessive demand as damages for the same. Provided, however, that nothing herein prescribed or contained shall prevent a holder of alienated Lands or Villages from instituting a suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing his claim to re-assess the Lands or re-settle the Revenue of any Ryot or other who may be paying less than the full Juma to which he is justly liable, and upon such holder obtaining a decree adjudging to him such power the demand made by him under such decree, shall, if conformable thereto be deemed a legal demand for arrears, and shall be leviable by the same process as is above provided for other arrears due.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the power conferred by such Commission shall extend to the enforcement of the payment of the Revenue of the current season and of the season next immediately preceding, and not to that of former years.

Schedule A.

Form of Commission to be issued to a holder of alienated Revenue or his Agent for enabling him to recover such Revenue.

SEAL

The Governor in Council of Bombay by virtue of the powers vested in him by Act No. XIII. of 1842, is pleased to confer on you ———— (Jageerdar, &c., or Agent &c., as the case may be) power to realize all Revenue demands due to you (or to your principal) from the Villages and Lands specified in this Commission in the manner prescribed in (or in Sections —— of) this Act.

The Villages and Lands over which the power thus conferred upon you extends are as follows :

(Here enter the description,)

The within delegated power is vested in you during the pleasure and subject to the re-call of the said Governor in Council.

ACT NO. —— OF 1842.

An Act for abolishing the Provincial Courts of Appeal and Circuit in the Presidency of Fort St. George, and for establishing new Zillah Courts to perform their functions; for establishing Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and II, and Regulations VII. and VIII. of 1827, in place of the existing Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, and for extending the Civil Jurisdiction of such Courts.

I. It is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George be empowered by an Order in Council to abolish the Provincial Courts of Appeal and Circuit, and the Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, now existing in that Presidency, and to establish new Zillah Courts to perform the Civil and Criminal functions now performed by the said Provincial Courts, and to replace the existing Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, by Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and II. of 1827, or Regulations VII. and VIII. of 1827, at his discretion.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that every Zillah Court established under this Act, shall be superintended by one Judge, who shall be styled Civil and Session Judge of the Zillah.

Civil Jurisdiction. III. And it is hereby enacted, that the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall exercise within the limits assigned to them, respectively, by the Order in Council by which they are constituted, the same Civil jurisdiction as is now exercised by the Provincial Courts, except the Original jurisdiction vested in those Courts in suits for an amount or value less than 10,000 Company's Rupees, and shall be vested with the same authority, and shall be subject to the same rules and restrictions as the Provincial Courts, except as hereinafter mentioned.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Original jurisdiction vested in the Provincial Courts in suits for an amount or value less than 10,000 Co.'s Rs., shall be transferred to the subordinate Zillah Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and VII. of 1827.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that Section VII. Regulation VII. of 1827, be rescinded.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that in every Zillah in which there is a subordinate Court constituted according to Regulation VII. of 1827, the Zillah Court shall take cognizance of the Appeals which by Section VIII. of that Regulation are reserved from the jurisdiction of such Court.

VII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section IX. Regulation VII. of 1827, that in all cases, in which a Principal Sudder Ameen has occasion to call upon a Collector, Subordinate Collector, or Assistant Collector, or other European Officer of Government, to do any thing in any matter before his Court, he shall transmit to such Officer an Extract from the Proceedings of the Court containing a brief Abstract of the case, and specifying what is required to be done by him, with a request that he will comply therewith, and that he will return an answer stating what he has done within a certain time, and such Officer shall comply with the requisition so conveyed to him, in the same manner, as if it had been accompanied by a precept from the Zillah Judge.

Second.—Provided, that if such Officer does not comply with such requisition the Principal Sudder Ameen shall report the case to the Zillah Judge, who shall proceed thereon as if the requisition had been made by a precept from himself.

VIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that Appeals shall lie to the Zillah Court from all decrees or orders of Subordinate Civil Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and VII. of 1827, and of Sudder Ameens, and District Moonsiffs, in cases in which Appeals are now allowable, but such Appeals must be preferred within the period of 30 days, to be calculated as prescribed in the existing Regulations.

Second.—Provided that whenever a Court constituted according to Regulation I. of 1827, or according to Regulation VII. of 1827, is established in any Zillah at a place remote from the station of the Zillah Court, the Sudr Udalut, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, may order Appeals from the decisions and orders of District Moonsiffs stationed within the limits assigned to such Court, to be preferred to such Court. But it shall be competent to the Zillah Judge, at his discretion, to call up to his own Court, from time to time, Appeals received by any such Court and to dispose of them himself.

Third.—Provided also, that the Judge of any Zillah Court may refer to any Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen in the Zillah, any Appeals from District Moonsiffs which may be filed in the Zillah Court.

Fourth.—Provided also that if any such Appeal from a decision or order of a District Moonsiff, which may have been under this Section referred for decision or preferred in the first instance to a Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, be dismissed without any decision being come to on its merits, it shall be competent to the party aggrieved by such order of dismissal to prefer a Summary Appeal from it to the Judge of the Zillah, and it shall be the duty of the said Zillah Judge to hold such proceeding on such Summary Appeal as he may consider proper; and having satisfied himself that the order dismissing the Appeal has been passed without sufficient cause being shewn for such dismissal, it shall be competent for such Zillah Judge to issue his Precept to the Court by which the Appeal may have been dismissed, requiring that the Appeal shall be again admitted on the file, and a decision passed upon it after mature consideration of its merits.

IX. XLIV. And it is hereby enacted. that except as provided in Section XLVIII. of this Act, Europeans and Americans charged with offences not punishable by the Magistrate, committed within the local jurisdiction of a Principal Sudder Ameen, shall be sent for trial to the Session Judge, who shall proceed thereon in conformity with the rules applicable to his own Court, or to Courts constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, as the case may require.

XLV. XLVII. And it is hereby enacted, that when the said Governor in Council deems it proper to establish in any such Zillah a Court under a Sudder Ameen at a detached station, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to authorize the Sudder Ameen to receive and dispose of Civil Suits arising in the portion of the Zillah over which jurisdiction shall be assigned to him, without the intervention of the Zillah Judge, under the limitation as to the amount or value prescribed by the existing Regulations, and also to receive and dispose of Criminal cases sent to him by the Police of the division subject to his jurisdiction, for which the punishment prescribed shall not exceed the limitation specified in Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816.

XLVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish a Court under a European Principal Sudder Ameen at Cochin such Principal Sudder Ameen shall exercise within the jurisdiction assigned to him all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, and also all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

XLIX. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of a Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation VIII. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Session Judge.

And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of the Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Judge of the Subordinate Criminal Court, and the Session Judge shall be vested with authority to visit the Jail, and to pass orders according to Section XXXII. Regulation VII. of 1802, and Section VII. Regulation X. 1832.

LI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels, who shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall be subject to the same rules as are applicable to the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels of the Provincial Courts.

LII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall direct what Law Officers shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, and shall order the manner of their appointment, and such Officers shall be subject to the same rules as the Law Officers of the Provincial Courts.

LIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George may appoint an Assistant Judge to any Zillah Court of Appeal to whom the Judge shall have authority to refer any Appeals which may be depending before him, excepting appeals from the Subordinate Courts constituted according to Regulation I. or Regulation VII. of 1827, and such Assistant Judge shall be empowered to try and dispose of cases so referred to him under the rules applicable to the Judge.

LIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, by an Order in Council, to authorize the Governor in Council of Fort St. George at any time to change the Stations of Zillah Courts, and the limits of their local jurisdiction, and to abolish any of the Zillah Courts which shall be first established under this Act, and to establish new Zillah Courts in any parts of the Presidency of Fort Saint George.

LV. First—And whereas it is deemed expedient to extend the powers vested in Magistrates by Regulation IX. of 1816,

It is hereby enacted, that the Magistrates be authorized to exercise the powers vested in Criminal Judges by Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816, concurrently with the Subordinate Criminal Courts.

Second.—Provided that in all cases in which Magistrates shall exercise the additional powers hereby vested in them, the form of procedure shall be the same as is required to be observed in the Subordinate Criminal Courts in similar cases, and the same record shall be kept of the trial.

LVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in every case in which a Magistrate shall exercise such additional powers an Appeal from his sentence or order may be preferred to the Session Judge within one month, and it shall be competent to the Session Judge upon such an Appeal to annul or alter the sentence or order, provided that he shall not increase the punishment awarded by the Magistrate.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges, who shall be appointed for this purpose, shall be styled respectively, viz.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that every Special Commissioner so appointed, previously to entering upon the execution of the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed to be taken by Judges of the Provincial Courts of Appeal, before any person who shall be commissioned by the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George to administer it.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Special Commissioner shall transfer the Original Suits on the files of Provincial Courts, in which no proceedings have been held beyond the filing of the pleadings, and exhibits, to the Zillah Courts within whose jurisdiction they would fall respectively if they were commenced de novo, and such suits shall be tried and decided by the Judges of such Zillah Courts subject to Appeal to the Sudr Udalut.

V. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that all other Original Suits, and all Appeals on the file of the Provincial Courts, shall be tried and decided by the Special Commissioners, who shall have the same powers as heretofore have been vested in two or more Judges of such Courts sitting together, subject to the same rules and restrictions, and under the same provisions for Appeals to the Sudr Udalut.

Second.—Provided, that in a case of Special Appeal from a Lower Court, if a Special Commissioner differs from the Court from whose decision the Appeal is preferred, he shall not pass a final judgment reversing the decision, but shall record his opinion and transmit the record of the case to the Sudr Udalut, to be laid before a Single Judge of that Court, whose judgment, confirming or reversing the decree appealed against, shall be final.

FORT WILLIAM,

GENERAL DEPARTMENT,

THE 16TH NOVEMBER, 1842.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Resolution for general information.

G. A. BUSHBY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

RESOLUTION.

Adverting to the various Religious, Scientific, Literary and Charitable Societies existing at the Presidency, some of which have been allowed the indulgence, which has been refused to others, of sending their communications and circulating their Proceedings free of postage under the frank of the Secretary in this Department, the Hon'ble the President in Council finds it difficult to prescribe any limit to this indulgence founded on a clear distinction of the relative claims of these Societies to an exemption from the charge of postage on account of the benefits which they confer upon the community, and it is incumbent on the Government to require that the Post Office Revenue (already inadequate to the charges of the Department) be not burthened by a general concession of the indulgence.

The Post Office Rules intended that the public frank of the Chief Secretary, or Secretary to Government in the General Department, should be granted only to such occasional letters or parcels or Reports of Proceedings as Societies might be permitted to forward free of postage or under any peculiar circumstances—His Honor in Council is now pleased to determine that in future no Periodicals, Pamphlets, printed Papers, Bills or Subscription Accounts of any Public Society shall be allowed ordinarily to pass free of charge, and that the public frank shall be confined to special cases in which the Secretary may deem the indulgence to be fairly claimable on public grounds.

Letters, Papers and Parcels from the Societies, to which the frank of the Secretary in the General Department has heretofore been granted, will be required hereafter, whenever an exemption from postage shall be solicited, and obtained on special occasions, to come open to the Secretary of this Department in respect to the two first, viz. Letters and Papers, and no despatch will be franked which shall exceed the prescribed limit of weight for the Letter Dâk.

The Hon'ble the President in Council considers the employment of the Dâk Banghy for the transmission of Parcels and Packages free of cost to the Societies at the Presidency to whom this indulgence has been occasionally conceded in respect to the periodical Reports of their transactions, to be burthensome and expensive to the State; on which account it was withdrawn from the high Officers to whom the power of franking private Letters was continued by the Act and Regulations of 1837, and His Honor in Council accordingly resolves that no Parcels or Packages from any Public Society shall be allowed in future to be forwarded free of Dâk Banghy hire under a public frank.

The above Rules will supersede all the previous Orders of Government under which Correspondents of Public Societies have hitherto forwarded their letters and parcels on the affairs of such Societies under cover to the Secretary to Government in the General Department free of postage. They are not applicable to the established Funds of Public Servants specified in the Post Office Regulations, or to letters and parcels which any of the Public Societies are in the habit of sending, or may desire in future to send to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT,

SIMLA,

THE 25TH OCTOBER, 1842.

The Governor General seeing the Public detriment which must arise from covering the Acts of the several Members of a Board by the name of their Secretary, whereby, in all cases of difference of opinion, the several Members of a Board composing the Majority, avoid that Individual responsibility for their Acts, which is the only real security for the good conduct of Public Officers, directs that, from the date of the reception of this Order by the several Boards in the three Presidencies, the Members of such Boards shall, in every case of difference of opinion amongst them, with respect to any Act signed by their Secretary as the Act of the Board, transmit forthwith to the Government of the Presidency under which they may respectively serve, and to the Governor General, if he shall be absent from Calcutta, a Memorandum under their respective signatures, shewing the manner in which they respectively voted upon the case, in regard to which such difference of opinion may have arisen.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

(Sd.) T. H. MADDOCK,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. General.

FORT WILLIAM, LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 11TH NOVEMBER, 1842.

The following Drafts of proposed Acts were read in Council for the first time on the 11th of November 1842.

ACT NO. —— OF 1842.

An Act for abolishing the Provincial Courts of Appeal and Circuit in the Presidency of Fort St. George, and for establishing new Zillah Courts to perform their functions; for establishing Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and II., and Regulations VII. and VIII. of 1827, in place of the existing Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, and for extending the Civil Jurisdiction of such Courts.

I. It is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George be empowered by an Order in Council to abolish the Provincial Courts of Appeal and Circuit, and the Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, now existing in that Presidency, and to establish new Zillah Courts to perform the Civil and Criminal functions now performed by the said Provincial Courts, and to replace the existing Civil and Criminal Zillah Courts, by Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and II. of 1827, or Regulations VII. and VIII. of 1827, at his discretion.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that every Zillah Court established under this Act, shall be superintended by one Judge, who shall be styled Civil and Session Judge of the Zillah.

Civil Jurisdiction. III. And it is hereby enacted, that the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall exercise within the limits assigned to them, respectively, by the Order in Council by which they are constituted, the same Civil jurisdiction as is now exercised by the Provincial Courts, except the Original jurisdiction vested in those Courts in suits for an amount or value less than 10,000 Company's Rupees, and shall be vested with the same authority, and shall be subject to the same rules and restrictions as the Provincial Courts, except as hereinafter mentioned.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Original jurisdiction vested in the Provincial Courts in suits for an amount or value less than 10,000 Co.'s Rs., shall be transferred to the subordinate Zillah Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and VII. of 1827.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that Section VII. Regulation VII. of 1827, be rescinded.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that in every Zillah in which there is a subordinate Court constituted according to Regulation VII. of 1827, the Zillah Court shall take cognizance of the Appeals which by Section VIII. of that Regulation are reserved from the jurisdiction of such Court.

VII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section IX. Regulation VII. of 1827, that in all cases, in which a Principal Sudder Ameen has occasion to call upon a Collector, Subordinate Collector, or Assistant Collector, or other European Officer of Government, to do any thing in any matter before his Court, he shall transmit to such Officer an Extract from the Proceedings of the Court containing a brief Abstract of the case, and specifying what is required to be done by him, with a request that he will comply therewith, and that he will return an answer stating what he has done within a certain time, and such Officer shall comply with the requisition so conveyed to him, in the same manner, as if it had been accompanied by a precept from the Zillah Judge.

Second.—Provided, that if such Officer does not comply with such requisition the Principal Sudder Ameen shall report the case to the Zillah Judge, who shall proceed thereon as if the requisition had been made by a precept from himself.

VIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that Appeals shall lie to the Zillah Court from all decrees or orders of Subordinate Civil Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and VII. of 1827, and of Sudder Ameens, and District Moonsiffs, in cases in which Appeals are now allowable, but such Appeals must be preferred within the period of 30 days, to be calculated as prescribed in the existing Regulations.

Second.—Provided that whenever a Court constituted according to Regulation I. of 1827, or according to Regulation VII. of 1827, is established in any Zillah at a place remote from the station of the Zillah Court, the Sudr Udalut, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, may order Appeals from the decisions and orders of District Moonsiffs stationed within the limits assigned to such Court, to be preferred to such Court. But it shall be competent to the Zillah Judge, at his discretion, to call up to his own Court, from time to time, Appeals received by any such Court and to dispose of them himself.

Third.—Provided also, that the Judge of any Zillah Court may refer to any Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen in the Zillah, any Appeals from District Moonsiffs which may be filed in the Zillah Court.

Fourth.—Provided also that if any such Appeal from a decision or order of a District Moonsiff, which may have been under this Section referred for decision or preferred in the first instance to a Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, be dismissed without any decision being come to on its merits, it shall be competent to the party aggrieved by such order of dismissal to prefer a Summary Appeal from it to the Judge of the Zillah, and it shall be the duty of the said Zillah Judge to hold such proceeding on such Summary Appeal as he may consider proper; and having satisfied himself that the order dismissing the Appeal has been passed without sufficient cause being shewn for such dismissal, it shall be competent for such Zillah Judge to issue his Precept to the Court by which the Appeal may have been dismissed, requiring that the Appeal shall be again admitted on the file, and a decision passed upon it after mature consideration of its merits.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that Second or Special Appeals from the decisions of Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens on regular Appeals, referred to them by Judges of Zillah Courts, or preferred to them directly, shall be admissible only by the Sudr Udalut, under the general rules and restrictions applicable to the admission of Special Appeals by the Provincial Courts.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that Appeals, Regular, Special, and Summary, from decisions and orders of the Zillah Courts, shall lie to the Sudr Udalut, under the same rules and restrictions as are applicable to similar Appeals to the Sudr Udalut from the Provincial Courts.

XI. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to a single Judge of the Sudr Udalut to hold a sitting of Court on all matters within the cognizance of that Court, and to pass orders or judgments in conformity to the Regulations, subject to the following provisions.

Second.—On the hearing of any Appeal from the decision or order of any Court of inferior jurisdiction, in any case, regular or miscellaneous, if a single Judge of the Sudr Udalut shall be of opinion that no sufficient ground has been shewn to impugn the correctness or justness of such decision or order, it shall be competent to such single Judge, without reference to the order of the file, to confirm the same without requiring the attendance of the opposite party, and with or without a revision of the whole proceedings, as the nature of the case may appear to require, and to communicate the order of confirmation, through the Court from whose judgment the Appeal was made, to the opposite party, with a view to enable such party to take immediate measures for the execution of the decree. On the other hand, if a single Judge shall be of opinion that the decision or order appealed against ought to be altered, or reversed, as being manifestly unjust or at variance with some Regulation in force, or in opposition to the Hindoo or Mahomedan Law or other Law applicable to the case, or as having been passed without sufficient investigation of the merits, or as grounded on an assumption obviously erroneous or irrelevant with reference to the points at issue, it shall likewise be competent to a single Judge to issue an injunction pointing out the irregularity, illegality or other defect apparent in the proceedings, decision, or order appealed against, and requiring that the Court by which the same may have been held or passed shall revise the case, and proceed thereon in such manner as may appear conformable to justice and to the Regulations.

Third.—A single Judge of the Sudr Udalut may exercise his discretion in calling for the proceedings of the Lower Courts, or such parts of them as may appear necessary, and may further order a report in English, or in the Vernacular language commonly used in the Court, as the occasion may render advisable, on any points requiring explanation, prior to passing a determination on the case or matter in Appeal.

Fourth.—It shall further be competent to a Single Judge to direct, that the execution of any judgment or order passed by any inferior Court, in all cases in which that measure may appear to him expedient, may be stayed until a final decision has been passed thereon.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that the provisions of Clause 2d, of the foregoing Section, shall be applicable to the Judges of Zillah Courts, and to Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that any provisions of the existing Regulations which require inferior Courts to furnish the Sudr Udalut with translations of papers written in the Vernacular languages of the country, which they may transmit to that Court in Appeals and other cases, be rescinded.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Sections XIII. and XIV, Regulation V. of 1802, that all processes and orders therein described which may issue from the Sudr Udalut, shall be directed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Judges of the Zillah Courts to refer the execution of decrees of the Sudr Udalut and of their own Courts to the Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens of their Zillahs respectively, who shall proceed therein under the rules prescribed in the general Regulations applicable to such cases, provided that an Appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen under such reference, to the Zillah Court in the first instance, and secondly a Special Appeal to the Sudr Udalut.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that all other processes issued by the Sudr Udalut and directed to the Zillah Court, or originating in the Zillah Court, shall be served under the orders of the Zillah Judge by the proper Officers of the Court.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section VI. Regulation III. 1833, that the power of suspending Sudder Ameens from Office, thereby vested in the Zillah, Assistant, and Native Judges, shall for the future be vested in the Judges of Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XVIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that all parts of Regulations VI. and VII. 1816 in which the Zillah Judge is mentioned, shall be understood as applicable to the Judges of the Zillah Courts established under this Act, excepting Section LVI. Regulation VI. 1816, which shall be applicable to the Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens. And all parts of Regulation VI. of 1816 in which the Provincial Court is mentioned, shall be understood as applicable to the Sudr Udalut.

Second.—Provided, that District Moonsiffs may be employed by Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens, as well as by Judges of Zillah Courts, in the manner and for the purposes specified in Sections LX. and LXI. Regulation VI. 1816.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a Zillah Judge sees reason for calling up under Section LIV. Regulation VI. 1816, any cause that may be depending before a District Moonsiff, he may refer it for trial either to another District Moonsiff, or to a Sudder Ameen.

XX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a District Moonsiff shall forward to a Zillah Judge under Clause 2d, Section III. Regulation I. 1829, a Suit instituted in his Court, in which he is directly or indirectly a party, or otherwise personally interested, the Judge may refer it for trial either to a Sudder Ameen or another District Moonsiff.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges of Zillah Courts may refer to the Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens applications for the executions of decisions of District Punchayets preferred under Section XVII. Regulation VII. 1816.

XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to Judges of Zillah Courts to pass orders of their own authority on complaints preferred under Section XI. Regulation VII. 1816, according to Clause 4 thereof.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Zillah Judge shall be competent to receive and pass orders of his own authority on complaints preferred under Section XXVII. Regulation VII. 1832.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that Civil Actions and Criminal prosecutions under Clauses 1 and 2, Section VIII. Regulation VI. 1816, with respect to District Moonsiffs, and as extended by Section XIII. Regulation VIII. 1816, with respect to Sudder Ameens, shall be brought before the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that Section III. Regulation VIII. 1816, be rescinded.

XXVI. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section XIV. Regulation VIII. 1816, that Sudder Ameens shall have authority to order execution of the decisions passed by them according to the rules for the execution of decrees applicable to the Courts to which they are attached, and to issue all process relative to the causes and proceedings before them under their own official seal and signature, and to realize fines imposed by them without reference to any Superior Officer.

Criminal Jurisdiction.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges of the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall exercise within the limits assigned to those Courts respectively, the same Criminal jurisdiction as is now exercised by the Judges of the Courts of Circuit; and shall be vested with the same authority, and subject to the same rules and restrictions, as far as they are applicable and consistent with this Act.

XXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the said Judges shall hold permanent Sessions in the said Zillah Courts for the trial of all persons accused of crimes and offences now cognizable by the Courts of Circuit, who shall be committed for trial by the Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens of the Zillahs respectively.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that Section II. Regulation XIII. 1832, be rescinded.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted, in modifications of Clauses 1st and 3d, Section IX. Regulation X. of 1816, that if upon a perusal of the depositions given before the Magistrate, or any competent Officer of Police, it shall appear to the Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen before whom a prisoner is brought charged with a crime or misdemeanor subject to the jurisdiction of the Judge of the Zillah Court of Session, that there is evidence of the prisoner being concerned in the perpetration of the crime or misdemeanor with which he is charged, and if the deponents confirm their depositions on oath before him, it shall be competent to the Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, without further investigation, to commit the prisoner to take his trial before the Session Judge.

XXXI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Session Judge shall commence the trial immediately, and shall take the examination of the prosecutor and of the witnesses for the prosecution, and the defence of the prisoner, and the examinations of the witnesses for the defence, and if more witnesses have been previously summoned and are expected to attend, or if the Session Judge thinks it necessary after the commencement of the trial to call for further evidence, he shall adjourn the proceedings, permitting the prosecutor and witnesses to return to their houses, unless he shall see special cause to detain them in order to their being confronted with the other witnesses whose attendance is expected.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, that except in cases in which the Session Judge thinks proper to proceed as authorized in Section XXXIII. of this Act, the Mahomedan Law Officer attached to the Zillah Court, shall, sit with the Session Judge for the trial of persons charged with crimes now cognizable by Courts of Circuit, in like manner and subject to the like Regulations as are now applicable to Law Officers sitting with the Courts of Circuit.

XXXIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to Session Judges in the trial of Criminal cases, to avail themselves at their discretion of the assistance of respectable Natives, or other persons, in either of the two following ways,

Viz.—By constituting two or more such persons Assessors, or Members of the Court, with a view to the advantages derivable from their observations, particularly in the examination of witnesses. The opinion of each of the Assessors shall be given separately and discussed, and if any of the Assessors, or the authority presiding in the Court, desire it, the opinions of the Assessors shall be recorded in writing; or

By employing them more nearly as a Jury. They will then attend during the trial, will suggest, as it proceeds, such points of enquiry as occur to them, (the Court, if no objection exists, using every endeavour to procure the required information,) and after consultation will deliver in their verdict. The mode of selecting the Jurors, the number to be employed and the manner in which their verdict shall be delivered, are left to the discretion of the Judge who presides.

Second.—Provided that the Law Officer may be one of the Assessors or Jury.

Third.—Provided also that the decision shall be passed by the Judge according to his own opinion, whether he agrees with the Assessors or Jury, or not, if the case be one which under the existing Regulations it is competent to him to dispose of finally. But if he differs from the Assessors or Jury, his decision shall not be carried into effect unless confirmed by the Court of Fouzdaree Adawlut to which the case shall be immediately referred.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to a single Judge of the Foujdaree Udalut on a revision of the proceedings held on any Criminal trial by any Court of inferior jurisdiction, to reverse or alter the sentence or order passed thereon, provided such reversal or alteration be in favor of the accused, whether for acquittal, mitigation of punishment, or otherwise.

XXXV. And it is hereby enacted, that if a single Judge of the Foujdaree Udalut on a revision of the proceedings in a trial held by a Session Judge concur in opinion with the Session Judge whether for conviction or acquittal, it shall be competent to such single Judge to pass a final sentence, except for capital punishment, which as heretofore shall in all cases require the concurrent opinion of two Judges of the Court.

XXXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Court of Foujdaree Udalut on a review of the Abstract Statements of Prisoners punished without reference, to mitigate the sentence passed on any prisoner when such sentences may appear on the Session Judge's own shewing of the facts, manifestly illegal or too severe, and it shall not be necessary for the Court to call for the proceedings in such cases, unless they shall see special reasons for so doing. It shall further be competent to the Court in like manner to annul the sentence passed in any case when such sentence may be in opposition to any Law or Regulation in force, and to require the Session Judge to pass a new sentence according to Law.

XXXVII And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section II. Regulation III. 1833, that the authority to over-rule judgments passed by Sudder Ameens in Criminal cases shall be vested in the Session Judges.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that Section XXIV. Regulation X 1816, Clauses 2 and 3, Section IV. Regulation II. 1822, Clause 2, Section V., and Clauses 2 and 4, Section VIII. Regulation VI. 1827, shall be applicable to Session Judges, instead of Judges of Circuit.

XXXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that prosecutions against Magistrates and their Assistants under Section XLIII. Regulation IX. 1816, shall be instituted in the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XL. First—And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section III. Regulation XIII. 1832, that it shall be the duty of the Session Judge to bring to the notice of the Foujdaree Udalut any gross misconduct of any Native Officer of Police which may have come under his observation in a case investigated by himself, or which may have been reported to him by a Subordinate Assistant Judge, or Principal Sudder Ameen, and which appears to him to deserve the penalty of dismissal, and it shall be competent to the Foujdaree Udalut to order the dismissal of such Officer.

Second.—Provided that the Session Judge shall furnish a copy of his Report upon the case to the Magistrate, and the Foujdaree Udalut shall not pass a final order upon it until the answer of the Magistrate, which shall be addressed to that Court, has been received and considered.

XLI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Session Judge to bring to the notice of the Magistrate any minor neglects, or omissions, or transgressions of the Subordinate Officers of Police which have come under his own observations, or have been reported to him by a Subordinate Assistant Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, and such notifications shall be recorded in the periodical returns to the Foujdaree Udalut.

XLII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Session Judge to report to the Foujdaree Udalut any neglect or delay on the part of the Magistrate, or the Subordinate Officers of the Magistracy by which the course of justice has been seriously impeded in cases before himself, or which have been reported to him by a Subordinate Assistant Judge, or Principal Sudder Ameen.

XLIII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Session Judges, Assistant Judges, and Principal Sudder Ameens to communicate directly with the District Officers of Police for the purpose of obtaining all the evidence that appears to be forthcoming in cases in which prisoners have been forwarded by them charged with crimes and misdemeanors, Section LV. Regulation XI. 1816 notwithstanding.

XLIV. And it is hereby enacted, that except as provided in Section XLVIII. of this Act, Europeans and Americans charged with offences not punishable by the Magistrate, committed within the local jurisdiction of a Principal Sudder Ameen, shall be sent for trial to the Session Judge, who shall proceed thereon in conformity with the rules applicable to his own Court, or to Courts constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, as the case may require.

XLV. And it is hereby enacted, that in any Zillah, in which the Governor in Council of Fort St George deems it expedient to establish the Zillah Court, and the Court or Courts under Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens at separate stations, it shall be competent to the said Governor in Council, by an order in Council, to authorize the Session Judge to take cognizance of all Criminal cases subject ordinarily to the jurisdiction of the Subordinate Courts, as well as cases subject to his own jurisdiction, which shall be sent to him by the Magistrate or Officers of Police of such Talooks as shall be therein indicated, and to dispose of such cases according to the rules applicable to them respectively.

XLVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in any Zillah in which the Governor in Council of Fort St. George deems it unnecessary to establish a Subordinate Civil and Criminal Court, constituted according to Regulations I. and II. or Regulations VII. and VIII. 1827, it shall be competent to the said Governor in Council, by an order in Council, to authorize the Civil and Session Judge to exercise the Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction assigned to such Courts, besides the proper Civil and Criminal jurisdiction of the Zillah Court, and to take cognizance immediately of Criminal cases, within his proper jurisdiction as Session Judge, as they are sent up by the Police.

XLVII. And it is hereby enacted, that when the said Governor in Council deems it proper to establish in any such Zillah a Court under a Sudder Ameen at a detached station, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to authorize the Sudder Ameen to receive and dispose of Civil Suits arising in the portion of the Zillah over which jurisdiction shall be assigned to him, without the intervention of the Zillah Judge, under the limitation as to the amount or value prescribed by the existing Regulations, and also to receive and dispose of Criminal cases sent to him by the Police of the division subject to his jurisdiction, for which the punishment prescribed shall not exceed the limitation specified in Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816.

XLVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish a Court under a European Principal Sudder Ameen at Cochin such Principal Sudder Ameen shall exercise within the jurisdiction assigned to him all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, and also all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

XLIX. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of a Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation VIII. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Session Judge.

L. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of the Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Judge of the Subordinate Criminal Court, and the Session Judge shall be vested with authority to visit the Jail, and to pass orders according to Section XXXII. Regulation VII. of 1802, and Section VII. Regulation X. 1832.

LI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels, who shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall be subject to the same rules as are applicable to the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels of the Provincial Courts.

LII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall direct what Law Officers shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, and shall order the manner of their appointment, and such Officers shall be subject to the same rules as the Law Officers of the Provincial Courts.

LIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George may appoint an Assistant Judge to any Zillah Court of Appeal to whom the Judge shall have authority to refer any Appeals which may be depending before him, excepting appeals from the Subordinate Courts constituted according to Regulation I. or Regulation VII. of 1827, and such Assistant Judge shall be empowered to try and dispose of cases so referred to him under the rules applicable to the Judge.

LIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, by an Order in Council, to authorize the Governor in Council of Fort St. George at any time to change the Stations of Zillah Courts, and the limits of their local jurisdiction, and to abolish any of the Zillah Courts which shall be first established under this Act, and to establish new Zillah Courts in any parts of the Presidency of Fort Saint George.

LV. First—And whereas it is deemed expedient to extend the powers vested in Magistrates by Regulation IX. of 1816,

It is hereby enacted, that the Magistrates be authorized to exercise the powers vested in Criminal Judges by Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816, concurrently with the Subordinate Criminal Courts.

ACT No. —— OF 1842.

An Act for disposing of the Original Suits and Appeals depending before the Provincial Courts of Appeal in the Presidency of Fort St. George, the abolition of which is authorized by Act No. of 1842.

Whereas it is necessary that provision should be made for the disposal of Original Suits and Appeals depending before the Provincial Courts of Appeal in the Presidency of Fort St. George the abolition of which is authorized by Act ——.

I. It is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George be empowered to appoint a Single Judge to hold a Court in place of each of the said Provincial Courts at the Station of such Provincial Court, with a Special Commission to dispose of all Original Suits and Appeals which may be depending before such Court, on the date on which the said Governor in Council shall order the functions of the Provincial Courts to cease.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges, who shall be appointed for this purpose, shall be styled respectively, viz.

Special Commissioner for disposing of the causes depending before the late Provincial Court for the (Northern, Southern, Centre or Western) Division.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that every Special Commissioner so appointed, previously to entering upon the execution of the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed to be taken by Judges of the Provincial Courts of Appeal, before any person who shall be commissioned by the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George to administer it.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that the Special Commissioner shall transfer the Original Suits on the files of Provincial Courts, in which no proceedings have been held beyond the filing of the pleadings, and exhibits, to the Zillah Courts within whose jurisdiction they would fall respectively if they were commenced de novo, and such suits shall be tried and decided by the Judges of such Zillah Courts subject to Appeal to the Sudr Udalut.

V. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that all other Original Suits, and all Appeals on the file of the Provincial Courts, shall be tried and decided by the Special Commissioners, who shall have the same powers as heretofore have been vested in two or more Judges of such Courts sitting together, subject to the same rules and restrictions, and under the same provisions for Appeals to the Sudr Udalut.

Second.—Provided, that in a case of Special Appeal from a Lower Court, if a Special Commissioner differs from the Court from whose decision the Appeal is preferred, he shall not pass a final judgment reversing the decision, but shall record his opinion and transmit the record of the case to the Sudr Udalut, to be laid before a Single Judge of that Court, whose judgment, confirming or reversing the decree appealed against, shall be final.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the execution of Decrees of the Special Commissioners, and also of the Provincial Courts for which process was not issued previously to their abolition, shall be committed to the Judge of the Zillah, in which the Suit was instituted, or, if the Suit was instituted in the Provincial Court, to the Judge to whose jurisdiction the Suit would fall if it were commenced de novo. The records of the cases shall be transmitted, together with the Decrees, to the respective Zillah Judges, who shall proceed in the execution of the Decrees in the same manner as if they were passed by themselves, and appeals from their orders shall lie to the Sudr Udalut.

VII. And the Judges of the Zillah Courts shall proceed in like manner to complete the execution of Decrees of the Provincial Courts under process previously issued subject to appeal to the Sudr Udalut.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that from decisions passed by Zillah Judges, Assistant Judges, and Principal Sudder Ameens, previously to the abolition of the Provincial Courts, in cases appealable to those Courts, in which the time allowed for appealing shall not have expired at the date of their abolition, an appeal shall lie to the Sudr Udalut, provided that the petition of appeal be presented to the Sudr Udalut or to the Civil Judge of the Zillah in which the original suit was decided, within one month from the expiration of the period within which it ought to have been presented under the Rules applicable to appeals to the Provincial Courts.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George to authorize the appointment of Ministerial Officers and Vakeels of the Courts of the Special Commissioners, who shall be subject to the same Rules as are applicable to the Ministerial Officers and Vakeels of the Provincial Courts.

Ordered, that the Drafts now read be published for general information.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that in every Zillah in which there is a subordinate Court constituted according to Regulation VII. of 1827, the Zillah Court shall take cognizance of the Appeals which by Section VIII. of that Regulation are reserved from the jurisdiction of such Court.

VII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section IX. Regulation VII. of 1827, that in all cases, in which a Principal Sudder Ameen has occasion to call upon a Collector, Subordinate Collector, or Assistant Collector, or other European Officer of Government, to do any thing in any matter before his Court, he shall transmit to such Officer an Extract from the Proceedings of the Court containing a brief Abstract of the case, and specifying what is required to be done by him, with a request that he will comply therewith, and that he will return an answer stating what he has done within a certain time, and such Officer shall comply with the requisition so conveyed to him, in the same manner, as if it had been accompanied by a precept from the Zillah Judge.

Second.—Provided, that if such Officer does not comply with such requisition the Principal Sudder Ameen shall report the case to the Zillah Judge, who shall proceed thereon as if the requisition had been made by a precept from himself.

VIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that Appeals shall lie to the Zillah Court from all decrees or orders of Subordinate Civil Courts constituted according to Regulations I. and VII. of 1827, and of Sudder Ameens, and District Moonsiffs, in cases in which Appeals are now allowable, but such Appeals must be preferred within the period of 30 days, to be calculated as prescribed in the existing Regulations.

Second.—Provided that whenever a Court constituted according to Regulation I. of 1827, or according to Regulation VII. of 1827, is established in any Zillah at a place remote from the station of the Zillah Court, the Sudr Udalut, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, may order Appeals from the decisions and orders of District Moonsiffs stationed within the limits assigned to such Court, to be preferred to such Court. But it shall be competent to the Zillah Judge, at his discretion, to call up to his own Court, from time to time, Appeals received by any such Court and to dispose of them himself.

Third.—Provided also, that the Judge of any Zillah Court may refer to any Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen in the Zillah, any Appeals from District Moonsiffs which may be filed in the Zillah Court.

Fourth.—Provided also that if any such Appeal from a decision or order of a District Moonsiff, which may have been under this Section referred for decision or preferred in the first instance to a Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, be dismissed without any decision being come to on its merits, it shall be competent to the party aggrieved by such order of dismissal to prefer a Summary Appeal from it to the Judge of the Zillah, and it shall be the duty of the said Zillah Judge to hold such proceeding on such Summary Appeal as he may consider proper; and having satisfied himself that the order dismissing the Appeal has been passed without sufficient cause being shewn for such dismissal, it shall be competent for such Zillah Judge to issue his Precept to the Court by which the Appeal may have been dismissed, requiring that the Appeal shall be again admitted on the file, and a decision passed upon it after mature consideration of its merits.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that Second or Special Appeals from the decisions of Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens on regular Appeals, referred to them by Judges of Zillah Courts, or preferred to them directly, shall be admissible only by the Sudr Udalut, under the general rules and restrictions applicable to the admission of Special Appeals by the Provincial Courts.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that Appeals, Regular, Special, and Summary, from decisions and orders of the Zillah Courts, shall lie to the Sudr Udalut, under the same rules and restrictions as are applicable to similar Appeals to the Sudr Udalut from the Provincial Courts.

XI. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to a single Judge of the Sudr Udalut to hold a sitting of Court on all matters within the cognizance of that Court, and to pass orders or judgments in conformity to the Regulations, subject to the following provisions.

Second.—On the hearing of any Appeal from the decision or order of any Court of inferior jurisdiction, in any case, regular or miscellaneous, if a single Judge of the Sudr Udalut shall be of opinion that no sufficient ground has been shewn to impugn the correctness or justness of such decision or order, it shall be competent to such single Judge, without reference to the order of the file, to confirm the same without requiring the attendance of the opposite party, and with or without a revision of the whole proceedings, as the nature of the case may appear to require, and to communicate the order of confirmation, through the Court from whose judgment the Appeal was made, to the opposite party, with a view to enable such party to take immediate measures for the execution of the decree. On the other hand, if a single Judge shall be of opinion that the decision or order appealed against ought to be altered, or reversed, as being manifestly unjust or at variance with some Regulation in force, or in opposition to the Hindoo or Mahomedan Law or other Law applicable to the case, or as having been passed without sufficient investigation of the merits, or as grounded on an assumption obviously erroneous or irrelevant with reference to the points at issue, it shall likewise be competent to a single Judge to issue an injunction pointing out the irregularity, illegality or other defect apparent in the proceedings, decision, or order appealed against, and requiring that the Court by which the same may have been held or passed shall revise the case, and proceed thereon in such manner as may appear conformable to justice and to the Regulations.

Third.—A single Judge of the Sudr Udalut may exercise his discretion in calling for the proceedings of the Lower Courts, or such parts of them as may appear necessary, and may further order a report in English, or in the Vernacular language commonly used in the Court, as the occasion may render advisable, on any points requiring explanation, prior to passing a determination on the case or matter in Appeal.

Fourth.—It shall further be competent to a Single Judge to direct, that the execution of any judgment or order passed by any inferior Court, in all cases in which that measure may appear to him expedient, may be stayed until a final decision has been passed thereon.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that the provisions of Clause 2d, of the foregoing Section, shall be applicable to the Judges of Zillah Courts, and to Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that any provisions of the existing Regulations which require inferior Courts to furnish the Sudr Udalut with translations of papers written in the Vernacular languages of the country, which they may transmit to that Court in Appeals and other cases, be rescinded.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Sections XIII. and XIV., Regulation V. of 1802, that all processes and orders therein described which may issue from the Sudr Udalut, shall be directed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Judges of the Zillah Courts to refer the execution of decrees of the Sudr Udalut and of their own Courts to the Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens of their Zillahs respectively, who shall proceed therein under the rules prescribed in the general Regulations applicable to such cases, provided that an Appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen under such reference, to the Zillah Court in the first instance, and secondly a Special Appeal to the Sudr Udalut.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that all other processes issued by the Sudr Udalut and directed to the Zillah Court, or originating in the Zillah Court, shall be served under the orders of the Zillah Judge by the proper Officers of the Court.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section VI. Regulation III. 1833, that the power of suspending Sudder Ameens from Office, thereby vested in the Zillah, Assistant, and Native Judges, shall for the future be vested in the Judges of Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XVIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that all parts of Regulations VI. and VII. 1816 in which the Zillah Judge is mentioned, shall be understood as applicable to the Judges of the Zillah Courts established under this Act, excepting Section LVI. Regulation VI. 1816, which shall be applicable to the Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens. And all parts of Regulation VI. of 1816 in which the Provincial Court is mentioned, shall be understood as applicable to the Sudr Udalut.

Second.—Provided, that District Moonsiffs may be employed by Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens, as well as by Judges of Zillah Courts, in the manner and for the purposes specified in Sections LX. and LXI. Regulation VI. 1816.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a Zillah Judge sees reason for calling up under Section LIV. Regulation VI. 1816, any cause that may be depending before a District Moonsiff, he may refer it for trial either to another District Moonsiff, or to a Sudder Ameen.

XX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a District Moonsiff shall forward to a Zillah Judge under Clause 2d, Section III. Regulation I. 1829, a Suit instituted in his Court, in which he is directly or indirectly a party, or otherwise personally interested, the Judge may refer it for trial either to a Sudder Ameen or another District Moonsiff.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges of Zillah Courts may refer to the Subordinate Judges and Principal Sudder Ameens applications for the executions of decisions of District Punchayets preferred under Section XVII. Regulation VII. 1816.

XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to Judges of Zillah Courts to pass orders of their own authority on complaints preferred under Section XI. Regulation VII. 1816, according to Clause 4 thereof.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Zillah Judge shall be competent to receive and pass orders of his own authority on complaints preferred under Section XXVII. Regulation VII. 1832.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that Civil Actions and Criminal prosecutions under Clauses 1 and 2, Section VIII. Regulation VI. 1816, with respect to District Moonsiffs, and as extended by Section XIII. Regulation VIII. 1816, with respect to Sudder Ameens, shall be brought before the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that Section III. Regulation VIII. 1816, be rescinded.

XXVI. And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section XIV. Regulation VIII. 1816, that Sudder Ameens shall have authority to order execution of the decisions passed by them according to the rules for the execution of decrees applicable to the Courts to which they are attached, and to issue all process relative to the causes and proceedings before them under their own official seal and signature, and to realize fines imposed by them without reference to any Superior Officer.

Criminal Jurisdiction.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Judges of the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall exercise within the limits assigned to those Courts respectively, the same Criminal jurisdiction as is now exercised by the Judges of the Courts of Circuit; and shall be vested with the same authority, and subject to the same rules and restrictions, as far as they are applicable and consistent with this Act.

XXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the said Judges shall hold permanent Sessions in the said Zillah Courts for the trial of all persons accused of crimes and offences now cognizable by the Courts of Circuit, who shall be committed for trial by the Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens of the Zillahs respectively.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that Section II. Regulation XIII. 1832, be rescinded.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted, in modifications of Clauses 1st and 3d, Section IX. Regulation X. of 1816, that if upon a perusal of the depositions given before the Magistrate, or any competent Officer of Police, it shall appear to the Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen before whom a prisoner is brought charged with a crime or misdemeanor subject to the jurisdiction of the Judge of the Zillah Court of Session, that there is evidence of the prisoner being concerned in the perpetration of the crime or misdemeanor with which he is charged, and if the deponents confirm their depositions on oath before him, it shall be competent to the Subordinate Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, without further investigation, to commit the prisoner to take his trial before the Session Judge.

XXXI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Session Judge shall commence the trial immediately, and shall take the examination of the prosecutor and of the witnesses for the prosecution, and the defence of the prisoner, and the examinations of the witnesses for the defence, and if more witnesses have been previously summoned and are expected to attend, or if the Session Judge thinks it necessary after the commencement of the trial to call for further evidence, he shall adjourn the proceedings, permitting the prosecutor and witnesses to return to their houses, unless he shall see special cause to detain them in order to their being confronted with the other witnesses whose attendance is expected.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, that except in cases in which the Session Judge thinks proper to proceed as authorized in Section XXXIII. of this Act, the Mahomedan Law Officer attached to the Zillah Court, shall, sit with the Session Judge for the trial of persons charged with crimes now cognizable by Courts of Circuit, in like manner and subject to the like Regulations as are now applicable to Law Officers sitting with the Courts of Circuit.

XXXIII. First.—And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to Session Judges in the trial of Criminal cases, to avail themselves at their discretion of the assistance of respectable Natives, or other persons, in either of the two following ways,

The opinion of each of the Assessors shall be given separately and discussed, and if any of the Assessors, or the authority presiding in the Court, desire it, the opinions of the Assessors shall be recorded in writing; or

By employing them more nearly as a Jury. They will then attend during the trial, will suggest, as it proceeds, such points of enquiry as occur to them, (the Court, if no objection exists, using every endeavour to procure the required information,) and after consultation will deliver in their verdict. The mode of selecting the Jurors, the number to be employed and the manner in which their verdict shall be delivered, are left to the discretion of the Judge who presides.

Second.—Provided that the Law Officer may be one of the Assessors or Jury.

Third.—Provided also that the decision shall be passed by the Judge according to his own opinion, whether he agrees with the Assessors or Jury, or not, if the case be one which under the existing Regulations it is competent to him to dispose of finally. But if he differs from the Assessors or Jury, his decision shall not be carried into effect unless confirmed by the Court of Fouzdaree Adawlut to which the case shall be immediately referred.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to a single Judge of the Foujdaree Udalut on a revision of the proceedings held on any Criminal trial by any Court of inferior jurisdiction, to reverse or alter the sentence or order passed thereon, provided such reversal or alteration be in favor of the accused, whether for acquittal, mitigation of punishment, or otherwise.

XXXV. And it is hereby enacted, that if a single Judge of the Foujdaree Udalut on a revision of the proceedings in a trial held by a Session Judge concur in opinion with the Session Judge whether for conviction or acquittal, it shall be competent to such single Judge to pass a final sentence, except for capital punishment, which as heretofore shall in all cases require the concurrent opinion of two Judges of the Court.

XXXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Court of Foujdaree Udalut on a review of the Abstract Statements of Prisoners punished without reference, to mitigate the sentence passed on any prisoner when such sentences may appear on the Session Judge's own shewing of the facts, manifestly illegal or too severe, and it shall not be necessary for the Court to call for the proceedings in such cases, unless they shall see special reasons for so doing. It shall further be competent to the Court in like manner to annul the sentence passed in any case when such sentence may be in opposition to any Law or Regulation in force, and to require the Session Judge to pass a new sentence according to Law.

XXXVII And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section II. Regulation III. 1833, that the authority to over-rule judgments passed by Sudder Ameens in Criminal cases shall be vested in the Session Judges.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that Section XXIV. Regulation X. 1816 Clauses 2 and 3, Section IV. Regulation II. 1822, Clause 2, Section V. and Clauses 2 and 4, Section VIII. Regulation VI. 1827, shall be applicable to Session Judges, instead of Judges of Circuit.

XXXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that prosecutions against Magistrates and their Assistants under Section XLIII. Regulation IX. 1816, shall be instituted in the Zillah Courts established under this Act.

XL. First.—And it is hereby enacted, in modification of Section III. Regulation XIII. 1832, that it shall be the duty of the Session Judge to bring to the notice of the Foujdaree Udalut any gross misconduct of any Native Officer of Police which may have come under his observation in a case investigated by himself, or which may have been reported to him by a Subordinate Assistant Judge, or Principal Sudder Ameen, and which appears to him to deserve the penalty of dismissal, and it shall be competent to the Foujdaree Udalut to order the dismissal of such Officer.

Second.—Provided that the Session Judge shall furnish a copy of his Report upon the case to the Magistrate, and the Foujdaree Udalut shall not pass a final order upon it until the answer of the Magistrate, which shall be addressed to that Court, has been received and considered.

XLI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Session Judge to bring to the notice of the Magistrate any minor neglects, or omissions, or transgressions of the Subordinate Officers of Police which have come under his own observations, or have been reported to him by a Subordinate Assistant Judge or Principal Sudder Ameen, and such notifications shall be recorded in the periodical returns to the Foujdaree Udalut.

XLII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Session Judge to report to the Foujdaree Udalut any neglect or delay on the part of the Magistrate, or the Subordinate Officers of the Magistracy by which the course of justice has been serious-

XLIII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Session Judges, Assistant Judges, and Principal Sudder Ameens to communicate directly with the District Officers of Police for the purpose of obtaining all the evidence that appears to be forthcoming in cases in which prisoners have been forwarded by them charged with crimes and misdemeanors, Section LV. Regulation XI. 1816 notwithstanding.

XLIV. And it is hereby enacted, that except as provided in Section XLVIII. of this Act, Europeans and Americans charged with offences not punishable by the Magistrate, committed within the local jurisdiction of a Principal Sudder Ameen, shall be sent for trial to the Session Judge, who shall proceed thereon in conformity with the rules applicable to his own Court, or to Courts constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, as the case may require.

XLV. And it is hereby enacted, that in any Zillah, in which the Governor in Council of Fort St George deems it expedient to establish the Zillah Court, and the Court or Courts under Subordinate Judges or Principal Sudder Ameens at separate stations, it shall be competent to the said Governor in Council, by an order in Council, to authorize the Session Judge to take cognizance of all Criminal cases subject ordinarily to the jurisdiction of the Subordinate Courts, as well as cases subject to his own jurisdiction, which shall be sent to him by the Magistrate or Officers of Police of such Talooks as shall be therein indicated, and to dispose of such cases according to the rules applicable to them respectively.

XLVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in any Zillah in which the Governor in Council of Fort St. George deems it unnecessary to establish a Subordinate Civil and Criminal Court, constituted according to Regulations I. and II. or Regulations VII. and VIII 1827, it shall be competent to the said Governor in Council, by an order in Council, to authorize the Civil and Session Judge to exercise the Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction assigned to such Courts, besides the proper Civil and Criminal jurisdiction of the Zillah Court, and to take cognizance immediately of Criminal cases, within his proper jurisdiction as Session Judge, as they are sent up by the Police.

XLVII. And it is hereby enacted, that when the said Governor in Council deems it proper to establish in any such Zillah a Court under a Sudder Ameen at a detached station, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to authorize the Sudder Ameen to receive and dispose of Civil Suits arising in the portion of the Zillah over which jurisdiction shall be assigned to him, without the intervention of the Zillah Judge, under the limitation as to the amount or value prescribed by the existing Regulations, and also to receive and dispose of Criminal cases sent to him by the Police of the division subject to his jurisdiction, for which the punishment prescribed shall not exceed the limitation specified in Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816.

XLVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall establish a Court under a European Principal Sudder Ameen at Cochin such Principal Sudder Ameen shall exercise within the jurisdiction assigned to him all the powers of a Criminal Court constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, and also all the powers of a Joint Magistrate.

XLIX. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of a Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation VIII. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Session Judge.

L. And it is hereby enacted, that when the Subordinate Criminal Court at the Station of the Zillah Court is constituted according to Regulation II. of 1827, the Zillah Jail shall be under the charge of the Judge of the Subordinate Criminal Court, and the Session Judge shall be vested with authority to visit the Jail, and to pass orders according to Section XXXII. Regulation VII. of 1802, and Section VII. Regulation X. 1832.

LI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels, who shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, shall be subject to the same rules as are applicable to the Subordinate Officers and Vakeels of the Provincial Courts.

LII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall direct what Law Officers shall be appointed to the Zillah Courts established under this Act, and shall order the manner of their appointment, and such Officers shall be subject to the same rules as the Law Officers of the Provincial Courts.

LIII. And it is hereby enacted, that the Governor in Council of Fort St. George may appoint an Assistant Judge to any Zillah Court of Appeal to whom the Judge shall have authority to refer any Appeals which may be depending before him, excepting appeals from the Subordinate Courts constituted according to Regulation I. or Regulation VI. of 1827, and such Assistant Judge shall be empowered to try and dispose of cases so referred to him under the rules applicable to the Judge.

LIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, by an Order in Council, to authorize the Governor in Council of Fort St. George at any time to change the Stations of Zillah Courts, and the limits of their local jurisdiction, and to abolish any of the Zillah Courts which shall be first established under this Act, and to establish new Zillah Courts in any parts of the Presidency of Fort Saint George.

LV. First—And whereas it is deemed expedient to extend the powers vested in Magistrates by Regulation IX. of 1816,

It is hereby enacted, that the Magistrates be authorized to exercise the powers vested in Criminal Judges by Section VII. Regulation X. of 1816, concurrently with the Subordinate Criminal Courts.

Second.—Provided that in all cases in which Magistrates shall exercise the additional powers hereby vested in them, the form of procedure shall be the same as is required to be observed in the Subordinate Criminal Courts in similar cases, and the same record shall be kept of the trial.

LVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in every case in which a Magistrate shall exercise such additional powers an Appeal from his sentence or order may be preferred to the Session Judge within one month, and it shall be competent to the Session Judge upon such an Appeal to annul or alter the sentence or order, provided that he shall not increase the punishment awarded by the Magistrate.

Second.—Provided, that in a case of Special Appeal from a Lower Court, if a Special Commissioner differs from the Court from whose decision the Appeal is preferred, he shall not pass a final judgment reversing the decision, but shall record his opinion and transmit the record of the case to the Sudr Udalut, to be laid before a Single Judge of that Court, whose judgment, confirming or reversing the decree appealed against, shall be final.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the execution of Decrees of the Special Commissioners, and also of the Provincial Courts for which process was not issued previously to their abolition, shall be committed to the Judge of the Zillah, in which the Suit was instituted, or, if the Suit was instituted in the Provincial Court, to the Judge to whose jurisdiction the Suit would fall if it were commenced de novo. IX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George to authorize the appointment of Ministerial Officers and Vakeels of the Courts of the Special Commissioners, who shall be subject to the same Rules as are applicable to the Ministerial Officers and Vakeels of the Provincial Courts.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1842.

FORT WILLIAM, LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 2D DECEMBER, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 2d of December 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT NO. XV. OF 1842.

An Act for regulating the Emigration of the Native Inhabitants of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company to the Island of Mauritius.

I. Whereas it hath been ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows:

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,

PRESENT—

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ALBERT.

Lord President.	Lord Fitzgerald and Vesci.
Lord Privy Seal.	Sir Robert Peel, Bt.
Lord Steward.	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Chamberlain.	Sir James Graham, Bt.
Earl of Jersey.	Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart.
Earl of Ripon.
Lord Stanley.

Whereas it is probable that the Laws now in force in British India for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions will be shortly repealed so far as regards emigration to the Island of Mauritius, and that such last mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by Laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such Laws made for the protection of such Emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses. And whereas it is probable that amongst the provisions so to be made, as last aforesaid, will be a provisions for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at ports or places in India, Officers charged with the care, protection and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius. And whereas it is probable that provision will be made by Law at Mauritius for defraying from the public Revenue of that Island the expense of introducing emigration thither from British India. And whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by Law at Mauritius for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of Emigrants from British India into that Island— It is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that in the event of any Law being made in British India, authorizing the emigration to Mauritius of the Natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such emigrations, and in the event of any such Laws containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at the several ports of embarkation in India, Officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various Rules and Regulations comprized, and set forth in the Schedule to this present order subjoined, shall within the Island of Mauritius have the force and effect of Law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the same Island as to them may respectively appertain.

OVERLAND LETTERS AND POSTAGE.

IT is hereby notified for general information—

First.—That all Letters and Newspapers, except Soldiers' and Sailors' Letters, intended for transmission by the Overland Mails, and except those specially marked via "Falmouth," will be sent through France, and thus be subject to the heavier rate of postage.

Second.—Letters and Newspapers addressed to France as well as those to other foreign countries, with which France is the channel of communication (if the latter are expressly directed to be so sent) will be made up in Packets and sent to the French Post Master at Marseilles; but Letters for Foreign Countries, other than France, if not specially directed to France, will be included in the Packets for England. Letters, &c. for places lying between Bombay and Marseilles, will be despatched in separate Packets.

Third.—Letters for the United Kingdom of Great Britain, weighing less than a quarter of an ounce, and passing through France, are charged single postage, which by that route amounts to 2*s.* 8*d.* By the Falmouth route, Letters of half an ounce in weight, are subject to single postage only, which by that route, has now been reduced to 1*s.*

NOTIFICATION.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT; SIMLA, THE 16TH NOVEMBER, 1842.

The Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter, which, translated into the Hindee language, has been transmitted to the several Princes and Chiefs to whom it is addressed, and circulated generally throughout India.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secy. to the Government of India,
with the Governor General.

FROM THE GOVERNOR GENERAL TO ALL THE PRINCES AND CHIEFS, AND PEOPLE OF INDIA.

MY BROTHERS AND MY FRIENDS,

Our victorious army bears the gates of the temple of Somnauth, in triumph from Afghanistan, and the despoiled tomb of Sultan Mahmood looks upon the ruins of Ghuznee.

The insult of 800 years is at last avenged. The gates of the temple of Somnauth, so long the memorial of your humiliation, are become the proudest record of your national glory; the proof of your superiority in arms over the nations beyond the Indus.

To you, Princes and Chiefs of Sirhind, of Rajwarra, of Malwa, and of Guzerat, I shall commit this glorious trophy of successful war.

You will yourselves, with all honor, transmit the gates of sandal-wood through your respective territories to the restored temple of Somnauth.

The Chiefs of Sirhind shall be informed, at what time our victorious army will first deliver the gates of the temple into their guardianship, at the foot of the bridge of the Sutlej.

MY BROTHERS AND MY FRIENDS,

I have ever relied, with confidence, upon your attachment to the British Government. You see how worthy it proves itself of your love, when, regarding your honor as its own, it exerts the power of its arms to restore to you the gates of the temple of Somnauth, so long the memorial of your subjection to the Afghans.

For myself, identified with you in interest and in feeling, I regard, with all your own enthusiasm, the high achievements of that heroic army; reflecting alike immortal honor upon my native and upon my adopted country.

To preserve and to improve the happy union of our two countries, necessary as it is to the welfare of both, is the constant object of my thoughts. Upon that union depends the security of every ally, as well as of every subject of the British Government, from the miseries, whereby, in former times, India was afflicted: through that alone has our army now waved its triumphant standards over the ruins of Ghuznee and planted them upon the Bala Hissar of Cabool.

May that good Providence, which has hitherto so manifestly protected me, still extend to me its favor, that I may so use the power now entrusted to my hands, as to advance your prosperity and secure your happiness, by placing the union of our two countries upon foundations which may render it eternal.

(Signed) ELLENBOROUGH.

Lord Steward.	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Chamberlain.	Sir James Graham, Bt.
Earl of Jersey.	Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart.
Earl of Ripon.
Lord Stanley.

Whereas it is probable that the Laws now in force in British India for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions will be shortly repealed so far as regards emigration to the Island of Mauritius, and that such last mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by Laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such Laws made for the protection of such Emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses. And whereas it is probable that amongst the provisions so to be made, as last aforesaid, will be a provision for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at ports or places in India, Officers charged with the care, protection and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius. And whereas it is probable that provision will be made by Law at Mauritius for defraying from the public Revenue of that Island the expense of introducing emigration thither from British India. And whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by Law at Mauritius for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of Emigrants from British India into that Island— It is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that in the event of any Law being made in British India, authorizing the emigration to Mauritius of the Natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such emigrations, and in the event of any such Laws containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at the several ports of embarkation in India, Officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various Rules and Regulations comprized, and set forth in the Schedule to this present order subjoined, shall within the Island of Mauritius have the force and effect of Law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the same Island as to them may respectively appertain.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1842.

FORT WILLIAM,

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 2D DECEMBER, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 2d of December 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XV. OF 1842.

An Act for regulating the Emigration of the Native Inhabitants of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company to the Island of Mauritius.

I. Whereas it hath been ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows:

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,

PRESENT—

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ALBERT.

Lord President.	Lord Fitzgerald and Vesci.
Lord Privy Seal.	Sir Robert Peel, Bt.
Lord Steward.	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Chamberlain.	Sir James Graham, Bt.
Earl of Jersey.	Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart.
Earl of Ripon.
Lord Stanley.

Whereas it is probable that the Laws now in force in British India for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions will be shortly repealed so far as regards emigration to the Island of Mauritius, and that such last mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by Laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such Laws made for the protection of such Emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses. And whereas it is probable that amongst the provisions so to be made, as last aforesaid, will be a provision for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at ports or places in India, Officers charged with the care, protection and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius. And whereas it is probable that provision will be made by Law at Mauritius for defraying from the public Revenue of that Island the expense of introducing emigration thither from British India. And whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by Law at Mauritius for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of Emigrants from British India into that Island— It is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that in the event of any Law being made in British India, authorizing the emigration to Mauritius of the Natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such emigrations, and in the event of any such Laws containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at the several ports of embarkation in India, Officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various Rules and Regulations comprized, and set forth in the Schedule to this present order subjoined, shall within the Island of Mauritius have the force and effect of Law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the same Island as to them may respectively appertain.

And the Right Hon'ble Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary instructions herein accordingly.

(Signed) C. GREVILLE.

Provided always that the aforesaid Act No. XIV. of 1839, shall remain in full force in all the ports of India except the ports aforesaid, and in regard to Emigrants from India proceeding to other places than the Mauritius.

And every Ship or Vessel in which any such Emigrant shall be conveyed without a License being obtained as aforesaid shall be liable to be forfeited, and the Master thereof shall be liable as for a misdemeanor in a fine of 1,000 Rupees for every such Emigrant so illegally conveyed.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall not be lawful for the Master of any Vessel licensed as above to receive on board any Emigrant Laborer as above provided, unless such Laborer shall have in his possession and show a Certificate or Pass to be given to him by the Emigration Agent of the port, stating his name and the name of his father and his age, and certifying that having appeared before such Agent he has declared his willingness and desire to proceed to work for hire in the said Colony of Mauritius.

VI. OVERLAND LETTERS AND POSTAGE.

IT is hereby notified for general information—

First.—That all Letters and Newspapers, except Soldiers' and Sailors' Letters, intended for transmission by the Overland Mails, and except those specially marked via "Falmouth," will be sent through France, and thus be subject to the heavier rate of postage.

Second.—Letters and Newspapers addressed to France as well as those to other foreign countries, with which France is the channel of communication (if the latter are expressly directed to be so sent) will be made up in Packets and sent to the French Post Master at Marseilles; but Letters for Foreign Countries, other than France, if not specially directed to France, will be included in the Packets for England. Letters, &c. for places lying between Bombay and Marseilles, will be despatched in separate Packets.

Third.—Letters for the United Kingdom of Great Britain, weighing less than a quarter of an ounce, and passing through France, are charged single postage, which by that route amounts to 2*s*. 8*d*. By the Falmouth route, Letters of half an ounce in weight, are subject to single postage only, which by that route, has now been reduced to 1*s*.

Newspapers, if sent via Falmouth, are free of postage; but if transmitted by the way of Marseilles, they are charged 2*d*. each.

FORT WILLIAM,

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 2D DECEMBER, 1842.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 2d of December 1842, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XV. OF 1842.

An Act for regulating the Emigration of the Native Inhabitants of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company to the Island of Mauritius.

I. Whereas it hath been ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows:

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,

PRESENT—

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ALBERT.

Lord President.	Lord Fitzgerald and Vesci.
Lord Privy Seal.	Sir Robert Peel, Bt.
Lord Steward.	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Lord Chamberlain.	Sir James Graham, Bt.
Earl of Jersey.	Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart.
Earl of Ripon.
Lord Stanley.

Whereas it is probable that the Laws now in force in British India for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions will be shortly repealed so far as regards emigration to the Island of Mauritius, and that such last mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by Laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such Laws made for the protection of such Emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses. And whereas it is probable that amongst the provisions so to be made, as last aforesaid, will be a provision for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at ports or places in India, Officers charged with the care, protection and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius. And whereas it is probable that provision will be made by Law at Mauritius for defraying from the public Revenue of that Island the expense of introducing emigration thither from British India. And whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by Law at Mauritius for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of Emigrants from British India into that Island—It is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that in the event of any Law being made in British India, authorizing the emigration to Mauritius of the Natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such emigrations, and in the event of any such Laws containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint at the several ports of embarkation in India, Officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various Rules and Regulations comprized, and set forth in the Schedule to this present order subjoined, shall within the Island of Mauritius have the force and effect of Law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's Officers, Civil and Military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the same Island as to them may respectively appertain.

And the Right Hon'ble Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary instructions herein accordingly.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

SECRET DEPARTMENT; CAMP CHUMKOUR, 28TH NOVEMBER, 1842.

The following despatch from Major General Pollock, C. B., not having been received until long after the events therein reported, was, through inadvertence, omitted to be published at the time of its receipt.

No. 61 of 1842.

From Major General GEORGE POLLOCK, C. B.,
Commanding in Afghanistan,

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.,
Secy. to Govt. Political Department.

Jellalabad, 21st May, 1842.

SIR,

As I am doubtful if the originals, of which the enclosed are copies, ever reached you, I am induced to forward the copies, and take this opportunity of stating, that on the 5th April the 30th regiment ascended the height at the entrance of the pass, and reached the summit, under Brigadier Wild. I was obliged to advance before the party did reach the summit, and was not aware that they had done so, till informed of it two or three days ago by Brigadier Wild.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GEO. POLLOCK, Major General,
Commanding in Afghanistan.

Commanding in Afghanistan,

To T. H. MADDOCK, Esq.,
Secy. to Govt. Secret and Political Department.

Lolla Chunee, near Ali Musjid, 7th April, 1842.

SIR,

In continuation of my despatch of the 6th instant, I have now the honor to enclose a return of casualties, which took place on the 5th and 6th; those of the latter date occurred in taking possession of Ali Musjid. I am happy to say the amount of our loss is trifling considering the very great opposition we experienced from the enemy.

In my last communication I inadvertently omitted to mention the name of Lieutenant John Beecher, acting Field Engineer, and have to request you will bring to the notice of the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council, the very essential services rendered by that Officer in clearing the pass of the impediments constructed by the enemy, which he did with a degree of celerity, notwithstanding their strength and difficulty of removal, that elicited my warmest satisfaction.

I have, &c.,

Commanding in Afghanistan.

NOTICE

Touching the Pilot Station for the River Hooghly during the S. W. Monsoon of the Year 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the same causes existing which during last S. W. Monsoon rendered necessary the removal of the Pilot Station from off Point Palmyras to a position 6 or 8 miles S. W. of the outer Floating Light, and in from 16 to 20 fathoms water, this latter Station will be continued during the next S. W. Monsoon, viz. from 15th March to the 15th September.

During the last S. W. Monsoon, no difficulty would appear to have been experienced by Vessels passing from False Point Light House to the New Station, nor can any be left, if common attention be paid to the lead and to the following Directions prepared by Captain Lloyd, late Officiating Marine Surveyor General, after a careful Survey of the ground between the two Points.

False Point Light House is in Latitude 20° 19½′ N. and Longitude 86° 47′ E., and that of the South Channel Buoy in Latitude 20° 59′ N. and Longitude 88° 4′ E., and bears from the former N. 61 E. true N. E. by E. ½ E. by Compass distant 83 miles, and is laid in 12 fathoms.

A Bank of Soundings extends from off Point Palmyras, in a direction towards the tail of the Western Sea Reef, and the nature of the bottom (as distinguished from that of the Hooghly deposit which is sand and mud with shining specks,) is a gravelly substance composed of sand shells and small pebbles discharged from the "Kunka," and other Rivers, near Point Palmyras, the lighter material of which being carried further out, is deposited and forms what is called the Pilots' Ridge, which in crossing to the N. Wd. shews a little less water than on either side. In coming from seaward you shoal rather suddenly from 28 to 23 fathoms upon its Eastern Edge. It is composed of a shelly sand or minute gravel of a reddish or rusty brown colour.

The best guide therefore to enable a Vessel to direct her course from False Point to the Vessels at the New Station, will be to run down the Edge of the Pilots' Bridge, which can readily be done by making the Light House and bringing it to bear about W. S. W. or S. W. by W. distant by computation from 10 to 15 miles then steering to the E. N. Ed. and having gradually encreased the depth of water to 23 fathoms upon the Eastern Edge of the Ridge, regulate the course to keep between it and 27 fathoms, when by attention to the lead and nature of the Soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to miss the Pilot Vessels, (if the above limits are kept within) either by getting too far to Windward or falling to Leeward; for the Soundings increase so rapidly to seaward from the proposed New Station, that 28 fathoms will not be more than 3 or 4 miles to the Southward of it and 23 fathoms the same distance to the Westward of it.

"The Soundings to seaward of the Ridge are in general a greenish or olive coloured mud. with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it."

Vessels approaching the Station during the day are required to shew the usual Signal for a Pilot and by night to give as early and as much warning as possible by firing Guns, burning Blue Lights and by exhibiting two Lights in a vertical position, where best seen,* but Commanders are recommended to avoid as much as possible making the Station during the night. To mark the Station one of the Pilot Vessels will shew during the day a large St. George's Jack (white with red cross) at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head and a good Mast Head, Light during the night and will burn a Blue Light and a Maroon alternately every half hour and fire a Gun at 8 P. M. at midnight and at 4 A. M. Vessels approaching the Station and while there, as well as when approaching the Light, and Buoy Station Vessels are warned to be careful in avoiding collision by night or by day and in communicating with either of the above Vessels, either at anchor or hove too, when it is necessary to cross her to pass under the Stern, several instances of serious damage having occurred during the S. W. Monsoon, whereby the outer Floating Light was more than once compelled to leave her Station for repairs to the great inconvenience and risk of Vessels entering and quitting the River.

* The Light Vessels are directed when another Vessel is approaching during the night, shew a Light at the Gaff end to mark the way they are riding.

A Vessel will be stationed off False Point Light House, keeping it according to circumstances W. by S. to N. W. by N., in from 10 to 18 fathoms water.

She will exhibit during the day, when Vessels are in sight, a large Danish Jack at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head (red with white cross) and during the night a good Mast Head Light in the same place and will burn a Blue Light every half hour.

This Vessel will have no Pilot on board and is only intended generally to furnish information touching the Course to the New Station, but particularly to do so to Vessels which may be in ignorance of the position of the New Station.

NOTICE.

The following Directions for Vessels entering the Moulmein River, prepared by Lieut. W. Fell, I. N., are published for general information.

By order of the Marine Board,

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 12th Dec., 1842.

DIRECTIONS

For Vessels entering the Moulmein River.

A Vessel coming from the southward on sighting the fair way Buoy, which is a Black Buoy with two white rings, painted on the upper part of it, and placed in $1\frac{3}{4}$ fathoms water, on a patch of broken ground, of about 250 yards in extent, from which the present Reef Buoy bears N. 40° East, distant one and a half miles. A white Pagoda on the summit of the Eastern Hill, on the South end of Biloo Island, N. 10° East Amherst large Pagoda near the Flag Staff S. 84° East, a conspicuous tree on the centre of the small Island off Amherst, S. $61\frac{1}{2}$° East, a Vessel ought to stand direct for this Buoy and passing to the westward of it, you may then with a fair wind steer direct for the Reef Buoy, being careful not to bring it to northward of North East so as to avoid the Sunken Rocks and Foul Ground, extending from the Reef of Rocks off Amherst. The Reef Buoy is a Black Buoy, placed off the N. W. extreme of the Amherst or Queekmi Reef in 7 fathoms, from which the white Pagoda on Biloo Island, bears N. 5° East, Amherst large Pagoda S 54° East the conspicuous tree on the Island off Amherst S. 29° East, passing this Buoy at one hundred and fifty or two hundred yards distance you may then stand in direct for the middle ground Buoy, which is also black, and situated on a Sunken Rock, in $\frac{3}{4}$ of a fathom at low water, with deep water on all sides of it, and bears from the Reef Buoy N. 84° East, distant $1\frac{3}{4}$ miles, carrying from 7 to 4 fathoms at low water, passing this Buoy to the northward you may then stand on to the eastward, and Anchor in $3\frac{1}{2}$ or 4 fathoms, when the conspicuous tree on the centre of Amherst Island is in one with Amherst Point, which forms a Bluff close to the large Pagoda.

A Vessel getting at all to the northward, when outside the Reef Buoy, will avoid the S. W. extreme of the Goodwin Sand by keeping Amherst large Pagoda in one with the Reef Buoy, or open to the southward of it.

When inside the Reef Buoy the middle ground Buoy bearing E. 7° S. will take a Vessel clear of the South extreme of the Sand on the North side of the Channel, but it ought not to be brought to bear at all to the Sd. It is high water on full and change at the Reef Buoy at 2 hours.

Amherst large Pagoda is in { Latitude 16° 04′ 48″ N. / Longitude 97° 35′ 06″ E.

N. B.—In coming into the River keep all Black Buoys on your right hand and all Red on your left hand.

SECRET DEPARTMENT; CAMP DHURUMKOTE, 6TH DECEMBER, 1842.

The following despatch this day received from Major General Pollock, C. B., transmitting copies of letters from Major General McCaskill, K. H., omitted in his report of the operations against Istalif, dated 30th September last, is now published for general information.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

with the Governor General.

From Major General GEORGE POLLOCK, C. B.,

Camp Parewailah, 1st Dec. 1842.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, copy of a letter which I have addressed to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, transmitting copies of letters from Major General McCaskill, K. H., regarding an omission in his despatch on the operations against Istalif.

I have, &c.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward a duplicate of Major General McCaskill's despatch of the 6th ultimo, together with a letter No. 161, dated left bank of the Jhelum, 29th instant, explanatory of his reasons for its being despatched a second time, a copy having already been forwarded by me.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GEO. POLLOCK, Major General,

(Signed) GEO. PONSONBY,

No. 161.

From Major General McCaskill, K. H.,
Commanding Infantry Division,

To Captain Ponsonby,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Camp left bank of the Jhelum, 29th Nov. 1842.

Sir,

There being reason to believe that the original of the accompanying report was lost in an intercepted dawk from Gundamuck, I deem it to be my duty to the Officers and troops concerned, to place a duplicate of it at the disposal of Major General Pollock, C. B., in the hope that he will see cause to forward it to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General and His Excellency the Commander in Chief. I am particularly anxious that the portion of Major General Nott's force, which served with me at Istalif, should have no ground for considering its services overlooked; an impression, which seems to have been produced on the minds of some part of it, by the circumstance of my second letter not having been made public.

I have, &c.

(Signed) John McCaskill, Major General,
Commanding Infantry Division.

(True copy,)
(Signed) Geo. Ponsonby,
Assistant Adjutant General.

From Major General McCaskill, K. H.,
Commanding Infantry Division,

To Captain Ponsonby,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Camp Khwoja Ruwash, 6th October, 1842.

Sir,

The troops entrusted to my charge for a special service in the Kohistan, having pitched their tents at this place previously to returning to their respective encampments, I take this opportunity of requesting you to solicit the attention of Major General Pollock, C. B., to some points, which, in the hurry of our active operations, I had neglected to dwell upon. I have already intimated that Brigadier Stacy's report of the part borne by his brigade in the capture of Istalif, on the 29th ultimo, did not reach me till the 2d instant. It will ever be matter of regret to me if this incidental delay should prevent the merits of some of the Officers and troops under me, being prominently brought to the notice of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General and His Excellency the Commander in Chief. The brunt of the action certainly fell on the infantry corps and sappers of Brigadier Tulloch's brigade, but the credit of turning the enemy's extreme right; of allowing him no respite or breathing time on that line; of aiding in completing the capture of the town, when its possession was hotly disputed from behind walls, and from the tops of houses, from court yards and in winding streets built on steep declivities, is due to the regiment under Brigadier Stacy. My commendations have been especially earned by Major G. Brown and H. M.'s 41st regiment, for the share they took in these gallant efforts, and for the exemplary humanity displayed by the men towards the unfortunate families of the vanquished. That corps was zealously emulated and supported by the 42d native infantry under Major Clarkson, and the 43d under Major Nash. In addition to the services of Major Sanders, as Field Engineer, I ought to have remarked on the distinguished gallantry with which he accompanied the heads of columns in the advance of Brigadier Tulloch, against the gardens and town. Neither must I leave without record the marked intrepidity of Lieutenant Mayne, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, in pointing out the path of the same column amidst the hottest of the fire, and in aiding in following up the victory. I have before mentioned that the light companies of H. M.'s 41st, and the 42d and 43d native infantry, covered the manœuvres of their own brigade. This onset was led very bravely by Lieutenant Evans, who was afterwards killed in the town, (and was succeeded in command by Lieutenant Madden,) and by Lieutenant Woollen, 42d native infantry, and Captain Macpherson, 43d native infantry.

I have, &c.

(Signed) John McCaskill, Maj. Genl.,

NOTICE

Touching the Pilot Station for the River Hooghly during the S. W. Monsoon of the Year 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the same causes existing which during last S. W. Monsoon rendered necessary the removal of the Pilot Station from off Point Palmyras to a position 6 or 8 miles S. W. of the outer Floating Light, and in from 16 to 20 fathoms water, this latter Station will be continued during the next S. W. Monsoon, viz. from 15th March to the 15th September.

During the last S. W. Monsoon, no difficulty would appear to have been experienced by Vessels passing from False Point Light House to the New Station, nor can any be left, if common attention be paid to the lead and to the following Directions prepared by Captain Lloyd, late Officiating Marine Surveyor General, after a careful Survey of the ground between the two Points.

False Point Light House is in Latitude 20° 19½′ N. and Longitude 86° 47′ E., and that of the South Channel Buoy in Latitude 20° 59′ N. and Longitude 88° 4′ E., and bears from the former N. 61 E. true N. E. by E. ½ E. by Compass distant 83 miles, and is laid in 12 fathoms.

A Bank of Soundings extends from off Point Palmyras, in a direction towards the tail of the Western Sea Reef, and the nature of the bottom (as distinguished from that of the Hooghly deposit which is sand and mud with shining specks,) is a gravelly substance composed of sand shells and small pebbles discharged from the "Kunka," and other Rivers, near Point Palmyras, the lighter material of which being carried further out, is deposited and forms what is called the Pilots' Ridge, which in crossing to the N. Wd. shews a little less water than on either side. In coming from seaward you shoal rather suddenly from 28 to 23 fathoms upon its Eastern Edge. It is composed of a shelly sand or minute gravel of a reddish or rusty brown colour.

The best guide therefore to enable a Vessel to direct her course from False Point to the Vessels at the New Station, will be to run down the Edge of the Pilots' Bridge, which can readily be done by making the Light House and bringing it to bear about W. S. W. or S. W. by W. distant by computation from 10 to 15 miles then steering to the E. N. Ed. and having gradually encreased the depth of water to 23 fathoms upon the Eastern Edge of the Ridge, regulate the course to keep between it and 27 fathoms, when by attention to the lead and nature of the Soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to miss the Pilot Vessels, (if the above limits are kept within) either by getting too far to Windward or falling to Leeward; for the Soundings increase so rapidly to seaward from the proposed New Station, that 28 fathoms will not be more than 3 or 4 miles to the Southward of it and 23 fathoms the same distance to the Westward of it.

"The Soundings to seaward of the Ridge are in general a greenish or olive coloured mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it."

Vessels approaching the Station during the day are required to shew the usual Signal for a Pilot and by night to give as early and as much warning as possible by firing Guns, burning Blue Lights and by exhibiting two Lights in a vertical position, where best seen, but Commanders are recommended to avoid as much as possible making the Station during the night. To mark the Station one of the Pilot Vessels will shew during the day a large St. George's Jack (white with red cross) at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head and a good Mast Head, Light during the night and will burn a Blue Light and a Maroon alternately every half hour and fire a Gun at 8 P. M. at midnight and at 4 A. M. Vessels approaching the Station and while there, as well as when approaching the * Light, and Buoy Station Vessels are warned to be careful in avoiding collision by night or by day and in communicating with either of the above Vessels, either at anchor or hove too, when it is necessary to cross her to pass under the Stern, several instances of serious damage having occurred during the S. W. Monsoon, whereby the outer Floating Light was more than once compelled to leave her Station for repairs to the great inconvenience and risk of Vessels entering and quitting the River.

* The Light Vessels are directed when another Vessel is approaching during the night, shew a Light at the Gaff end to mark the way they are riding.

A Vessel will be stationed off False Point Light House, keeping it according to circumstances W. by S. to N. W. by N., in from 10 to 15 fathoms water.

She will exhibit during the day, when Vessels are in sight, a large Danish Jack at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head (red with white cross) and during the night a good Mast Head Light in the same place and will burn a Blue Light every half hour.

This Vessel will have no Pilot on board and is only intended generally to furnish information touching the Course to the New Station, but particularly to do so to Vessels which may be in ignorance of the position of the New Station.

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

Fort William,

No. 2154.

NOTICE.

The following Directions for Vessels entering the Moulmein River, prepared by Lieut. W. Fell, I. N., are published for general information.

By order of the Marine Board,

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 12th Dec., 1842.

For Vessels entering the Moulmein River.

A Vessel coming from the southward on sighting the fair way Buoy, which is a Black Buoy with two white rings painted on the upper part of it, and placed in 4½ fathoms water, on a patch of broken ground, of about 250 yards in extent, from which the present Reef Buoy bears N. 40° East, distant one and a half miles. A white Pagoda on the summit of the Eastern Hill, on the South end of Biloo Island, N. 10° East. Amherst large Pagoda near the Flag Staff S. 84° East, a conspicuous tree on the centre of the small Island off Amherst, S. 61½° East, a Vessel ought to stand direct for this Buoy and passing to the westward of it, you may then with a fair wind steer direct for the Reef Buoy, being careful not to bring it to northward of North East so as to avoid the Sunken Rocks and Foul Ground, extending from the Reef of Rocks off Amherst. The Reef Buoy is a Black Buoy, placed off the N. W. extreme of the Amherst or Queckmi Reef in 7 fathoms, from which the white Pagoda on Biloo Island, bears N. 5° East, Amherst large Pagoda S. 51° East the conspicuous tree on the Island off Amherst S. 29° East, passing this Buoy at one hundred and fifty or two hundred yards distance you may then stand in direct for the middle ground Buoy, which is also black, and situated on a Sunken Rock, in ¾ of a fathom at low water, with deep water on all sides of it, and bears from the Reef Buoy N. 84° East, distant 1¾ miles, carrying from 7 to 4 fathoms at low water, passing this Buoy to the northward you may then stand on to the eastward, and Anchor in 3½ or 4 fathoms, when the conspicuous tree on the centre of Amherst Island is in one with Amherst Point, which forms a Bluff close to the large Pagoda.

A Vessel getting at all to the northward, when outside the Reef Buoy, will avoid the S. W. extreme of the Goodwin Sand by keeping Amherst large Pagoda in one with the Reef Buoy, or open to the southward of it.

When inside the Reef Buoy the middle ground Buoy bearing E. 7° S. will take a Vessel clear of the South extreme of the Sand on the North side of the Channel, but it ought not to be brought to bear at all to the Sd. It is high water on full and change at the Reef Buoy at 2 hours.

Amherst large Pagoda is in { Latitude 16° 04′ 48″ N. / Longitude 97° 35′ 06″ E.

N. B.—In coming into the River keep all Black Buoys on your right hand and all Red on your left hand.

NOTICE

Touching the Pilot Station for the River Hooghly during the S. W. Monsoon of the Year 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the same causes existing which during last S. W. Monsoon rendered necessary the removal of the Pilot Station from off Point Palmyras to a position 6 or 8 miles S. W. of the outer Floating Light, and in from 16 to 20 fathoms water, this latter Station will be continued during the next S. W. Monsoon, viz. from 15th March to the 15th September.

During the last S. W. Monsoon, no difficulty would appear to have been experienced by Vessels passing from False Point Light House to the New Station, nor can any be left, if common attention be paid to the lead and to the following Directions prepared by Captain Lloyd, late Officiating Marine Surveyor General, after a careful Survey of the ground between the two Points.

False Point Light House is in Latitude 20° 19½′ N. and Longitude 86° 47′ E., and that of the South Channel Buoy in Latitude 20° 59′ N. and Longitude 88° 4′ E., and bears from the former N. 61 E. true N. E. by E. ¼ E. by Compass distant 83 miles, and is laid in 12 fathoms.

A Bank of Soundings extends from off Point Palmyras, in a direction towards the tail of the Western Sea Reef, and the nature of the bottom (as distinguished from that of the Hooghly deposit which is sand and mud with shining specks,) is a gravelly substance composed of sand shells and small pebbles discharged from the "Kunka," and other Rivers, near Point Palmyras, the lighter material of which being carried further out, is deposited and forms what is called the Pilots' Ridge, which in crossing to the N. Wd. shews a little less water than on either side. In coming from seaward you shoal rather suddenly from 28 to 23 fathoms upon its Eastern Edge. It is composed of a shelly sand or minute gravel of a reddish or rusty brown colour.

The best guide therefore to enable a Vessel to direct her course from False Point to the Vessels at the New Station, will be to run down the Edge of the Pilots' Bridge, which can readily be done by making the Light House and bringing it to bear about W. S. W. or S. W. by W. distant by computation from 10 to 15 miles then steering to the E. N. Ed. and having gradually encreased the depth of water to 23 fathoms upon the Eastern Edge of the Ridge, regulate the course to keep between it and 27 fathoms, when by attention to the lead and nature of the Soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to miss the Pilot Vessels, (if the above limits are kept within) either by getting too far to Windward or falling to Leeward; for the Soundings increase so rapidly to seaward from the proposed New Station, that 28 fathoms will not be more than 3 or 4 miles to the Southward of it and 23 fathoms the same distance to the Westward of it.

"The Soundings to seaward of the Ridge are in general a greenish or olive coloured mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it."

Vessels approaching the Station during the day are required to shew the usual Signal for a Pilot and by night to give as early and as much warning as possible by firing Guns, burning Blue Lights and by exhibiting two Lights in a vertical position, where best seen, but Commanders are recommended to avoid as much as possible making the Station during the night. To mark the Station one of the Pilot Vessels will shew during the day a large St. George's Jack (white with red cross) at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head and a good Mast Head, Light during the night and will burn a Blue Light and a Maroon alternately every half hour and fire a Gun at 8 P. M. at midnight and at 4 A. M. Vessels approaching the Station and while there, as well as when approaching the * Light, and Buoy Station Vessels are warned to be careful in avoiding collision by night or by day and in communicating with either of the above Vessels, either at anchor or hove too, when it is necessary to cross her to pass under the Stern, several instances of serious damage having occurred during the S. W. Monsoon, whereby the outer Floating Light was more than once compelled to leave her Station for repairs to the great inconvenience and risk of Vessels entering and quitting the River.

* The Light Vessels are directed when another Vessel is approaching during the night, shew a Light at the Gaff end to mark the way they are riding.

A Vessel will be stationed off False Point Light House, keeping it according to circumstances W. by S. to N. W. by N., in from 10 to 15 fathoms water.

She will exhibit during the day, when Vessels are in sight, a large Danish Jack at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head (red with white cross) and during the night a good Mast Head Light in the same place and will burn a Blue Light every half hour.

This Vessel will have no Pilot on board and is only intended generally to furnish information touching the Course to the New Station, but particularly to do so to Vessels which may be in ignorance of the position of the New Station.

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

No. 2154.

NOTICE.

The following Directions for Vessels entering the Moulmein River, prepared by Lieut. W. Fell, I. N., are published for general information.

By order of the Marine Board,

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 12th Dec., 1842.

For Vessels entering the Moulmein River.

A Vessel coming from the southward on sighting the fair way Buoy, which is a Black Buoy with two white rings, painted on the upper part of it, and placed in 4¾ fathoms water, on a patch of broken ground, of about 250 yards in extent, from which the present Reef Buoy bears N. 40° East, distant one and a half miles. A white Pagoda on the summit of the Eastern Hill, on the South end of Biloo Island, N. 40° East Amherst large Pagoda near the Flag Staff S. 84° East, a conspicuous tree on the centre of the small Island off Amherst, S. 61½° East, a Vessel ought to stand direct for this Buoy and passing to the westward of it, you may then with a fair wind steer direct for the Reef Buoy, being careful not to bring it to northward of North East so as to avoid the Sunken Rocks and Foul Ground, extending from the Reef of Rocks off Amherst. The Reef Buoy is a Black Buoy, placed off the N. W. extreme of the Amherst or Queckini Reef in 7 fathoms, from which the white Pagoda on Biloo Island, bears N. 5° East, Amherst large Pagoda S. 54° East the conspicuous tree on the Island off Amherst S. 29° East, passing this Buoy at one hundred and fifty or two hundred yards distance you may then stand in direct for the middle ground Buoy, which is also black, and situated on a Sunken Rock, in ¾ of a fathom at low water, with deep water on all sides of it, and bears from the Reef Buoy N. 81° East, distant 1¼ miles, carrying from 7 to 4 fathoms at low water, passing this Buoy to the northward you may then stand on to the eastward, and Anchor in 3½ or 4 fathoms, when the conspicuous tree on the centre of Amherst Island is in one with Amherst Point, which forms a Bluff close to the large Pagoda.

A Vessel getting at all to the northward, when outside the Reef Buoy, will avoid the S. W. extreme of the Goodwin Sand by keeping Amherst large Pagoda in one with the Reef Buoy, or open to the southward of it.

When inside the Reef Buoy the middle ground Buoy bearing E. 7° S. will take a Vessel clear of the South extreme of the Sand on the North side of the Channel, but it ought not to be brought to bear at all to the Sd. It is high water on full and change at the Reef Buoy at 2 hours.

Amherst large Pagoda is in { Latitude 16° 04′ 45″ N. / Longitude 97° 35′ 06″ E. }

N. B.—In coming into the River keep all Black Buoys on your right hand and all Red on your left hand.

Article of the Convention above referred to.

ARTICLE 6th.—"With regard "to the Trade in Opium it is "agreed between the High Contracting Parties that at each of the periodical Sales of "that Article there shall be reserved for the French Go-"vernment and delivered upon requisition duly made by "the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the "persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests "so applied for, provided that such supply shall not ex-"ceed three hundred Chests in each year, and the price "for the same shall be determined by the average rate at "which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodi-"cal Sale, it being understood that, if the quantity of "Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on "account of the French Government, by the usual period of "delivery, the quantity so applied for, shall nevertheless "be considered as so much in reduction of the three hun-"dred Chests herein before mentioned, the requisitions for "Opium, as beforesaid, are to be addressed to the Gover-"nor General at Calcutta, within thirty days after notice "of the intended Sales shall have been published in the "Government Gazette."

By Order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium,

H. TORRENS, Secretary.

NOTICE

Touching the Pilot Station for the River Hooghly during the S. W. Monsoon of the Year 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the same causes existing which during last S. W. Monsoon rendered necessary the removal of the Pilot Station from off Point Palmyras to a position 6 or 8 miles S. W. of the outer Floating Light, and in from 16 to 20 fathoms water, this latter Station will be continued during the next S. W. Monsoon, viz. from 15th March to the 15th September.

During the last S. W. Monsoon, no difficulty would appear to have been experienced by Vessels passing from False Point Light House to the New Station, nor can any be left, if common attention be paid to the lead and to the following Directions prepared by Captain Lloyd, late Officiating Marine Surveyor General, after a careful Survey of the ground between the two Points.

False Point Light House is in Latitude 20° 19½′ N. and Longitude 86° 47′ E., and that of the South Channel Buoy in Latitude 20° 59′ N. and Longitude 88° 4′ E., and bears from the former N. 61 E. true N. E. by E. ½ E. by Compass distant 83 miles, and is laid in 12 fathoms.

A Bank of Soundings extends from off Point Palmyras, in a direction towards the tail of the Western Sea Reef, and the nature of the bottom (as distinguished from that of the Hooghly deposit which is sand and mud with shining specks,) is a gravelly substance composed of sand shells and small pebbles discharged from the "Kunka," and other Rivers, near Point Palmyras, the lighter material of which being carried further out, is deposited and forms what is called the Pilots' Ridge, which in crossing to the N. Wd. shews a little less water than on either side. In coming from seaward you shoal rather suddenly from 28 to 23 fathoms upon its Eastern Edge. It is composed of a shelly sand or minute gravel of a reddish or rusty brown colour.

The best guide therefore to enable a Vessel to direct her course from False Point to the Vessels at the New Station, will be to run down the Edge of the Pilots' Bridge, which can readily be done by making the Light House and bringing it to bear about W. S. W. or S. W. by W. distant by computation from 10 to 15 miles then steering to the E. N. Ed. and having gradually encreased the depth of water to 23 fathoms upon the Eastern Edge of the Ridge, regulate the course to keep between it and 27 fathoms, when by attention to the lead and nature of the Soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to miss the Pilot Vessels, (if the above limits are kept within) either by getting too far to Windward or falling to Leeward; for the Soundings increase so rapidly to seaward from the proposed New Station, that 28 fathoms will not be more than 3 or 4 miles to the Southward of it and 23 fathoms the same distance to the Westward of it.

"The Soundings to seaward of the Ridge are in general a greenish or olive coloured mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it."

Vessels approaching the Station during the day are required to shew the usual Signal for a Pilot and by night to give as early and as much warning as possible by firing Guns, burning Blue Lights and by exhibiting two Lights in a vertical position, where best seen, but Commanders are recommended to avoid as much as possible making the Station during the night. To mark the Station one of the Pilot Vessels will shew during the day a large St. George's Jack (white with red cross) at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head and a good Mast Head, Light during the night and will burn a Blue Light and a Maroon alternately every half hour and fire a Gun at 8 P. M. at midnight and at 4 A. M. Vessels approaching the Station and while there, as well as when approaching the * Light, and Buoy Station Vessels are warned to be careful in avoiding collision by night or by day and in communicating with either of the above Vessels, either at anchor or hove too, when it is necessary to cross her to pass under the Stern, several instances of serious damage having occurred during the S. W. Monsoon, whereby the outer Floating Light was more than once compelled to leave her Station for repairs to the great inconvenience and risk of Vessels entering and quitting the River.

* The Light Vessels are directed when another Vessel is approaching during the night, shew a Light at the Gaff end to mark the way they are riding.

A Vessel will be stationed off False Point Light House, keeping it according to circumstances W. by S. to N. W. by N., in from 10 to 15 fathoms water.

She will exhibit during the day, when Vessels are in sight, a large Danish Jack at the Main Top Gallant Mast Head (red with white cross) and during the night a good Mast Head Light in the same place and will burn a Blue Light every half hour.

This Vessel will have no Pilot on board and is only intended generally to furnish information touching the Course to the New Station, but particularly to do so to Vessels which may be in ignorance of the position of the New Station.

NOTICE.

The following Directions for Vessels entering the Moulmein River, prepared by Lieut. W. Fell, I. N., are published for general information.

By order of the Marine Board,

C. B. GREENLAW,
Secretary.

Fort William,
The 12th Dec., 1842.

For Vessels entering the Moulmein River.

A Vessel coming from the southward on sighting the fair way Buoy, which is a Black Buoy with two white rings, painted on the upper part of it, and placed in 4¾ fathoms water, on a patch of broken ground, of about 250 yards in extent, from which the present Reef Buoy bears N. 46° East, distant one and a half miles. A white Pagoda on the summit of the Eastern Hill, on the South end of Biloo Island, N. 10° East Amherst large Pagoda near the Flag Staff S. 84° East, a conspicuous tree on the centre of the small Island off Amherst, S. 61½° East, a Vessel ought to stand direct for this Buoy and passing to the westward of it, you may then with a fair wind steer direct for the Reef Buoy, being careful not to bring it to northward of North East so as to avoid the Sunken Rocks and Foul Ground, extending from the Reef of Rocks off Amherst. The Reef Buoy is a Black Buoy, placed off the N. W. extreme of the Amherst or Queckini Reef in 7 fathoms, from which the white Pagoda on Biloo Island, bears N. 5° East, Amherst large Pagoda S. 54° East the conspicuous tree on the Island off Amherst S. 29° East, passing this Buoy at one hundred and fifty or two hundred yards distance you may then stand in direct for the middle ground Buoy, which is also black, and situated on a Sunken Rock, in ¾ of a fathom at low water, with deep water on all sides of it, and bears from the Reef Buoy N. 84° East, distant 1¾ miles, carrying from 7 to 4 fathoms at low water, passing this Buoy to the northward you may then stand on to the eastward, and Anchor in 3½ or 4 fathoms, when the conspicuous tree on the centre of Amherst Island is in one with Amherst Point, which forms a Bluff close to the large Pagoda.

A Vessel getting at all to the northward, when outside the Reef Buoy, will avoid the S. W. extreme of the Goodwin Sand by keeping Amherst large Pagoda in one with the Reef Buoy, or open to the southward of it.

When inside the Reef Buoy the middle ground Buoy bearing E. 7° S. will take a Vessel clear of the South extreme of the Sand on the North side of the Channel, but it ought not to be brought to bear at all to the Sd. It is high water on full and change at the Reef Buoy at 2 hours.

N. B.—In coming into the River keep all Black Buoys on your right hand and all Red on your left hand.

If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time abovementioned, the entire quantity of about 15,168 Chests of Behar and Benares as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertised for Sale, at each or any of the five Sales abovementioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Governor of Bengal reserves to himself the right of disposing of the Opium, which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a Sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

Article of the Convention above referred to.

ARTICLE 6th.—" With regard " to the Trade in Opium it is " agreed between the High Con-" tracting Parties that at each of the periodical Sales of " that Article there shall be reserved for the French Go-" vernment and delivered upon requisition duly made by " the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the " persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests " so applied for, provided that such supply shall not ex-" ceed three hundred Chests in each year, and the price " for the same shall be determined by the average rate at " which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodi-" cal Sale, it being understood that, if the quantity of " Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on " account of the French Government, by the Agents of " His Most Christian Majesty, within the usual period of " delivery, the quantity so applied for, shall nevertheless " be considered as so much in reduction of the three hun-" dred Chests herein before mentioned, the requisitions for " Opium, as beforesaid, are to be addressed to the Gover-" nor General at Calcutta, within thirty days after notice " of the intended Sales shall have been published in the " Government Gazette."
